

Stickney-Byrne Rites Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin M. Stickney are making their home at 522 Newton street following their wedding July 31 at St. Peter's Lutheran church. The Rev. John E. Simon officiated at 7 o'clock evening single ring rites.

Members of the immediate families attended. Mrs. Stickney is the former Florence M. Byrne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Gifford, 419 South Oakdale avenue. Mr. Stickney has been making his home at 20 Ashland avenue.

The bride wore a pale yellow summer sheer frock with white applique flowers and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Edward Canoose, daughter of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a white eyelet pique frock with pink carnation corsage.

Mr. Canoose served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Gifford home attended by 60 relatives and friends.

The couple traveled to the coast on a wedding trip. The bride attended Medford schools and is employed as a stenographer for the law firm of Van Dyke, Dellenback and McGowan. Mr. Stickney attended Iowa schools and is with Medford Veneer and Plywood corporation.

Browns Arrive For Visit Here

Second Lt. and Mrs. Darrel Brown and small daughter, Sandra, have arrived in Medford and are guests of the officer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin L. Brown, 1203 Queen Anne avenue.

Lieutenant Brown and his family will visit later with Mrs. Brown's parents in Milwaukie, and will leave August 29 from New York City for South Ruislip, near London, England, where the officer has been assigned to duty with the United States Air Force. They expect to be abroad for three years.

Mrs. Brown is the former Nancy Garrett of Milwaukie.

In Portland

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rinard, 1708 Thomas road, were in Portland last week end to visit relatives and attend the Centennial exposition.

Two Medford Couples Give Island Luau Last Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Huson and the Ralph Matlackes were hosts last evening for an island luau at the Huson's home, 3435 Forest avenue. More than 80 guests attended.

The two hosts worked for a number of weeks on the decorations. They erected a grass hut in the Huson garden, and constructed an eight-foot idol at the feet of which a fire burned.

A child's plastic swimming pool of aquamarine blue was filled with anthurium blossoms brought from the Hawaiian islands and in the background could be seen an outrigger canoe with sails, fish nets, spears, drums, masks and other objects of island usage completed the decorations, and a system of indirect outdoor lights had been arranged.

A 72-foot table was erected on which to serve the luau food. Large trays cut in the shape of fish held the traditional island food of barbecued pork, chicken and salmon; others were heaped with fresh fruits. Rice-fish casseroles and baked bananas completed the menu.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Newman, Oak

Lawn, Ill. Mrs. Newman, the former Florence Green of Medford, came here earlier to visit relatives and she was joined last week by her husband. He is superintendent of service for United Airlines.

This is the second annual Hawaiian party given by the couples, and they are acquiring a storehouse of objects and material to be used at others.

Shower Honors Miss Reichstein

One of the larger pre-nuptial affairs honoring Miss Suzanne Reichstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reichstein, 7 Glen Oak court, was a luncheon and shower Thursday, July 30.

Hostesses for the event, held at the home of Mrs. Homer Marx, Kings highway, were Mrs. Fred J. Carr, Mrs. Frank Perl and Mrs. Marx. Thirty guests attended.

Miss Reichstein's wedding to Alan Louis Keaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Keaton, Junction City, is planned for this afternoon at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Nancy Newton is Bride Of Episcopal Minister

Miss Nancy Louise Newton became the bride of the Rev. Duane Stuart Alvord in a ceremony held August 1 in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Salem. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Dale Newton, 916 Whitman street, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Alvord, Oregon City.

The bridegroom, recently ordained as an Episcopal deacon, is the new assistant rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church in Medford. St. Paul's church was the bridegroom's sponsoring church for his seminary studies.

About 250 guests attended the double-ring ceremony, held at three o'clock in the afternoon with the Rt. Rev. James W. F. Carman, Portland, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Oregon, officiating. This ceremony had been preceded by a nuptial eucharist celebrated at 10 o'clock in the morning by the Rt. Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, Portland, retired bishop of the Oregon diocese.

Music for the wedding ceremony was sung by a choir of 20 voices. Miss Helen Manke, Salem, was organist.

The bride's gown was of white moire silk taffeta designed with Sabrina neckline, long sleeves and full skirt ending in a chapel train. She carried a gardenia and stephanotis on an English prayer book and hymnal which had belonged to her grandmother and dated 1863.

Miss Martha Jean Sittion, Portland, was honor attendant and bridesmaids were the Misses Myrna Shumway and Carol McCracken, also Portland. All three wore sheath frocks of white lace over lavender taffeta with cummerbunds and back panels of lavender chiffon. They carried pink gladioli.

Mr. Newton gave his daughter in marriage and the Rev. Ronald Swanson, Corcoran, Calif., a Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity brother, was best man for the bridegroom. Stanley James Alvord, brother of the bridegroom, was acolyte and ushers were Thomas Murdock, Klamath Falls, Lewis Beatty, Portland, William Bryan, Milwaukie and the Rev. John Alstead, Salem. Mr. Bryan is a brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. Murdock and Mr. Beatty are also fraternity brothers.

The bride's parents and an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Bates, were hosts for the reception, given in the Bates' home. Mrs. John Day and Mrs. Jack Hillyard presided at the coffee urns; Mrs. Arthur Bates and Mrs. Raymond Thompson, Milwaukie, cut the wedding cake.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a mauve lace gown with pink accessories and Mrs. Alvord wore a Copenhagen blue dress with matching accessories.

For the wedding trip to Victoria, B.C., the bride wore a champagne colored suit with matching accessories.

The newlyweds will make their home at 748 West Fourth street, Apt. 4, Medford, after August 15. The bride, a registered nurse, attended Willamette university and was graduated from the University of Oregon Medical school, School of Nursing. She was on the staff of Doernbecher hospital, Portland, until the time of her marriage.

The bridegroom received his bachelor's degree from Willamette university and his divinity degree from Church Divinity School, Berkeley, Calif., in June.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Newton, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, and their children from Manhattan Beach, Calif.; Mrs. L. L. Boutelle, aunt of the bride, and Walter C. Prime, uncle of the bride, Los Angeles.

The bride, who has been living in Salem, spent some time with her parents here earlier this summer. During her visit she was honored at a pre-nuptial shower given by Mrs. Harold White and Mrs. Ed Paschke at the former's home. Sixteen guests attended and presented the honored guest gifts for her new home.

Luncheon Honors Lodge Matrons

Mrs. L. G. Frink gave a luncheon at her home, 1654 Thomas road, last week in honor of the worthy matrons of three Order of Eastern Star chapters and of Roxy Ann court, Order of Amaranth.

Honored were Mrs. Furman Everingham, matron of dandelion chapter, Jacksonville; Mrs. Frank Ward, matron of Nevada chapter, Central Point; Mrs. Frank C. Roberts, matron of Reames chapter, Medford and Mrs. Frank Little, royal matron of Roxy Ann court.

Other guests were Mrs. George Mero, Mrs. Wallace Brill, Mrs. John Pond, Mrs. Lloyd Caton, Mrs. Carl Oestreich, Mrs. Marshall Day, Shady Cove, Mrs. Frank Salvers, Mrs. Fred Graten, Mrs. Ira D. Canfield and Mrs. William Barnes.

Luncheon was served from three tables decorated with summer flowers from Mrs. Frink's garden. Gifts were presented to the four honored women.

Mrs. Frink was assisted by her aunt, Mrs. Edgar Welch, Wichita, Kan., who has been here on a visit.

Couple Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Harris, 271 South Stage road, were honored August 1 at a dinner party at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Richard Dolan, Phoenix. The occasion was the couple's 25th wedding anniversary.

The Harrises were married August 4, 1934, in the Rogue valley where he has been an orchardist.

The dinner was attended by eleven relatives including Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. George Robbins, Vern and Donald Harris, Mrs. H. Woolsey, Mrs. Elsie Barbee, Robert Newman and the couple's granddaughters, Sheryl Dolan and Julia Robbins.

Professor Is Visitor

George A. Coddling Jr., Philadelphia, is visiting his mother Mrs. Maud Coddling, 1015 Queen Anne avenue. He is a son of the late George Coddling, district attorney for Jackson county for eight years.

Accompanying her father to the valley is Christine, nearly 7.

Arriving today from Las Vegas is Mr. Coddling's sister, Mrs. Dale (Gail) Covey, who will travel with the other visitors and her mother to the coast for two weeks.

Mr. Coddling, a Medford high school graduate and former newsboy for the Mail Tribune, is assistant professor of political science at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. Last February he returned to the United States following 1½ years in Europe as a consultant for UNESCO on a Guggenheim Fellowship.

He is the author of two books "International Telecommunication Union" and "Broadcasting Without Barriers," which will be published this month under the sponsorship of UNESCO. The more recent book deals with broadcasting throughout the world.

Mr. Coddling attended Willamette university, the University of Washington, and received his Ph.D. degree from the University of Geneva, Switzerland.
