Big Funds Turning Cautious; No Trend Toward Bearishness

By ELMER C. WALZER
UPI Financial Editor
New York (UPI) — The big funds whose buying has been a big factor in this bull market are turning a bit cautious.

Elmer Walzer more government bonds and built up cash reserves.

This is brought out in an analysis of 86 of the big funds made by A. Wilfred May, executive editor of the Commercial & Finance Chronicle, and carried in the current issue.
There is no trend toward bearishness, although a few fund managers are bearish. And some are distinctly bullish. But many are cautious in view of the high prices for stocks and the high yields on bonds.

Can Make Mistakes
These fund managers, it is brought out, aren't infallible. They can make mistakes. For example in the second quarter they bought heavily in Ford Motor Co. stock at prices ranging from $57 to $75 a share. If they had a crystal ball, they could have loaded up with the stock in the second quarter of 1958 at prices running from $33 to $43.

Ford was the most popular of the purchases. Twenty-three managements bought 322,300 shares while only one sold 4,000 shares. In the second quarter of 1958 seven managements sold 95,400 shares and only three bought 29,100 shares.

During the second quarter this year, the funds bought several electronics stocks on balance. This group got a real shellacking last week and some men said their glamour had been dimmed. They could be wrong.
Oils Were Sold
The funds sold oils. Out of 32 companies in the survey, the funds sold 23 and bought small amounts on balance in 9 others. They sold 187,000 shares of Sinclair and bought 25,500; sold 92,500 shares of Standard Oil of California and bought 16,500; sold 76,991 shares of Standard Oil (N.J.) and bought 24,933; and they sold 130,000 shares of British Petroleum and bought 10,000.

First half year profits of the oil companies surprised every one with net income of 36 companies a gain of 24 per cent over the first half of 1958.
Investment company managers do not claim infallibility. They stress diversification and careful management of funds in their operations.

Wall Street refers to them as stock market experts, but they never claim that title. John A. Straley, an expert on mutual funds, has a definition for a market expert.

Market Expert Definition
A market expert, says Straley, is one who can tell you before 10 a.m. which stocks will go up, and after 3:30 p.m. can tell you why they did not.

In his survey of the funds, May found that the companies favored in addition to Ford, such issues as General Motors, Kaiser Aluminum, Jones & Laughlin, American Viscose, Republic Steel and Pittsburgh Plate Glass.

American Telephone supplanted Standard Oil (N.J.) as the most heavily sold issue, followed by Boeing Airplane, American Can, and Gulf Oil. Among the favored groups in addition to the automobile and aluminum were coppers, steels, textiles, banks, building shares, chemicals, electronics, and finance companies. Rails were moderately bought.

Utilities Lost Ground
Airlines met liquidation along with the oils. Utilities lost some ground. Farm equipments, aircrafts, containers, drugs, insurance issues and nickels met mixed buying. Interest lagged in gold shares. Foreign issues met increased buying.

In this group the best bought stock was Unilever.
Other foreigners included United Science, General Electric of Germany, Borax, Ltd., De Beers, Ltd., Montecatini, Rhodesian-Anglo American, Ltd., St. Gobain S i m c a, Schlumberger, Ltd., Union Siderurgique, Lorraine and Union Miniere Du Hant-Katanga.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson of Roseburg spent a few days visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burdett, of Shady Cove. Other house guests of the Burdett's have been Loy Barker of Klamath Falls, brother of Mrs. Burdett.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Massey of San Francisco were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Massey of Trail recently.

Mrs. Charles Goebel of San Francisco, who has spent the past several summers here, is confined to Letterman hospital, the Presidio, San Francisco. She is suffering from a heart condition.

The pie social sponsored by the HEC of the Shady Cove Grange last Sunday was considered successful.

Mrs. George Haskell Brown of Tyron, N. C., is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brooks at Trail.

Newcomers to Trail are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Murphy and

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams and daughter, Caroline, of Shafter, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams and children, Miles Jr., and Judy, have been visiting Jack and Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Williams, of Shady Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bressler, recent newcomers, have had several guests. They include Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Schuller of Colfax, Calif., Mrs. Bressler's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Robertson of Colfax, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Kimberlin of Chicago Park, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Athel Dudley of Shady Cove have returned from a vacation trip during which they visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Horner of Emmetsburg, Iowa. They met at Bear Lake, Utah.

Mrs. Ivan Sneed and granddaughter, Penny Fry, of Trail, have returned from a vacation trip to Warrenton, Ore., where they visited Mrs. Sneed's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fry. On their way home, they stopped in Portland where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knuger.

Mrs. Cecil Kee and daughter, Cecelia, and Mrs. Ivan Hale and children, Carol and Kevin, recently went on a trip to Washington. Mrs. Kee and Cecelia visited Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kee in Seattle and Mrs. Hale's brother and sister-in-law, and Mrs. Thomas Cunningham in Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ackley and children, Daryl and Duane, San Joe, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bob Vincent of Shady Cove.

and learned she had a baby last year and was placed in a home. When I confronted her with this she denied it as brazenly as could be. She's very pretty, I'll admit that, but how can I convince Jimmy that he'd ruin his life getting mixed up with her?

Jimmy S. — Dad just doesn't understand about my girl. She isn't bad or cheap at all. She just had terrible breaks in life and nobody has ever really loved her or cared about her until she met me.
When I met Dolly she was living in a foster home where they mistreated her something terrible. She was later sent to her aunt's home. Her aunt is nice, but doesn't really want her and she gives her all the hardest, dirtiest work in the house.
When Dolly got into trouble it wasn't because she was bad but because she was trying to get away from her mother who was living a very terrible life with a man who wasn't her husband. What can you expect when a girl comes out of such a background?

Lucas S.—The girl's a tramp... my boy is ruining himself.

Jimmy S. — She isn't really bad.

Lucas S. — What can a father do when his son gets into trouble with a tramp of a girl — aged 17?

Jimmy is 19 and has always been a very good kid. We never had the least trouble with him. Last year he started taking night courses in accounting and was planning on a big future. Then he met this real cheap girl and now he wants to get married. All his plans have gone up in smoke.

I checked up on this girl and it is estimated that it requires at least twice as much power to crank a gasoline engine at 10 degrees temperatures as at normal summer temperatures of 70 degrees or more.

The Family Council

Editor's note: The Family Council consists of a judge, a psychiatrist, three clergymen, a newspaper editor, a woman's editor and two writers. Each article is a summary of an actual report. The Family Council does not give advice; it merely reports on problems that have been dealt with by responsible agencies and counselors.

Drivers Suffer From 'Velocitation'

Columbus, Ohio (UPI)—The new cars built more and more for safety, are becoming more and more dangerous for the driver who doesn't know what "velocitation" means.

The new term stands for the gradual loss of ability to tell how fast you're going. The bigger and heavier the car, and the straighter the road, the more likely this phenomenon will make you another traffic statistic.

Myron Willis on, Ohio Trucking association safety expert, warns that a driver suffering from "velocitation" may be clipping along as much as 20 miles an hour faster than he thinks he is.

The way to avoid it, says Willis, is by glancing frequently at the speedometer.

"Many motorists on trips gradually increase their speed as the day wears on without being aware of it," he says.
