

Dave Moore Fights Kid Bassey Tonight

By JOE ST. AMANT
Los Angeles—(UPI)—Davey Moore, holder of the world featherweight boxing crown for only four months, gives Hogan (Kid) Bassey a chance to regain the title tonight in a scheduled 15-rounder at Olympic auditorium.

The 25-year-old titleholder, known as the Springfield rifle because of his hometown in Ohio and his sharp punching, stopped Bassey in 13 rounds here at the Olympic last March 18 to take the crown which the African had held since June of 1957. Bassey, pride of the British Empire's Nigeria, became champion when he beat Cherif Hamia of France in an elimination contest.

7,500 Predicted
Matchmaker George Parnas predicted a crowd of 7,500 at the Olympic with a gross gate of around $50,000. Tickets were sealed from $5 in the gallery to $25 at ringside.

Both tiny battlers were in line to pick up considerable loose change. Each will receive 30 per cent of the net gate and 30 per cent of the TV and radio money—$40,000.

Moore was rated an 8-5 favorite to hold on to his title with odds lengthening to 2-1 in some quarters.

On the record there was little to choose between the two—except that Moore appeared to have gained a lot of confidence by his win over the ex-champion and was reported in top physical shape.

Bout Won By Moyer

Portland—(UPI)—Phil Moyer of Portland, jabbed his way to an easy 10-round decision over Don Fullmer, West Jordan, Utah, Tuesday night in a fast-paced middleweight bout at the Auditorium.

Moyer, who weighed 156, built up an early lead and remained in command throughout. He scored well with left jabs to the head and right hooks to the head and body. Fullmer's nose bled from the fifth round on.

Fullmer, 157, the younger brother of former middleweight champion Gene Fullmer, almost went down from a right to the head in the final round. There were no knockdowns.

Judge Eddie Volk had Moyer in front 100-94, while Judge George Robinson had it 99-93 and Referee Dick Wagner scored it 98-95.

Moyer now has an 18-2-1 mark. The loss leaves Fullmer with a 20-3 record.

A meeting for parents of football players is planned for this evening at 8 p.m. at the high school auditorium.

OSC To Receive Weather Radar System

Corvallis—(UPI)—A portable weather radar system costing $280,000 to study storms approaching the Oregon coast will be installed at Oregon State college.

The radar system is capable of "seeing rain and snow" within 250 miles or more. The equipment, housed in two vans, is the latest model used for weather radar work by the Army and Air Force, it was announced.

New York—(UPI)—The beanball provoked when the Giants' Jack Sanford plunked the Cubs' Ernie Banks in the back has the baseball masterminds seeking a solution again today but there's only one real way to end beanings for all time.

That's to abolish baseball. Because as long as you have a jackrabbit ball which is manufactured to ride prodigious distances, the pitcher of necessity must "loosen up" the hitter who is taking a toehold in the batter's box. No pitcher intends to cripple a rival, or put his career in jeopardy, but the "brush back" pitch is about the only counter weapon the pitcher has left.

There is, of course, a fine line of demarcation between the "bean ball" and the "brush back." It is only as wide as the pitcher's control and with the winning run in scoring position both become more narrow.

Banks charged that Sanford's control is too good to make such a mistake. Sanford, of course, denied the allegation. On the weight of very flimsy evidence you have to settle for Sanford's denial.

Banks is not noted as a mind reader. Neither are the umpires who, being in just as good a position as Banks, if there was any hint of intentional mayhem would have been called upon to eject Sanford post haste.

In the first place, wildness cannot be legislated out of the game. If such was the case, the first pitcher who gave up a walk would be sent to the minor leagues.

Pitchers, when they resort to the "brush back" pitch—and most of them do from time to time—are not attempting to hit the batter. They are trying to shake him up and throw a scare into him to keep him from standing rooted in perfect confidence.

Timing facilities at the eighth Olympic Winter Games at Squaw Valley, Calif., Feb. 18-28, 1960, are being contributed by the Longines-Wittnauer company. These facilities are based on electronic standards of the highest precision and are valued at $200,000.

Dempsey Accepts Boxing Advisory Post; May Fly To Confer With Ingemar

By JACK CUDDY
New York—(UPI)—Jack Dempsey may fly to Sweden Friday to clarify the Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson return-fight muddle.

Dempsey, brand new promotional director of the hoped-for Sept. 22 bout, said today, "I'll be ready to go Friday to Sweden—or anywhere else—if Ingemar wants and sit down and straighten things out."

When the 64-year-old "Manassa Mauler" flies to Europe, he will be accompanied by Vincent J. Velilla and Irving B. Kahn, president and board chairman, respectively, of the reorganized Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc.

Big-fisted Jack, former heavy-weight champion, was named promotional director and advisor of the Rosensohn organization Tuesday at a press conference in Dempsey's Broadway restaurant.

"I took this job without a salary, but on a $500-a-week expense account," millionaire Jack explained, "in order to help the fight—and boxing in general. The sport needs this match. It's too good to be kicked around any longer. It should draw a million-dollar gate, wherever held."

Some reporters were very surprised that Dempsey should ally himself with Rosensohn Enterprises because of the outfit's unsavory publicity since the June 26 fight in which Johansson of Sweden took the crown from Patterson on a third-round knockout.

Right now Rosensohn Enterprises is the hub of three official investigations, and a major target of magazine articles by Johansson and promoter Bill Rosensohn, who

Forest Service Lists Transfer

Ranger Robert H. Torheim will transfer to a staff position on the Rogue River National Forest early in September, Forest Supervisors Lloyd Gillmor and Carroll Brown of the Olympic and Rogue River National Forests, respectively, have announced.

In his promotion to the new position, Torheim will be in charge of fire control, range and wildlife activities on the Rogue River National Forest with headquarters at Medford. He has occupied his present position as district ranger of the Quinalt district on the Olympic National Forest since December, 1956.

Torheim started his forest service career in the CCC program on the Snoqualmie National Forest in 1940. He graduated from University of Washington college of forestry in 1948. Since that time he occupied positions as forest guard and timber scaler at Skykomish, Wash., timber management assistant at North Bend, Wash., and district ranger on the Naches district, Snoqualmie National Forest 1953 to 1956.

formed the corporation. Dempsey explained, "Naturally I was a bit hesitant about joining the outfit when I was asked to help. But I had my attorneys—one of the best firms in New York—examine the situation thoroughly, and they recommended the reorganized setup as completely sound—financially and legally."

Friends say that Jack's real reason for jumping into the mess is his long-time crusade against monopoly in boxing and his desire to see champions fighting for independent promoters.
