Deadline for Fair Entering Aug. 15

Entry blanks for the Kiwanis Centennial Fair will be received until Saturday, Aug. 15, Larry Horton, exhibits chairman, said yesterd y.

He said there are four departments in which exhibitors may submit entries. They are food, textiles, floral arrangements, and land products. Selection of prize winners will be handled at the Fair, which is scheduled Aug. 20 through Aug. 23 at the Medford Armory.

Rules governing the Oregon State Fair will apply to entries in the county fair, Horton said. Any person or group in Jackson county may enter.

Entry blanks may be submitted to Fair headquarters, 1221 Court st., prior to Aug. 15, Horton noted.

Travel Editors Visit in Valley

Four travel editors sponsored by the Pacific Northwest Travel association in which the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce maintains membership visited the Rogue valley this week end.

The editors are Don Page, Seattle Post Intelligencer; Wally Guenther, Los Angeles Times; Joseph Jost, St. Louis Globe Democrat; and Jerome Petit, Detroit Times.

Chamber officials said vacation trips to the Pacific nortwest, and to this area, have resulted from travel editor columns for the past 10 years.

County Court Tours National Forest

Members of the Jackson county court were familiarized Thursday with what is being done to keep Rogue River National forest lands productive as they are being cut off.

Judge Earl Miller and Commissioners Chester Wendt and Ralph James were taken over most of the Butte Falls district and part of the Prospect district by Howard Hopkins, timber management officer of the forest.

The county officials were shown forest utilization, reforestation work and road development. Hopkins took them to one, six and 47-year-old forest "plantations" and to a clear cut area where burning will be done this fall planting next spring. The 47-year-old planting was made in an area burned in 1910.

Norway Student to Live in Yreka

Yreka–Brit Froydis Ebert, 16, of Norway, is on her way to Yreka as an American Field Service student to spend the high school year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young.

An outstanding student at home, Brit will be a senior at Yreka High schol and a member of a family that includes a foster brother and sister, Mike, 13, and Shelly Young, 14.

Brit is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ebert of Oslo. Her father is a fireman.

Usual life span of the oak tree is 200 to 300 years.

Twenty-Five Names Drawn for First Jury Panel for Medford

Twenty-five names were drawn Friday at city hall for Medford's first jury panel.

The persons selected will be on call for duty on trial juries through the rest of 1959.

Their names were drawn by lot by City Recorder Darell Huson in the presence of City Judge Alan Holmes and City Attorney Joel B. Reeder. They were drawn from a preliminary jury list of 200 names.

This action followed approval by the city council last week of an ordinance authorizing jury trials in municipal court for offenses against the city. Legislation passed by the state earlier this year paved the way.

No Requests

Reeder reported that so far no defendants in municipal court have requested a jury trial under the new procedure.

Only residents who have paid taxes on real property are subject to jury duty, Reeder explained. He noted that this differs from jury procedure at the county level.

He pointed out that while Oregon law covering county-level juries (district and circuit courts) specifies that jurors be picked from either the latest tax roll or the registration list from the last election, the new state law covering trials in city courts does not specifically spell out this either/or alternative.

On Both Lists

Hence, he said, he has construed the new law applying to city court juries to mean that a prospective juror's name must appear on both lists. This eliminates persons eligible to vote in city elections but not owning houses or other taxable real property.

Those otherwise qualified who can claim exemption from jury duty under state law include: judges; state or federal officers whose duties would be inconsistent with jury duty; attorneys; practicing physicians, dentists, optometrists, chiropraetors, osteopaths, Christian Science practitioners, naturopaths, and undertakers; firemen; state senators and representatives, while the Legislature is in session; and active members of the Oregon National Guard, or those who have served actively with the Guard for six years.

Generally, those qualified for jury duty include persons over 21 who are U.S. citizens, residents of the county for at least a year, in possession of their "natural faculties" and of sound mind, who have never been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude and who would if called be serving on a jury panel for more than one term in a year.

The list of 25 selected includes:

ATKINS, William E., 711 West Second st.; ATTERBURY, Elmo, 1002 West Eleventh st.; BARNES, Margaret P., 2210 Hillcrest rd.; BENNETT, John L., Jr., 23 Rose ave.; BINEGAR, Patricia E., 1441 South Ivy st.; BURCHFIELD, Bessie, 232 Beatty st.; COY, Sam F., 321 Effie st.; DICKEY, Pauline E., 53 South Modoc ave.; DYNGE, Verda M., 1301 Spring st.; EDWARDS, Earl A., 718 South Holly st.; EISMANN, Vina, 723 Sherman ave.; FAHLEN, Olva, 48 South Modoc ave.; FISCH, Farrell E., 614 South Holly st.; GILMAN, Lew G., 1100 East Main st.; HAWK, Inez, 1709 East Jackson st.; HOSKINS, June, 201 Ashland ave.; HUGHES, Gladys, 720 South Modoc ave.; KLATT, Melba, 204 Medford Heights; KULA, Frank, 1634 Grand ave.; LEEK, Eula P., 1530 West Main st.; LOGAN, Alta L., 732 West Second st.; McHUGH, Ruth E., 500 North Berkeley way; ROUHIER, Charlette Jean, 925 Winchester ave.; WHITE, Jack E., 531 Palm st.; and YOUNG, Bessie E., 519 North Grape st.

Prospect Residents Assured of Help in Establishing Dump

Assurance that it definitely will cooperate in establishment and operation of a new garbage dump in the Prospect area was given to residents of that community Thursday by the Jackson county court.

County and Rogue River National forest service officials met with representatives of Prospect organizations and inspected the proposed dump site.

County Commissioner Chester Wendt said that court decision on just what its participation in the dump will be is anticipated in the next few days. He pointed out that the court faces similar problems in other areas and is taking an overall view of the matter.

Tentative proposal is that the U.S. forest service make available to the county court a site a short distance off Red Blanket rd. about two miles northeast of Prospect for a landfill dump rather than a burning dump.

Dump Closed

A dump near the state department of forestry's Prospect guard station has been closed because of its status as a fire hazard.

Prospect people have agreed to prepare the proposed national forest site if the county can operate it as a dump. Wendt indicated that the court will not go directly into the garbage dump business but is contemplating assistance. He reported that the site is well adapted for landfill disposal and that the court is most interested in cooperating with Prospect residents. The site was okehed Thursday by County Sanitarians Orie Moore and William Dieriex, the commissioner said.

Wendt stated that the proposed dump site is now covered with timber, sale of which would pay for construction of a .9-mile dirt road. The county is being asked to put rock on the road.

At the Prospect meeting, in addition to County Judge Earl Miller, Commissioners Ralph James and Wendt and the sanitarians were County Engineer Paul Rynning, Assistant Engineer Robert Carstenson and Timber Management Officer Howard Hopkins of Rogue River National forest.

STUNT COST MOUNTS

Lafayette, Ind. – (UPI) – Officials of the Lafayette National bank who budgeted $8 for a promotion stunt added up the bill Friday and found they'd actually thrown away $2,808. The bank sold 800 silver dollars for 99 cents each. Thursday, they said, they were advised that the mint-condition 1896 coins have a collectors value of $4.50 each.

LOTS OF 'GAS'

New York—(UPI)—A giant 100,000-ton supertanker can carry enough gasoline in one voyage to fill the tanks of 2,150,000 passenger cars, the American Petroleum Institute notes.

Youth Suffers Arm Break in Accident

Klamath Falls–(UPI)–James P. Leahey Jr., 14, Portland, was reported recovering in Klamath Valley hospital here Friday from a broken arm suffered in a car-truck collision seven miles south of the Diamond Lake Junction while he was being driven to Klamath Falls to take part in the state Babe Ruth baseball tourney.

Young James was being brought to the tourney here by his father, James P. Leahey Sr., when the car was in a collision with a pickup truck driven by Roland Walton Smith, Medford. State police said Smith was attempting to make a left-hand turn at the time of the collision Wednesday. Mrs. Leahey was treated at Klamath Valley hospital for minor injuries and released.

Des Moines – (UPI) – A 14-week-old boy was in jail Friday serving a three-day sentence with his parents. The parents, Alfred D. Clark, 48, and his wife, Katherine, 39, were sentenced Thursday after pleading guilty to a charge of intoxication. Then Judge Harry B. Grund learned that the baby, Alfred Jr., was breast-fed. Judge Grund ordered that the child stay with his mother.
