Banks, Wall Roundtrippers Help Chicago Stall Giants

By NORMAN MILLER

The Chicago Cubs are banking on Ernie Banks to achieve one of the most unique three-ply feats in National league history.

At the rate that he's been pounding the ball, Ernie could wind up the NL's biggest RBI producer in 22 years, break his own homer record for shortstops, and become the first man ever to win the league's most valuable player award two straight seasons.

All this and help the Cubs finish in the first division for the first time since 1946.

Ignoring a bruised back, Banks hit a two-run first-inning homer and Lee Walls followed with a three-run fourth-inning blast that gave the Cubs a 5-4 victory over the league-leading San Francisco Giants Sunday.

The triumph prevented the Giants from widening their 2½-game lead over the Los Angeles Dodgers and gave the Cubs a 25-23 record against the league's three leading pennant contenders.

Banks swals 36th

Banks' blow, off lefty Johnny Antonelli, was his 36th of the year and raised his runs-batted-in production to 112. Project that over a 154-game schedule and the totals are 47 homers and 150 RBIs.

Willow Ernie set the major league homer-hitting record for shortstops last season with 47.

While the Cubs were making the most of Banks' hitting to move into a tie for fourth place with the Pittsburgh Pirates, the three top contenders in the NL all missed an opportunity to gain ground.

The St. Louis Cardinals stymied the Dodgers' attempt to close in on the Giants by beating Los Angeles, 5-3; and the Milwaukee Braves could gain only a split of a doubleheader with the Pirates, winning the nightcap, 5-2, behind Warren Spahn after dropping the opener, 2-1. The Philadelphia Phils swept a twin bill from the Cincinnati Reds, 8-5 and 6-0.

In the American league, the Chicago White Sox also lost a half game of their lead by succumbing to the Kansas City Athletics, 7-2. The runner-up Cleveland Indians were rained out after taking a 5-0 first-inning lead over the Detroit Tigers. The New York Yankees divided a double-header with the Boston Red Sox, losing the opener, 6-5, and then winning the second game, 4-2. The Washington Senators defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 6-1.

Spahn Wins 16th

Spahn, bidding for his 10th 20-victory season, ran his record to 16-11 with an eighth nightcap victory over Pittsburgh. Dick Stuart's 400-foot-plus homer drove in the two runs for Pittsburgh's opening game triumph against Juan Pizarro.

Rookie Gene Oliver drove in three St. Louis runs and Bill White hit a homer to sink Roger Craig and the Dodgers. Gus Bell hit two first-game homers for Cincinnati, but the Phils exploded for a six-run sixth-inning rally to win the opening game for Robin Roberts. Don Cardwell's sixth shutout pitching in the nightcap completed the Phils' sweep.

In the A's victory over the White Sox, Preston Ward, Bob Cerv and Russ Snyder hit home runs to make Ned Garver an easy nine-hit winner.

Mickey Mantle's 24th homer sent the Yankees off to a second-game victory that snapped a five-game losing streak. Mantle also hit a first-game homer, but a six-run second-inning outburst clinched the Boston victory.

Three Baltimore errors gave the Senators five unearned runs that sent young Jerry Walker down to defeat.

Portlanders Split With Salt Lakers

By DON BECKER

Unless there is a swift change of form, the winner of this year's Pacific Coast league race will finish with the lowest winning percentage in the loop's 56-year history.

Seattle grabbed the flag back in 1924 with a .545 mark, the lowest to date. This season, Portland heads the league with a .528 average with Vancouver and Salt Lake hot on the Beavers' trail with respective marks of .524 and .520.

In addition, this season's chase in which just about every team has had a shot at the challenger's role, may be the closest top to bottom finish in league annals. Only eight games separate the Beavers from the last place Phoenix Giants.

Sunday's action well-reflects the race's tightness. Portland and Salt Lake split a pair of crucials. The Beavers nipped the Bees in the opener, 6-5, and the Bees won the afterpiece, 4-3.

Seattle had its 11 game winning streak halted by San Diego, 2-0, in the first game of a twin bill but the Rainiers grabbed the nightcap by an identical, 2-0 score. Vancouver nipped Phoenix, 2-0, and Spokane beat Sacramento, 11-10, with a barrage of homers.

Portland won the first game when Salt Lake reliever Jim Umbrecht wild pitched Milt Graff home in the bottom of the ninth. The Bees had bombed starter Marty Kutyna for five runs in the second inning but the Beavers tied it in the seventh.

Jim Baum r tripled home the winning run in the top of the seventh inning to give the Bees the nightcap.

Central Oregon Stars Triumph

Bend (UPI) — The Central Oregon All-Stars led by quarterback Don McCrea of Redmond gained a 20-7 victory over the Snake River Valley all-stars in the seventh renewal of the Elks Benefit Football game here Saturday night.

McCrea led two touchdowns to tie the way for the winners. The winners grabbed a 13-0 lead early in the second quarter and held a 13-7 margin at halftime. McCrea scored his touchdowns on a one-yard plunge and a 27-yard run.

Jim Sheldon Club Titlist Of Rogue Valley Links

Jim Sheldon, driving well off the tee and putting well, won the men's match play golf championship of Rogue Valley Country club yesterday by trimming Phil Mongrain 3 and 2 in tournament finals.

The match went 34 of 36-hole schedule finals. Sheldon fought up from a three-hole deficit at the 14 hole of the tangle. He was five over par for the engagement while Mongrain, who played a good iron game but had trouble with his putting, was eight over standard.

Mongrain fired two above par 74 on the first 18 holes and led Sheldon, who had a 76, 2 up at the lunchtime break.

Sheldon won No. 19 but Mongrain took the next. Then Sheldon nabbed 21 and 22 to even the match. He went 1 up when Mongrain double bogied No. 24 and took 27 with a bird to two up. Sheldon lost 28 to Mongrain's par but claimed 29 and 30 with pars of his own for 3 up. The two halved the next four holes to end the fracas.

The adversaries had a see saw scrap over the first nine holes. Mongrain took No. 9 with a par for 1 up and had a 38 card to Sheldon's 39 at that turn. In No. 10 Mongrain

Ralph Odell Lithia City Golf Victor

Ashland-Dr. Ralph Odell, Medford won the Ashland city golf championship.

He fired a fine 69 yesterday, adding that score to 73 on Saturday for a 142 in the play at Oak Knoll club.

Ed Godden was second with 72-72-144. He shot the best round of the tournament with a 32.

Third in the meet was Dr. Robert Buck, Medford, the 1958 titlist. His score was 146.

Don West was low net with 137. Bill Seymour followed with 139 and Clayton Lewis had 140.

Odell took the sweep with 69. Seymour was low net in this portion of the tourney with a 68. Jack Zittercob clubbed 69 and Lewis 70 net.

Bowling Lanes Crumples Butte Falls in RV Loop

Medford Bowling Lanes turned on the power to push Butte Falls deeper into the cellar of the Rogue Valley Baseball league at Cheney field here yesterday.

Final score was 22 to 5, four runs short of the league record of 28 runs in a single game, set in 1957 by Medford Cheney Studs against the same Butte Falls team over nine innings. Yesterday's game was called at the end of seven innings by mutual agreement.

Riddle beat Camp White 11 to 4 and Grants Pass tripped Glendale 10 to 7 in other encounters.

Butte Falls started the scoring in the first inning when they chalked up two runs on walks and passed balls but Medford pushed over five runs in his half of the first and was never in danger after that.

John Hanson, Bowling Lanes first baseman, swatted one over the right field wall to go with two singles and three runs batted in. Kay Vaughn also had a home run over the right barrier and two singles for four RBIs. Chuck Rettman had five runs batted in on a double and two singles.

Jim Ferguson and Bill Irwin led Butte Falls at the plate, each getting a single and double.

Bob Serak, starting pitcher for the Bowlers, struck out three, walked four and gave up four hits. Vaughn, who relied him in the sixth, whiffed three, walked four and allowed two hits.

Edwin Ellis, who started for Butte Falls, struck out two, walked one and gave up 12 hits. Irwin, who took over in the fifth, pushed the third strike past three, issued two free passes and gave up six safeties.

Indianan Wins Soap Box Race

Akron, Ohio (UPI) — Barney Townsend, 13, Anderson, Ind., the nation's champion soap box racer today, almost didn't make it here for the race because of a broken collarbone.

The slim youngster won a $5,000 college scholarship, a sight-seeing trip to New York and a trip to the Rose Bowl football game at Pasadena, Calif., in 1960, for coming in first at the All-American Soap Box Derby Sunday.

But that victory would not have been possible if the family doctor had not given Barney permission to remove a brace for a broken collarbone and let him make the trip here.

NEW WESTMINSTER WINS
Victoria, B.C. (UPI) — New Westminster blanked Victoria 1-0 Sunday to move into the Babe Ruth League World Series at Stockton, Calif.

Central Point Men Remain in Hospital

Two Central Point men remained in Sacred Heart hospital this morning following a one-car accident on Table Rock rd. Saturday night.

Injured in the accident were R. M. Boyd, 43, of 111 Vilas rd., believed to be the driver, and Dean Albert Thompson, 36, of Table Rock rd., believed to be a passenger.

Hospital officials said today that Boyd's condition was "fairly good" and that Thompson was in "fair" condition. Exact information about their injuries was not available.

State police, describing the accident, said the car was northbound on Table Rock rd. when it apparently went onto a shoulder on the east side, came sharply onto the road, began whipping back and forth and finally slid over the east shoulder into a fence and hit a tree at 6006 Table Rock rd.

Tight Tilts Played by Grid Pros

By EARL WRIGHT

That "sudden death" classic The Baltimore Colts and New York Giants played last December apparently was just a hint of thrills to come in the National Football league.

NFL teams played four exhibitions during the week end. Each was won by four points or less and each was decided in the final minutes.

Even in steaming August weather, these tight warmups reminded pro football addicts of last Dec. 28. That was the day Baltimore tied New York with seven seconds to go at Yankee Stadium and won the league title in overtime, 23-17, in what some observers called the best football game ever played.

In Saturday night's section, Walt Kowalczyk's 43-yard scoring dash in the final minutes gave the Philadelphia Eagles a 21-17 victory over New York; Zeke Bratkowski's 37-yard pass to Rick Casares with 41 seconds to go enabled the Chicago Bears to edge the Green Bay Packers, 19-16, and John Crow's 71-yard run in the last four minutes gave the Chicago Cardinals at 21-19 triumph over the Detroit Lions.

Just 10 seconds remained when Sunday's only game was decided. Eddie LeBaron, the league's smallest quarterback at 165 pounds, directed a drive that gave the Washington Redskins a 24-20 lead with less than a minute to go.

Y. A. Tittle, the bald-headed 32-year-old who runs the San Francisco Forty-Niners offense, then fired a 10-yarder to Clyde Conner with 10 seconds remaining for a 27-24 triumph.

Baker, Pauly Spur Metro Footballers

Portland (UPI) — Members of the State All-Star team today were wondering just what hit them Saturday night in Portland's Multnomah stadium.

That question can be answered in just five words: Terry Baker and Steve Pauly. They paced Metro's 19-13 victory before 14,674 fans.

Baker of Portland's Jefferson high school was named the outstanding player of the 12th annual Shrine All-Star game here. And with good reason.

He figured in every point of the Metro squad scored. He ran for one touchdown, threw two scoring passes and kicked Metro's only conversion. Paul caught both of Baker's payoff pitches.

But a speedy lad from the State squad drew some notice, too.
