

Hall Wins 15th Game To Beat Portland, 3-1

By DON BECKER
United Press International
 Dick Hall is just another bum-armed pitcher as far as the Pittsburgh Pirates brass is concerned, but don't try to peddle that yarn around the Pacific Coast league.

Despite the fact the Pirates are badly in need of pitching help, they've passed over Hall, who leads the PCL in every major pitching department except strikeouts.

Hall won his 15th game of the season Monday night as he tossed a six hitter while hurling Salt Lake to a 3-1 victory over league-leading Portland.

Bees Half Game Out
 The loss dropped the Beavers into a tie for first with Vancouver and moved the Bees to within a half-game of the top. Sacramento stopped Spokane, 5-1, in the only other scheduled contest.

When the Pirates were in San Francisco recently, Buc Manager Danny Murtaugh explained his club didn't plan to bring up Hall because he has chronic arm trouble and can't break a pane of glass with his fast ball.

Hall does have arm trouble. He can't take a regular turn. But when he does pitch, he's murder. He's 15-4 on the season and his 1.85 ERA is lowest in the league. He had walked only 25 batters in 167 innings going into last night's game. He's pitched six shutouts.

Tight Pitching Duel
 Hall hooked up with Ken Johnson of Portland in a tight mound duel that was decided in the top of the ninth when

Davis Leads PCL Batting
 San Francisco—Tom Davis of Spokane led Pacific Coast league batters today with a .338 average. His 171 hits topped the league.

Steve Bilko of Spokane led in home runs with 22 and runs-batted-in with 82.

Ken Johnson of Portland had a pitching record of 15 wins, including nine in a row and five losses today to top the hurlers.

Best earned-run record was that of Dick Hall, Salt Lake City, at 1.89. Hall also led in shutouts with six. Dick Stigman of San Diego was the strikeout leader with 151.

Phil Moyer, Don Fuller, Mix Tonight
 Portland—Phil Moyer of Portland and Don Fuller of West Jordan, Utah, collide here tonight in a 10-round middleweight match at the Auditorium.

Both boxers have the same age—20—and both boast sparkling records.

Fuller has lost two bouts in a total of 22 outings. He is the brother of former middleweight titleholder Gene Fuller.

Moyer has racked up a record of 16 wins, one defeat and a single draw. His brother Denny dropped a decision to world welterweight champion Don Jordan here in July.

A four-bout supporting card is planned.

BASILIO TRAINS FOR BOUT
 San Francisco—Carmen Basilio made his first training appearance Monday for his NBA middleweight title bout with Gene Fullmer on Aug. 28. The former welter and middleweight champion seemed in excellent condition as he went through an hour of bag punching, rope skipping and calisthenics.

Schoendienst Works Out With Braves

By FRED LINDECKE
 Milwaukee—(UPI)—Second baseman Red Schoendienst is back in a Milwaukee Braves uniform and taking batting practice with the club, but he admits he is aiming for the lineup "next spring" instead of this fall.

The redhead took his first workout with the club Monday night since he was sidelined with tuberculosis last fall.

Schoendienst said his doctor is opposed to his playing this year but has assured him he "can do everything" next spring that "I've ever done before."

"Yes, next year," the star second baseman said, although he admitted he didn't know if he might pop up in the lineup as the season closes out late in September.

Might Pinch Hit
 "Well, it could be," he said when asked if, say Sept. 27, closing day, he might pinch hit. Although this would require the Braves to take him off special disabled status, Schoendienst said he expected to tag along with the club the rest of the year, possibly leaving him able to step in before the season ends.

Manager Fred Haney said he has no idea when Schoendienst will return to the roster. "It's up to the doctor. When the doctor says he's ready, then he'll come back." Asked about the possibility of Schoendienst seeing pinch-hitting duty, Haney replied, "We'll wait until that comes up."

Schoendienst took a few swings and shagged some fly balls in his first workout in County stadium. Heavy running is still out. "My doctors don't want me to overtake myself," he explained. "Right now he (Dr. William A. Werner) has given me permission to do a little running. But I won't be in shape for any kind of play this season."

Lombardi also has plans to utilize Francis as an offensive halfback. Having enjoyed great success with the optional pass-run when he coached the Giant offense, Lombardi will install the same series for the Packers and use Francis in the role Frank Gifford had with the Giants.

Outstanding Feats
 Few will dispute that Francis was the greatest back ever produced at Oregon State college. Among his outstanding feats were the 208 yards he gained rushing and passing against Iowa in the Rose Bowl, 274 yards total offense against Stanford for a single game record, and 1082 yards total offense for a season record.

He was a unanimous All-Coast selection, an honorable mention All-American and an All-Catholic All-American. He also played in the East-West Shrine game.

Oregon Sports attractions, on the basis of mail orders received to date, is predicting one of its largest crowds in history.

The box office for the sale of tickets opened here at J. K. Gill's last week. Out-of-town fans may continue to order by mail or purchase tickets at agencies in most Oregon cities.

Shriners Work On Offense
 Pendleton—(UPI)—Coach Ron Anderson of the West class B Shrine team said today his squad would spend the rest of the week working on offense for its game here Saturday night with the East all-stars.

Anderson said an emphasis would be placed on passing.

The East team, which averages 177 pounds per man, outweighs the West stars.

Halas Will Start Bratkowski For Eagle-Bear Mix
 United Press International
 Zeke Bratkowski, expected to take a backseat to Ed Brown, will be a surprise starter at quarterback Saturday when the Chicago Bears take on the Philadelphia Eagles in an exhibition game.

Coach George Halas admitted he was forced to change his mind when Bratkowski, former University of Georgia star, completed 10 of 12 passes against the Green Bay Packers last Saturday.

The climax to Bratkowski's great exhibition was a 37-yard pass to Rick Casares with 41 seconds to go that gave the Bears a 19-16 victory.

To Alternate
 Halas will alternate Brown and Rudy Bukich in the second half of the Eagle tilt at Lynn, Mass., with Bukich likely to get a starting slot in the Aug. 29 contest with the Pittsburgh Steelers at Houston, Tex.

With all NFL teams seeing action this week end, the remainder of the schedule shapes up as follows:

Friday, Baltimore vs. New York at Dallas, Tex., and Washington vs. the Rams at Los Angeles.

Saturday, Cleveland vs. Detroit at Akron, Ohio, and the Chicago Cardinals vs. Pittsburgh at Austin, Tex.

Sunday will find the Forty-Niners meeting Green Bay at San Francisco.

Hines Captures Sport Car Cup
 Mike Hines in a TR-3 was overall cup winner Sunday in Siskiyou Sports car rivalry at Camp White.

Tom Boyd with a Fiat was first in the gymkhana and Gene Hoyd with an Austin Healy second. Hoyt's wife, Judy, with the same car, was first in women's class.

HINT SERIES RESUMPTION
 Morgantown, W. Va.—(UPI)—West Virginia University and Kentucky, who haven't competed against each other since a riot-marked game in 1947, are reported set for a renewal of football relations. Plans call for Kentucky to play at Morgantown in 1963 and the Mountaineers to travel to Lexington for the 1964 contest.

With all NFL teams seeing action this week end, the remainder of the schedule shapes up as follows:

Friday, Baltimore vs. New York at Dallas, Tex., and Washington vs. the Rams at Los Angeles.

Saturday, Cleveland vs. Detroit at Akron, Ohio, and the Chicago Cardinals vs. Pittsburgh at Austin, Tex.

Sunday will find the Forty-Niners meeting Green Bay at San Francisco.

SF Wins, Moves 3 Up As Dodgers Split

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press International
 Sad Sam Jones is piling up plenty of overtime work in the San Francisco Giants' bid for the National league pennant.

Manager Bill Rigney called on the toothpick-chewing right-hander again Monday night at Cincinnati and Sad Sam came through with two innings of hitless ball to preserve a 6-3 victory over the Reds.

It was Jones' third pitching appearance in San Francisco's last four games and enabled the Giants to open a three-game lead over the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers, who split a twilight-night doubleheader at Milwaukee.

Jones pitched seven innings at Chicago last Friday, took Saturday off and then relieved against the Cubs Sunday. He was back in the bullpen Monday night and got a hurry-up call from Rigney after the Giants broke a 3-3 tie with the Cubs in the top of the eighth.

Saves Miller's Win
 The rubber-arm veteran breezed through the last two innings to save Stu Miller's seventh victory of the season against six losses.

Pirates Take Over 4th
 The Pittsburgh Pirates took over sole possession of fourth place in the NL by edging the Chicago Cubs, 7-6, and the St. Louis Cardinals outlasted the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-4. The Detroit Tigers nipped the Cleveland Indians, 5-4, in the only scheduled American league game.

The Pirates spotted the Cubs an early 4-0 lead and then bounced back to win with a gift run in the seventh inning. Dick Groat scored the decisive marker when he walked and came all the way around as converted catcher Earl Averill Jr. fielded a bad-bounce single to left by Roberto Clemente and tossed wildly on the throw-in.

Stout relief pitching by Lindy McDaniel enabled the Cardinals to fight off the Phillies, who made it close with a four-run rally in the ninth inning.

Paul Foytack of the Tigers, knocked out of the box in Sunday's washed out game against Cleveland, came back to whip the Indians as he scattered eight hits and struck out seven.

Ingo Says 'All Offers Welcome'

Goteborg, Sweden—(UPI)—Ingemar Johansson believes the suspension of the promoter's license of Rosensohn Enterprises Inc. in New York frees him from his return bout contract with Floyd Patterson, so now "all new offers are welcome."

Johansson, who leaves today for Copenhagen for an exhibition, said, "I understand it will mean I am released from my contract and the return fight."

"But," he added, "that doesn't mean I don't want to give Floyd a new match. He would get a fair chance to regain the title, but first we have to wait until the negotiations are over."

The champion actually began training Monday but he believes it now is "impossible" to hold a return bout with Patterson on Sept. 22 as originally planned by Bill Rosensohn, former head of Rosensohn enterprises.

"All new offers are welcome," said Johansson, "and I've gotten several lately."

Bow Huntsmen Confer Honors

"Men of the Year" award of Oregon Bow Hunters was given to John Davis and Harold Franklin, Bend, Sunday following the organization's state broadhead competition at Mill Creek campground.

Hunting achievement trophy went to Carmen Sanders, Brookings for an elk slain during the 1958 season near Baker. It was reported to be the first elk killed by a woman with a bow and arrow.

Davis and Franklin were honored for directing the work in staging the National Archers tournament near Bend last month.

Softball Nines Start Play-Off

CHURCH LEAGUE SEASON STANDINGS

Team	W	L	Pct.
First Baptist	9	1	.900
Westminster Pres.	7	3	.700
First Nazarene	5	5	.500
First Methodist	3	7	.300
Phoenix	3	7	.300
Friends	1	9	.100

The four top teams this season in the Church Softball league begin play-offs this evening.

First Nazarene will oppose Westminster Presbyterian at 6:30 p.m. at Memorial stadium, Camp White. Second game will match First Baptist and First Methodist at 8 p.m.

Tonight's losers will play in an early game at Camp White on Friday and this evening's victors will follow in a tussle for the championship.

Commission Protests U. S. Agency Action

Olympia, Wash.—(UPI)—The State Game commission served notice Monday it would no longer cooperate with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in the enforcement of federal regulations on duck stamps.

The Commission, apparently angered by what commissioners called an "unjustifiable reduction" in the take of ducks, voted unanimously to end cooperation with the federal agency.

The commission set a 94-day waterfowl season beginning at noon Oct. 7 and ending Jan. 8. Shooting time was limited to a period from sunrise to sunset, and the bag to five ducks per day with a possession limit of 10.

Commission members said the new limits would reduce the take of ducks by "25 to 30 percent," and protested the federal action in setting them.

Warns That Rematch May Shift From NY

New York—(UPI)—Attorney Vincent J. Vellella warned today that the return Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson title fight must be shifted from New York to another state unless the suspension against Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., is lifted soon.

Vellella, Harlem politician and new president of Rosensohn Enterprises, announced, "I am requesting an immediate public hearing by the state athletic commission with a view to lifting the suspension of the promoter's license of the corporation."

Monday the commission suspended the Rosensohn Corp.'s promoter's license and suspended Bill Rosensohn's license as matchmaker. Rosensohn, former president, claimed in a recent magazine article he was forced to relinquish control of his outfit to save the June 26 Johansson-Patterson match.

In the article, Rosensohn charged he was forced to give up two-thirds of his stock by Vellella and Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager. Because of his statements in the article, Rosensohn and the corporation bearing his name were suspended pending further investigation. A commission spokesman said Rosensohn violated several commission rules in his promotion. The violations were not identified.

When the commission completes its investigation it will hold a hearing to determine whether the suspensions shall be lifted or whether the licenses shall be revoked permanently.

Vellella wants the hearing held "immediately."
