St. Louis, Mo. — (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants, leading the National league by 1 1/2 games, launch a make 'em or break 'em road trip here tonight.

Sam Jones (15-10) was scheduled to start for San Francisco against Larry Jackson (9-10) in the opener of a 19-game invasion through the Middle West and East.

They checked out of San Francisco Sunday bolstered by a 4-3 victory over Cincinnati which big Orlando Cepeda achieved in the 10th inning by socking a home run off Don Newcombe.

"I hit a fast ball," the tawny slugger said afterward. And during the day he also laced out a double and hit a single while helping end Newcombe's spell over the Giants.

At game time, the big right hander had beaten San Francisco four times this year without a loss and gone the distance each time.

Elroy Face Near Chucking Mark

Chicago — (UPI) — Elroy Face, the Pittsburgh Pirates' relief specialist who has won 15 games in relief without defeat, is only four games away from record book immortality.

He needs that many more to match the record set by Rube Marquard with the 1912 New York Giants who won 19 straight for the 1912 New York Giants.

Face made it 15-0 for the season and won his 20th straight, including five victories of last season, with a three-inning stint against the Chicago Cubs Sunday.

Berra Lashes Home Run 300

New York — (UPI) — Yogi Berra is the first catcher and 16th player in major league history to join the 300-homer club.

Berra hit the 300th homer of his career with two out in the ninth inning of Sunday's nightcap with Kansas City to send the game into overtime.

Other active major leaguers who have hit 300 homers are Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Duke Snider and Gil Hodges.

Babe Ruth leads the all-time parade with 714—not counting 15 in World Series competition.

Title Kept By Pascual

Tokyo — (UPI) — World flyweight champion Pascual Perez of Argentina retained his world title in his eighth defense today, scoring a unanimous decision over challenger Kenji Yonekura of Japan in a 15-round match.

PARKROSE VICTOR

Portland — (UPI) — Parkrose won the state Cub baseball title Sunday with a 7-1 victory over North Plains. Parkrose also won the Pee Wee crown with a 10-1 triumph over Scappoose.

Sanford Pitches Giants to 4-3 Victory; Cepeda, Lynch Homer

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
They say pitching wins pennants—and both the White Sox and Giants are getting it these days in pennant-winning style.

The White Sox, of course, almost always have gotten fine pitching while San Francisco's hurling has been the team's big question mark. Now, however, Jack Sanford has come along to bolster the Giant staff and it may be that he'll help just enough in the stretch to spell 11-9.

Both front-runners increased their leads Sunday, the White Sox boosting their American league margin to three games by whipping the Washington Senators, 4-3 and 9-0, and the Giants increasing their lead to 1 1/2 games in the National league with a 4-3, 10-inning win over the Cincinnati Reds.

Gerry Staley pitched shut-out ball for 4 1/3 innings to win the opener for the White Sox and then Early Wynn fired a three-hitter for his 15th victory of the season and the 264th of his career. Sanford, meanwhile, turned in his fourth straight victory with a powerful five-hitter.

The Baltimore Orioles aided the White Sox cause by knocking off the second-place Cleveland Indians, 4-3, and the Milwaukee Braves helped the Giants by downing the second place Los Angeles Dodgers, 8-7.

The New York Yankees went into a third-place tie with Baltimore by winning a marathon doubleheader from the Kansas City Athletics, 4-3 and 3-2, and the Detroit Tigers beat the Boston Red Sox, 7-3, in other AL games.

Relief ace Elroy Face won his 15th straight game as the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Chicago Cubs, 5-3, and the Philadelphia Phillies whipped the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-3 and 4-2, in other NL games.

The White Sox won their 27th one-run decision when Jim Landis singled, a wild pitch by Dick Hyde and an error by Roy Sievers enabled them to snap a 3-3 tie in the eighth inning of the first game. Earl Torgeson drove in three runs with two singles and a sacrifice fly and Nelson Fox and Wynn each had two hits in the nightcap for the White Sox. Harmon Kilbreth hit his 35th homer for Washington.

Orlando Cepeda homered in the 10th inning to give San Francisco the victory after Jerry Lynch's 15th homered tie the score in the ninth. It was the fourth straight victory for Sanford since recovering from a fractured hand suffered on June 11. The loss went to Don Newcombe.

Milt Pappas, brilliant 20-year-old right hander, scored his 12th victory for the Orioles when two Cleveland errors proved Jim Perry's undoing. The Orioles pushed over the winning run after two out in the seventh when Bob Boyd singled, Joe Ginsberg walked and George Strickland led Brooks Robinson's grounder go through him for an error.

Braves Lead 8-0
Joe Adcock's three-run homer and Ed Mathews' two-run circuit cut enabled the Braves to pile up an 8-0 lead but Bob Buhl finally needed ninth-inning relief help from Don McMahon to win his 9th game. Hank Aaron, Bill Brundage and Felix Mantilla contributed two hits each to the Milwaukee attack while Walby Moon had three hits and Duke Snider had two including a homer for Los Angeles.

Gil McDougald singled with the bases filled and two out to win the 14-inning opener for the Yankees and then Elston Howard walked a homer to take the 11-inning nightcap. Yogi Berra homered with two out in the ninth to send the second game into overtime after Russ Snyder's first major league homer gave the Athletics a 2-1 lead in the eighth. Relievers Ryne Duren and Bobby Shantz were the

"We're in good condition physically," said Manager Walt Alston after Sunday's hectic duel with the Braves. Although Carl Furillo's return to regular service still is indefinite, the Dodgers will get Gil Hodges back at first base in Chicago and both Koufax and Danny McDevitt looked sharp in relief against Milwaukee Sunday.

Dodgers Slate 17-Game Jaunt

Los Angeles — (UPI) — The Los Angeles Dodgers, narrowly missing the season's biggest comeback, start out tomorrow on a 17-game road trip expected to decide their chances in the three-way National league pennant fight.

The Dodgers dropped an 8-7 decision to the Milwaukee Braves before a crowd of 29,234 at the Coliseum in the final game of a home stand that saw them hold their second position behind San Francisco.

But the defeat, coupled with the Giants' triumph over Cincinnati, chopped a game off their advantage over third-place Milwaukee and dropped them 1 1/2 games behind the Giants.

The Dodgers open the road trip Tuesday against Chicago, with either Johnny Podres (9-7) or Sandy Koufax, (5-2), scheduled to pitch. The Cubs nominated either Glenn Hobbie (11-9) or Art Cicarelli, (4-1).

"We're in good condition physically," said Manager Walt Alston after Sunday's hectic duel with the Braves. Although Carl Furillo's return to regular service still is indefinite, the Dodgers will get Gil Hodges back at first base in Chicago and both Koufax and Danny McDevitt looked sharp in relief against Milwaukee Sunday.

Bears Nab Lead Again

United Press International
The Yakima Bears Sunday turned Eugene's first place position in the Northwest League into a one night stand. Yakima surged back into first place by taking both ends of a double header, 3-0 and 8-2, from the Emeralds. The losses dropped Eugene, which had taken the lead only the night before, back into a tie with Lewiston for the number two spot.

In other action Sunday Lewiston won the first game of a double header 8-7 from Tri-City only to have the Braves bounce back for a 6-1 decision in the second game. Wenatchee and Salem split a twin bill with the Chiefs winning the first game 4-3 and the Senators taking the nightcap 6-4.

OREGON CITY WINS

Portland — (UPI) — Oregon City won the Oregon Connie Mack league baseball title Sunday night with a 7-2 win over Eugene. Eugene won the first game of a twin bill 4-0. Oregon City defeated Eugene Saturday night 7-3.

Gambler Sought In Fight Probe

New York — (UPI) — Police sought one reputed big-time gambler today in connection with the Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson fight promotion, and another widely known gambler was scheduled to testify today before the grand jury investigating the promotion.

District Attorney Hogan's office disclosed that Gilbert Lee Beckley, said to be a professional gambler of Surfside, Fla., and Fort Mitchell, Ky., apparently had fled to Havana, thereby evading a New York detective and assistant district attorney who had gone to Miami to get him as a witness.

Meanwhile, Frank Erickson—a convicted gambler and bookmaker who was once estimated to have run a $10,000,000 a year wagering business out of New Jersey locations—was scheduled to appear as a witness before the grand jury.

Alex Still Rates High

San Francisco — (UPI) — Alex Olmedo, who stands accused of blowing two tennis matches this year in moments of pique, still rates high enough with the USLTA brass 4-0 to be named to the Davis Cup squad.

The erratic Peruvian was selected last Saturday along with Earl Buchholz of St. Louis, Barry MacKay of Dayton, O., and Bernard (Tut) Bartenz of Dallas. Challenge Round competition for the Cup will take place Aug. 28-30 at Forest Hills.

Philadelphia — A u s t r a l i a clinched its inter-zone Davis Cup title with Italy when Neale Fraser and Roy Emerson downed Nicola Pietrangeli and Orlando Sirola, 3-6, 11-9, 6-3, 9-7 in the doubles competition, delayed one day by rain.
