

Ken Allison Victor Over Gas Classes

Expected outside competition failed to materialize at yesterday's drag races held at Camp White and as a result the top awards went to local and regional entrants.

Ken Allison, Brookings, walked off with the top hardware of the two-day meet when he edged all other gas class winners and copped the top class eliminator trophy plus a $25 Savings bond. Allison has been a consistent winner all summer, driving his 58 Plymouth to win class trophies four times and copping the little eliminator laurels on two occasions.

Roseburg entrant Lee Hirm gunned his 59 Chevrolet to the fastest gas class time of the meet, 97.43 miles per hour, to garner another $25 Savings bond put up by Southern Oregon Timing association. Hirm also eliminated all competition in C gas class and took home that award.

With the absence of the Black-Roberts A dragster in Sunday's competition coupled with the withdrawal of Zombie, the A competition coupe from Medford, speeds were rather slow in the competition classes.

Both top time of the meet and top eliminator honors went to the Roak Knights B dragster from Ashland with United Press International School's out this week for the National Football league's rookies — and they'll get the chance right away to prove how well they've learned their lessons.

After three weeks of highly concentrated drills in the pro circuit's training camps, the "kids" toss aside their books and try to remember all the various offensive and defensive maneuvers that have been crammed into their heads under game conditions.

On Friday, the year's top college draft choices will draw their first pro pay checks after skirmishing with the champion Baltimore Colts in the 26th annual All-Star game in Chicago. The action will be televised nationally by ABC.

Then the Eastern Division champion New York Giants play the Philadelphia Eagles at Hershey, Pa., the Chicago Cardinals tangle with the Detroit Lions at Norman, Okla., and the Chicago Bears meet the Green Bay Packers at Milwaukee in Saturday night games.

Negro Cult Cancels Meeting

Indianapolis, Ind. — (UPI) — A planned rally by an extremist Negro religious cult was cancelled Sunday when a Methodist church locked the group out of the church sanctuary.

About 50 followers of Elijah Muhammad, self-styled "messenger of Allah," milled around outside the Gorham Methodist church after the church's board of trustees decided at the last minute to deny them use of the sanctuary.

The meeting was switched to a Baptist church but then was cancelled entirely because of the large number of police and newspaper reporters present.

Police Inspector Carl C. Schmidt read the cult members Indiana's laws against inciting to race hatred. The cult preaches supremacy of the black race, according to a story in a national magazine.

Schmidt said the statute provides a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $100,000 fine for those who "create, advocate, spread or disseminate hatred for or against any person . . . by reason of race, color or religion."

More Than 1,000 Believed Dead in Formosa Floods

Taipei — (UPI) — Police said today that more than 1,000 persons were dead or missing in Formosa's worst floods in recorded history. There were fears the death toll would rise further.

Latest reports listed 498 known dead, 541 missing and 563 injured. An unconfirmed report said one U.S. Army officer was missing in central Formosa.

Telephone and telegraph communications with the hard-hit area in central and southern Formosa were mostly destroyed and there was a strong possibility the number of dead would increase.

A United Press International photographer flew over the disaster area today and reported that the floods appeared to be receding. He said conditions still were "horrible."

Fields still flooded

Waters had drawn back from the cities and larger villages but thousands and thousands of acres of rice fields and sugar cane fields were still flooded.

Authorities feared there would be many more dead under the mud and debris.

An express train carrying about 500 passengers was stranded Friday night near Changhua in central Formosa. Taipei officials did not know today whether the train was still stranded or whether the passengers, who had been without food since Friday, had been supplied.
