Budd-Stafford Rites Held

Miss Shirley Ellen Stafford, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Charles E. Stafford, 1914 Westerlund drive, became the bride of Allan Leigh Budd, Claremont, Calif., in a ceremony August 8 at St. Mark's Episcopal church. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Budd, San Marino, Calif., are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster officiated at the five o'clock afternoon double ring rites attended by 100 relatives and friends.

White gladiolus and candelabra were at the altar and floor baskets of the flowers were placed near the chancel. White satin bows marked the pew ends. Mrs. Ernest Conrad played the organ music and John Drysdale was soloist.

The bride wore a white silk organza gown fashioned with Alencon lace bodice with long sleeves. The gown, styled on princess lines, had a chapel train. A lace trimmed half hat of silk organza held her waist length veil and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis. Colonel Stafford gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. William J. Crocker, Portland, was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Layfield and Miss Carolyn Budd, sister of the bridegroom, both San Marino. They wore sapphire blue silk organza frocks styled on princess lines with draped back panels and matching bandeaux with short veils. Their bouquets were white carnations encircling deep blue chrysanthemums.

James Budd, San Marino, served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Gregory Milnes and Robert Butler.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stafford wore a silk print frock in shades of blue and raspberry with matching hat and gardenia corsage. Mrs. Budd chose a twilight beige silk sheath dress with white accessories and green cymbidium orchid corsage. Mrs. Leigh B. Pearce, San Marino, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a rose lace sheath dress with matching accessories and ivory cymbidium orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Miss Ann Bergstrom, Chico, Calif., and Mrs. M. G. Holst cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Mira Frohnmayer and Miss Gail Bender presided at the punch bowls and Miss Janet Jamison passed the bridegroom's cake. Miss Ann Garner was in charge of the guest book. White and blue flowers decorated the room for the event. Mrs. Ward Hammond, who decorated both the church and reception room, also assisted with the reception.

The newlyweds are spending their honeymoon in Sunset Beach, Calif., and will make their home after August 22 at 425 Harvard avenue, Claremont. For traveling the bride wore a brown and white checked suit with brown accessories and white flower corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and will be a senior at Pomona college this fall where she is majoring in economics. Mr. Budd is also a senior at the college majoring in chemistry.

Following the reception here the Staffords were hosts for a dinner at the Rogue Valley Country club attended by the newlyweds, members of the bridal party and out of town guests. White carnations, baby's breath and blue bachelor buttons decorated the tables for the event.

August 22 the couple will be honored at a garden reception at the Budd residence in San Marino given by the parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Pearce, his grandparents, who were in Medford for the wedding.

Picnic Planned For College Group

An informal gathering and picnic has been planned for 5:30 p.m. Saturday, August 22, at the George Flanagan home on North Pacific highway, for Lewis and Clark college students, prospective students, parents and guests.

Swimming and dancing are planned and a committee will be present to answer questions concerning the college.

Those planning to attend who wish more information may call Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Voight or Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Arnold, acting chairmen.

Each person is to take his own table service.

Miss Suzanne Reichstein Bride of Alan Louis Keaton

An event of August 9 was the wedding of Miss Suzanne Reichstein and Alan Louis Keaton at St. Mark's Episcopal church at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster officiated at the double ring rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Reichstein, 7 Glen Oak court. Mr. Keaton's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Keaton, Junction City, Ore. More than 300 relatives and friends attended the ceremony.

The couple were married in the church where the bride's parents were married and where the bride was confirmed.

Baskets of pink roses and pale pink, white and purple stock with masses of ivy decorated the church. White satin bows and similar flowers marked the pew ends.

The bride wore a floor length white gossamer silk organza gown with Chantilly lace applique yoke and cap sleeves. The lace also outlined a front flounce on the bouffant skirt. Her imported fingertip length illusion veil was held by a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy. Mr. Reichstein gave his daughter in marriage.

Sorority Sisters
Miss Dorothy Rhymes, Alpha Phi sorority sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sue Taylor, Eugene; Miss Diane Phillips, Portland, another sorority sister of the bride, and Miss Judy Finegan.

They wore frocks of white organza over pale pink chromespun fashioned with scooped necklines outlined with embroidered flowers and wide sashes of pink chrome-spun. Their headresses were pale pink velvet circlets which held pink tulle veils. Miss Rhymes carried pink and white roses with ivy and the bridesmaids had bouquets of pink roses and ivy.

Bruce Johnstone, Portland, served as best man. Seating the guests were Gordon Summers, Portland; Marion Gribkov, Junction City, and Curtis Holzgang, Portland, formerly of Medford.

Acolytes were Robert Walker and John Yoakley.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad played the organ wedding music and John Drysdale was soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Rogue Valley Country club. The tables were decorated with grape leaves, large clusters of purple grapes and pink, white and purple stock. The newlyweds cut the wedding cake with an heirloom wedding knife loaned by W. J. Warner.

Serving Cake and Coffee
Serving cake and coffee were Mrs. Russell Patterson, San Francisco; Mrs. Spencer Alexander, Springfield, and Mrs. D. B. Newman, Grants Pass, all aunts of the bride; Mrs. Fred Carr, Mrs. Frank Perl, Mrs. Homer Marx, Mrs. Scott Davis, Mrs. Glen Taylor, Mrs. Harry Poston, Mrs. O. A. Eden, Mrs. Raymond Reter; Mrs. B. C. Taylor, Eugene, and Mrs. D. P. Hemingway, Portland.

Serving punch were Mrs. Jack Moad, Miss Alexa Hib-bar, Mrs. Ed Setzler; Miss Marilyn Moen, Gresham; Miss Joan Service, Vancouver, Wash.; and Miss Jane Garrett, Eugene. At the gift table was Mrs. Justin Smith Jr. and in charge of the guest book was Miss Nancy Hamilton. Miss Janet Newman, Grants Pass, cousin of the bride, served the bridegroom's cake baked by Mrs. Hemingway. The wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Ronald Rice.

The Misses Terri and Lynn Hemingway, Portland, passed baskets of rice.

Mrs. Guy Phetteplace was in charge of the decorations at both the church and country club.

The newlywed couple traveled to Carmel and San Francisco for their wedding trip. For her traveling attire the bride chose a sandbogie silk shantung sheath dress with matching jacket and beige and green accessories. Her corsage was a green cymbidium orchid.

Home in Portland
The couple are making their home in Portland at 3507 SW Eleventh st.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school, the University of Oregon, where she was affiliated with Alpha Phi social sorority, and the University of Oregon School of Nursing, Portland. Mr. Keaton attended the University of Oregon where he was affiliated with Theta Chi social fraternity, and is a student at the University of Oregon Medical school, Portland, where he is a member of Phi Beta Pi, medical fraternity.

A rehearsal party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reter with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Phetteplace as co-hosts the evening prior to the wedding. The buffet supper was attended by members of the wedding party and relatives of the bride and bridegroom.

In the evening following the wedding the Reichsteins were hosts for a buffet supper at their home for members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

Out-of-Town Guests
Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Keaton, Junction City, parents of the bridegroom; S. W. Alexander, uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Alexander, all Springfield, cousins of the bride; Mr. Newman, uncle of the bride, David Newman, cousin of the bride, both Grants Pass; Mr. Taylor, Eugene; George Halleck, Sisters; Tom Johnson, Mrs. Donald Berry, Captain Hemingway and Roger Hemingway, Mr. and Mrs. L.
