

Shower Given For Bride-Elect

Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer and her daughter, Miss Mira Frohnmayer, were among those who honored Miss Shirley Stafford before her wedding, held last evening at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

The party was a mother-daughter event held near the swimming pool in the Frohnmayer's garden at the family home on Spring street. Luncheon was served and the guests gave the bride-elect small gifts for the kitchen of her home. Twelve attended.

Miss Stafford, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Charles E. Stafford, 1914 Westlund drive, was the fiancée of Allan Leigh Budd, San Marino, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. James William Young

Young-Pearson Wedding Held at Catholic Church

The wedding of Miss Mary Lynne Pearson and James William Young was an event of Saturday, July 25 at 2 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Catholic church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Pearson, 622 South Ivy street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Young, Hillcrest-Phoenix road, Medford.

The afternoon service was read by the Rev. Timothy Sanders, Order of Saint Benedict, of Mount Angel church in the presence of close relatives and friends of the couple. Large baskets of Traveller pink and Mother McCrae white gladioli were used at the altar rail and smaller baskets were placed on the altar.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a ballerina full-skirted dress of white lace over blue with a satin cummerbund and matching slippers. She completed her wedding outfit with a shoulder-length veil held in place by a petal headdress and carried a white orchid with satin streamers on a white prayer book. Her gift from the bridegroom was a pearl and gold shell necklace with matching earrings.

Miss Marise Anderson, maid of honor, wore a blue embossed taffeta gown with matching headpiece and carried a cascade shower bouquet of pink Rosebud gladioli.

Best man for the bridegroom was Paul Smith. Ushers were Jack Haring and David Young, the latter the bridegroom's brother. Organist Tony Adams provided the traditional wedding music.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pearson wore a cocoa brown raw silk dress with matching jacket, beige fabric hat with matching bag and gloves. Mrs. Young's wedding attire was a beige linen suit with white linen hat and matching gloves and bag. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

A wedding reception followed at the Youngs' ranch home on Hillcrest-Phoenix road. The bride's table was covered with an off-white linen cloth with pink cutwork and complemented with large satin bows at the table corners.

Crystal teardrop candle holders with pink candles and gladioli similar to the church bouquets completed the pink and white table arrangement.

Mrs. Donald Pearson, Ashland, sister-in-law of the bride, cut the wedding cake. The wedding cake was first cut by the newly-married couple using a ivory and silver handled service knife which had been a gift to the bridegroom's great-grandparents on their 50th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Z. N. Agee, grandmother of the bridegroom, presided at the silver coffee service and Mrs. Donald Metzger and Mrs. Lawrence Pearson, both of Roseburg, the latter an aunt of the bride, attended the punch bowl. The guest book was in charge of Miss Janet Young, sister of the bridegroom.

For traveling the bride selected an off-white light summer wool outfit with blue accessories and wore the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The couple is now at home in this city, having returned from a week's trip to Portland where they attended the Oregon Centennial and traveling south via the coast highway to Lake Shasta.

Both attended Medford High school and plan to attend Southern Oregon college. Mr. Young is employed at the Medford Stationery store.

Out of town guests attending the rites were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pearson and Mr. and Mrs. Don Metzger, the Misses Donna and Helen, and John Metzger, all of Roseburg.

Hamiltons Here

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hamilton and small son, Alexander Moore Hamilton III, arrived in Medford by plane Thursday to spend several days here with Mr. Hamilton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton on Rose avenue.

The young Hamiltons live in Vermillion, S.D., where he is a student in the law school of the University of South Dakota.

California Couple Wed

Yreka - Evening rites read Tuesday, August 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Henderson of Yreka, married Mrs. Ann Clark and Paul Menefee Oroville. The Rev. Harold C. Coleman, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride chose for her wedding a sleeveless ballerina length gown of royal blue chiffon with a little white brocade hat and a white carnation corsage.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, close friends of the bride.

The Henderson home was decorated with arrangements of gladioli. Yellow roses were on the dining table near the wedding cake which was served following the marriage.

The newlyweds plan to remain in Yreka until this fall following completion of the Yreka city dam on Greenhorn. The bridegroom is working for the Baldwin Construction company. This fall the couple will take a belated honeymoon. They plan to make their home in Oroville.

Orchestra Coming

A state tour by the Portland Junior Symphony orchestra under the auspices of the Oregon Centennial commission will include Medford, local Centennial association officials have announced.

The symphony, under the direction of Jacob Avshalomov, will appear here October 18 at the Medford High school auditorium.

Other southern Oregon cities scheduled to hear the group are Coos Bay and Klamath Falls.

The orchestra is in its 34th season and includes young adults in their late teens and early 20's.

Bradley-Hartwell Rites Held at Nazarene Church

Ashland - Miss Carmen Louise Hartwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Hartwell, 150 North Main street, became the bride of Ronald Lawrence Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil L. Bradley, 118 South Stage road, Medford, in a ceremony held July 12 at Church of the Nazarene.

The Rev. E. E. Crawford officiated at the double ring ceremony held at two o'clock in the afternoon. White gladioli and fern and red roses decorated the church for the ceremony. Mrs. Boyd Foley was soloist accompanied by Miss Meredith Williams.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white nylon lace over satin frock. Her nylon veil was held by a satin band of flowers and she carried a bouquet of red and white carnations with stephanotis. Her pearl necklace was a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Viola M. Hartwell was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jason Pierce, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Richard Bradley, Medford, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. They wore nylon lace frocks and carried carnations. Miss Hartwell's frock was ice blue with Mrs. Pierce's blue, and Mrs. Bradley's green.

Little Nancy Byrd, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a yellow frock with a bouquet of carnations. Bobby Jackson, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Dennis Bradley, Medford, served as best man for his brother, Gordon Caster and Tom Troxel, both Medford, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. The table holding the tiered wedding cake was covered with a hand-crocheted tablecloth in pineapple design over red satin, made by the bride's mother. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Allen Byrd and Mrs. Kenneth Hartwell, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Virgil Jackson. Miss Mary Rothwell was in charge of the guest book and the Misses Joan and Judy Byrd, Shirley Neil and Irene Stanton were at the gift tables.

The newlyweds traveled to Portland on their wedding trip and are making their home at 420½ Laurel street, Medford. The bride attended Ashland High school and Mr. Bradley is a graduate of Phoenix High school. He is employed by Fir Ply, Inc.
