

State Club Gets Work On Defense

Portland—(UP)—Metro squad coach Tom DeSylvia counted another injured player Tuesday as workouts continued for the 12th annual Shrine All-Star football game with the States here Saturday.

Latest casualty was Jiggs Burnett, Beaverton halfback, who turned a knee. DeSylvia said he was not sure if Burnett would be ready for the game in Multnomah stadium.

Other Metro players injured during practice include guard Chuck Starr of West Linn, and two David Douglas gridders, tackle Gary Austin and guard Karl Barrett. Starr got conked on the head hard during Tuesday's scrimmage. Austin hurt a knee and Barrett had a shoulder injury.

DeSylvia ruled no more scrimmages for his team.

State team coach Fred Spiegelberg Tuesday bore down on pass defense. He said the workout was not too impressive. Best part of the drilling Tuesday, Spiegelberg said, was the execution of plays in a long dummy scrimmage. He said there would be no more all-out body contact for the team until the game.

City Golf Tournament At Ashland

Ashland—Dr. Robert Buck, Medford, will defend his Ashland city golf championship on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 15 and 16, at Oak Knoll Golf club.

Several of his fellow Rogue Valley Country club golfers will be in the competition for the 1959 crown.

Buck posted a 75 and then a record 66 for a 137 in taking the 1958 diadem. Oak Knoll pro Charles Sullivan said it is felt it will take about the same score to win this time. He said the links is in fine shape.

Linksmen wishing to participate in the city meet are asked to send or telephone in their entries to Sullivan.

High Jump Star Starts Training

Boston—(UP)—John Thomas, an 18-year-old college freshman who has jumped higher than any other man, today began the rigid training which could bring him a chance to show his skill before the eyes of the world in 1960.

The lanky Boston university trackster has set his sights on the 1960 Olympics, a possibility that seemed like a dream at March 24 when he was writhing in pain on the floor of an elevator in a university dormitory.

His left foot, the one that springs his spectacular leaps and helped push him off for the 7-foot 1½-inch jump that smashed the world's record last Feb. 21, was mangled after being jammed between a steel door jamb and the floor of an elevator he was working.

But, Tuesday, Thomas and his physician, Dr. Chester W. Howe, said his foot was completely healed. The plastic surgery which bound together the ugly scrape wound on the top of the foot had "taken" well, the doctor said.

Eddie Machen Beats Sawyer

Fresno, Calif.—(UP)—Fourth ranked heavyweight Eddie Machen decked Garvin Sawyer four times Tuesday night while scoring a lopsided 10-round decision at Memorial Auditorium here.

Machen, 194½, San Francisco, put Sawyer down twice in the ninth round after sending him to the canvas in the third and eighth rounds. Sawyer, 195, Cincinnati, "as both-ered" by a cut over the left eye from the fourth round on.

The victory was Machen's fifth after being knocked out by heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson last year. Referee Frank Manfredo scored it 100-89. He gave Machen every round but the second and seventh, which were scored even.

WOMEN'S AM BILLED

Seattle, Wash.—(UP)—The nation's top feminine divot diggers will come out slugging Thursday when the 30th annual women's Western Open golf tourney gets underway over the toughened-up 6,238 yard Rainier Golf and Country club. The 171 pros and amateurs on hand will find it difficult to miss fairways and still hope to score well, for greenskeeper Glenn Proctor and his staff have cultivated a five-inch rough designed to severely punish the slicers and hookers.

Women's Softball State Tournament Opens on Thursday

Women's softball reaches the high point of the season in southern Oregon this week with the state association tournament at Memorial stadium, Camp White.

The tourney opens on Thursday with two evening games and continues through Sunday night.

Two former championship clubs, Klamath Falls Basinettes and Forest Grove Meadowlarks, vie at 7:15 p.m. in Thursday's first encounter. Klamath was titlist in 1954 and Forest Grove in 1957. The home team entry, the defending champion Rogue Valley Dairy Maids go against Hillsboro around 8:45 p.m.

Play is double elimination with three games to follow on Friday and Saturday and two or three on Sunday. Victor in the tournament will enter the regional play-off next week in Portland.

Six Teams

Two other clubs, Eugene McCulloch Chain Saw and Salem Capital City Shamrocks, complete the six team tourney field. They meet in the 7:15 p.m. game on Friday.

The Dairy Maids drilled last night and will be battling practice this evening in their final tune-up for the tourney.

Ellen Callaghan likely will be the opening night pitcher for the Maids and she may be opposed by either, Virginia Hanner or Marge Fishback.

Others in the Rogue Valley line-up will be Jean Main, catcher; Jan Bateman or Doris Hickson, first base; Janet Pfaff, second base; Bernice Bigham, shortstop; Diane Wall, and Shirley Hanson, Nadine Brood and among Irma Penwell, Phyllis Perry, Tony Owens and Jean Bitterling in the outfield.

Whether Miss Hickson will be available for the tournament was still uncertain. She has been in Hawaii on business for F. W. Woolworth company. If she's on hand, Miss Bateman may be assigned to the third outfield spot.

Pat Barron may get pitcher call for the Maids' Friday game.

For Hillsboro, Nancy Verboort may be catcher with Betty Adams or Fern Wilgus, first base; Sandi Jansen, second; Bev Chamberlain, third, and Bev Fern, shortstop. Outfielders may be named from among Joyce Baiers, Phil Birchard, Virginia McMillan, Jeanne Delplanche, Adams and Wilgus.

Joy Adreon likely will be the tosser for Klamath Falls and Marian Kozak for Forest Grove.

Other Klamath players include Terry Wickline, Ruth Hagelstein, Sharon Wilson, Shirley Anderson, Susy McPherson, Karen Smith, Darlene Perry, Chris Shearer, Jody Sims and Eve Reynolds. Forest Grove has Benita Mooney, Nancy Webster, Donna Oleson, Jan Ruhlin, Gin Hess, Betty Williams, Janet Hoodenpyl, Tommy Thompson, Nancy Butler and Maddy Lindsay.

There is no advance ticket sale.

Representatives of the teams are slated to make television appearances on Thursday.

Roseburg Clips Beaverton 17-4

Roseburg—(UP)—Roseburg opened its playoff series with Beaverton for the state American Legion junior baseball title Tuesday night, winning 17-4 before 2,018 fans.

Roseburg blasted out 18 hits off three Beaverton pitchers and broke the game wide open in the sixth inning with six runs.

The two teams are playing a best three-of-five series and meet again tonight.

Butler Second Day Leader in Western

Portland—(UP)—Dr. Arthur Butler, chemist from Pasadena, Calif., was the second day leader of the 57th annual Western Amateur Golf championships at Waverly Country club here as he came in Tuesday with 69-71-140, four under par.

Bob Atkinson Jr., Portland, was number two with 72-70-142.

A three-way tie for third, all with 143, was between Charles Lieder of San Mateo, Calif.; Pete Dye of Indianapolis and Portland's Bruce Cudd.

Best Single Round

Defending champion Billy Key of Columbus, Ga., had a 67 Tuesday, best single round so far in the tourney. He had a 77 Monday and his 144 put him in a tie for fourth with Bob Donnelly, Portland and San Francisco's Ron Luceti.

At 145 were 1953 champion Dale Morey of Indianapolis; Don Krieger, Portland, and Chuck Hunter, Tacoma, Wash.

Three golfers knotted at 146. They were Dick Yost of Portland; Erv Parent, Seattle, and Bob Snelling, Richmond, Calif.

Arch Will Defend Ring Toga Tonight

Montreal—(UP)—Archie Moore, the ring's all-time "knockout king" and probably all-time oldest champion, defends his light heavyweight crown tonight in a return fight with Canadian Yvon Durelle, whose wild, booming hooks nearly lifted the golden lid in December.

Despite his electrifying December escape, Archie is favored at 3-1 to beat the brawny, dark-haired fisherman in his eighth defense of the 175-pound title. It's also a 3-1 bet that the bout at the Montreal Forum does not last its scheduled 15 rounds—regardless of who wins.

Each was on the floor four times in that Dec. 10 donnybrook before Moore finally knocked out the challenger from Baie Ste. Anne, N. B., in the 11th round.

Fight of Year

That was the "fight of the year," last year and 12,000 are expected to pay about $175,000 tonight to see the 1959 version.

Moore, ranging in age—estimate from 42 to 45, says he'll "play it cagey" in the early rounds of their twice-postponed match tonight and try to weaken Yvon with body blows before ridding the Frenchman's dynamite again in exchanges while the challenger is fresh.

But Durelle, 29, says: "I'll shoot the works in the early rounds—with two good hands this time. And when I hurt him tonight, I'll finish him in a hurry."
