Magel-Lambert Rites Held In Medford Friends Church

Miss Charlotte Ann Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan W. Lampert, 2933 Merriman road, became the bride of Jack James Magel, Portland, in a ceremony at Friends church Saturday, August 8.

The date was the wedding anniversary of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Magel, Gervais.

Clyton G. Crisman, pastor, performed the service before 100 guests at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. Dan Magel, Portland, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and Miss Deana Brown was bridesmaid.

The bride's white gown was styled with lace bodice and sleeves and a skirt of crystallette over taffeta with lace and net ruffles forming a back panel and train. Her flowers were yellow spider chrysanthemums. Her father gave her in marriage.

Her attendants wore yellow gowns with lace bodices and pleated silk skirts. They carried white spider chrysanthemums.

Little Jackie Barnes was flower girl.

Dan Magel was best man for his brother, Byron W. Lambert, Willow Creek, Calif., the bride's brother, and Earl Phillips, Portland, were ushers. Don Hess, Portland, was groomsmen.

Organist was Mrs. Crisman and Duane Jones sang.

Eighty guests attended the reception which followed the wedding. Mrs. Robert Myers was in charge. Serving the cake were Mrs. Frank Trizil and Mrs. John Sikorski, Portland. Mrs. Earl Phillips, Portland, and Mrs. Warren Hanlin were at the gift table.

Pouring were Mrs. Byron Lambert, Willow Creek, and Mrs. Floyd Magel.

For traveling following the wedding the bride wore a pink sheath frock and white coat.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school

Witnessing is Program Topic

Mrs. Gerald Johnson led Peterson circle in presenting the program for the Christian Women's Fellowship, First Christian church.

It was presented in the form of a television interview of four costumed foreign women who were visiting in American homes. They were talking with their hostesses about the American way of life, and clearly pointed out we are witnessing either for or against Christ in all of our daily activities.

"What kind of Christian witness, do we make to others?" was the main theme of the program. Mrs. W. I. House led the devotional part of the meeting.

Luncheon was served by the Shoemaker circle with Mrs. R. E. Randies and Mrs. William Roberts as co-chairmen.

The CWF executive meeting will be August 18 at 1 p.m.

Ireland circle will meet August 20, 8 p.m. with Mrs. William Preston, 1417 South Ivy street. Any member of the church is invited to attend this meeting.
