

GOLD HILL Family Moves to Town

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill - The Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Kendall and their grandson, Tommy Huntington, formerly of Clarks, Ore., moved to Gold Hill recently. They bought a home owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill McGargue, who have moved to Medford.

Mr. Kendall is a retired Methodist minister. Prior to coming here, he was pastor of the Methodist church in Clarks. The Kendalls are parents of Mrs. H. H. Robertson, Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jensen, Old Highway 99, south, returned to their home here after a vacation in Phoenix, Ariz., where they were guests of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Breunig. The Breunigs' two sons, Eddy and Bobby, accompanied them home and will remain here until later this month. At that time, the Jensens will leave for Phoenix, Ariz., to live.

Prior to returning to Gold Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jensen visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Breunig, Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jensen, Lower Lake.

Miss Judy Dunn of Garden Grove, Calif., is a guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cooper, and family. Prior to her arrival, she visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rossi, Coos Bay.

Mrs. Ernie Cooper returned to her home here from Portland recently after visiting friends several days.

Mrs. Earl Moore, Gold Hill, and her sister, Mrs. Bert Alberts, Chiloquin, attended a family reunion of the Hamilton, Richards, and Hall families at the Banks Grove Resort near Seaside. A total of 150 relatives gathered for the event.

En route, Mrs. Alberts was a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moore. Other recent guests at the Moore home were Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hamilton.

Last week end, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moore went to Brookings where they were joined later by Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Grebb, Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. Derwin Maple and son, Steve, Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Grebb and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hallaway and children, Michael and Scott, all of Eagle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gribble had as guests one week their grandsons, Billy, Stephen and Danny Colley of Central Point. They are children of Mr. and Mrs. William Colley. Mrs. Colley spent that week attending a leadership school of the Presbyterian church. She is superintendent of the church school of the Central Point Presbyterian church.

World War I Veteran's Barracks 1835 and auxiliary will meet at the VFW hall in Rogue River Thursday, Aug. 13, at 8 p.m. All World War I veterans are eligible for membership in the barracks, and wives, widows and daughters of World War I veterans are eligible to belong to the auxiliary.

Miss Delores Cooper was among students of St. Mary's High school, Medford, who were appointed by Sister Shawn Marie to attend the Summer School of Catholic Action National Convention in San Francisco, Calif., recently. Miss Cooper will be a junior at St. Mary's this fall.

Spending two days recently at huckleberry gap were Mr.

and Mrs. Earl Moore, Gold Hill, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Grebb, and Mrs. D. C. Maple and son, Steve, all of Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Walker and sons, Danny and Robin, of Santa Rosa, Calif., visited Mr. and Mrs. Delos Walker recently. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Walker and brother of Delos.

Other recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Walker were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Willis, and children, Chris Anne, Charlie, and Susan of Fresno, Calif. The Willis also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner in Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer arrived here from their home in Arizona last week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bell and other friends. The Palmers are former residents of Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stevens, Medford, accompanied by their grandson, John Gee, Atwater, Calif., and Joe Smith, Medford, visited Mr. and Mrs. William Force, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McManahan and sons, Douglas and Steven, were hosts at their home on Sardine Creek recently for a party honoring the McManahan's youngest son, Jeffery, on his second birthday, and Mrs. McManahan's grandfather, George Taylor, on his 85th birthday. The occasion was also in observance of Mrs. George Taylor's 85th birthday which was Aug. 4. The Taylors celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary last Feb. 16.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Roughton and son, Terry, who came from Urbana, Ill. Mrs. Roughton is the daughter of the honored couple, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. William Gathright, and Mrs. Eliza McManahan, all of Medford. Howard Taylor is the son of the George Taylors.

The John Cogswell's home was the scene of a barbecue dinner Aug. 2 in observance of Mrs. Cogswell's, Harry Newnham, and Lester Parker's birthdays. The honorees have celebrated their birthdays together annually for the past 14 years.

Others attending were Mrs. Harry Newnham, Wink Newnham, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Newnham, and daughters, Cindy and Dianne, Mrs. Lester Parker, and the host, John Cogswell, all of Gold Hill, Mrs. Richard Abbott and children, Debbie, Dickie, and Julie, Chula Vista, Calif.; Richard Biles and Miss Elaine Parkens, Grants Pass, and Bill Boye, Fort Ord, Calif.

Eileen Kell was honored at a party given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kell, Aug. 5 in observance of her 10th birthday anniversary Aug. 4. A unique doll cake made by her mother was served with refreshments to Mrs. Cecil Johnson, Mrs. Jack Arnold and sons, Donald and James, Mrs. Ervin Gehring, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Sutton and children, Bobby and Shirley, and Eileen's three brothers, David, Paul and Jonathan.

Mrs. Jules Herion and daughter, Cindy, have returned to their home in Seattle, Wash., after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pugh. Mrs. Herion also visited

Broadcasters Hold Meeting in Valley

Fifteen members of the Oregon Association of Broadcasters are attending a board of directors meeting here this week end. Ray Johnson, manager of radio station KMED, is president of the association.

The group attended a dinner at the Rogue Valley Country club and attended the Shakespearean festival in Ashland Friday night.

Gordon Capps of Ontario, vice president of the broadcasters; and Ted Smith, Pendleton; Mac McCready, Eugene; Bob Franklin, Portland; Ken Lockwood, LaGrande; Dean Charles Duncan, University of Oregon, and general manager of the broadcaster's association, are among those attending the meeting.

COUPLE CAUGHT SHORT

Hollywood - (UPI) - Margaret O'Brien, who on her 21st birthday last year collected an estimated $300,000 saved from her earnings as a child star, was nearly unable to pay $2 for a marriage license Thursday. Neither Miss O'Brien nor her fiancé, Harold Robert Allen Jr., 24, could muster the necessary cash after a marriage bureau clerk told Allen that checks were unacceptable. A news photographer quickly stepped up and cashed Allen's check for him. The wedding is Saturday.
