Batista Arrives In Portugal for Home-in-Exile

Lisbon, Portugal –(UPI)– Former Cuban Dictator Fulgencio Batista arrived here today by chartered plane from the Dominican Republic for a new home-in-exile. He was promptly whisked away by police.

He left Ciudad Trujillo Wednesday night and his plane landed here after a transatlantic flight that put an additional 3,000 miles between him and Cuban Premier Fidel Castro, who overthrew his regime last Jan. 1.

Crowd Kept Away

No one was allowed within hailing distance of Batista's plane when it landed at the far end of the airport. Newsmen, photographers and television men were held off by police.

Batista was escorted into a waiting limousine which moved off at once with four other cars in procession. He was believed headed for the New Hotel Ritz.

Before he left Ciudad Trujillo, informed sources said Batista planned to go on to the Madeira Islands, where he will live as a political exile with the permission of the Portuguese government.

Batista took off in a chartered plane with 16 other Cubans, including two women.

They all fled to the Dominican Republic from Havana Jan. 1, one step ahead of the victorious revolutionary forces which engulfed Cuba under Castro.

Family in Florida

Batista's wife and six children were reported still at their home in Daytona Beach, Fla. It was not known whether they would follow him to Portugal.

No reason was given for the sudden departure and it was kept secret until after the plane was off the ground.

Batista had been trying to get into the United States and there had been various reports that he would take up residence in Europe.

Kiwanians Donate To Roseburg Fund

Medford Kiwanis club will donate $500 toward Roseburg disaster relief.

The sum was voted by directors of the service club yesterday following the Kiwanis luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club. It will go to Roseburg Kiwanis club for use in connection with that community's recovery from the Aug. 7 explosion which damaged a large area of the business district.

Devendra Raj Upadhayaya, director of Radio Nepal, spoke briefly at the Kiwanis luncheon. He pointed out that Nepalese believe the warm feeling of friendliness he has found among the American people.

Upadhayaya has been visiting radio station KMED and television station KBES and generally getting acquainted with the people here.

Committee heads for the Kiwanis Centennial County fair reported at the meeting and fair work assignments were announced.

Medford Kiwanians put on the entertainment for the fun breakfast on Monday at the Kiwanis Pacific Northwest district convention at Eugene. Members put on a skit and presented the Medford musical group the "Charmaines." Members of the group are Sue Baker, Rosemary Doolen and Colleen Barr, vocalists, Pam Gilkinson, pianist, and Bob Sheldon, guitarist.

Conferees Near Disputed Issues

Washington –(UPI)– Senate-House conferees today approached the controversial issues which could shatter their two days of harmony in compromise labor reform legislation.

Several conferees reported there was a good chance the 14-man committee would plunge into the big controversial issues this afternoon.

So far the conferees have voted general agreement on relatively non-controversial matters in their quest for labor reform legislation that will satisfy both Congress and President Eisenhower.

Accord was reached Wednesday on provisions for reporting by union officials and employers union trusteeships, and election of union officers. There was no great difference between the House and Senate versions on these provisions.

Eight Satellites Now Orbiting Around Earth

Washington–(UPI)–Eight artificial satellites, seven of them American and one Russian, are now in orbit around the earth.

In addition, two artificial planetoids – one Russian and one American–are in solar orbits.

The Soviet earth satellite is Sputnik III, expected to die around Dec. 3.

The U. S. satellites are Explorer I, Vanguard I, Explorer IV, Vanguard II, Explorer VI, Discoverer V, and Discoverer VI.

Iranians Stage Anti-Russia Parade

Tehran—(UPI)—Hundreds of Iranians paraded past the Soviet Embassy today in one of the biggest anti-Russian demonstrations ever held in the capital city of Iran.

The occasion was the sixth anniversary of the overthrow of Premier Mohammed Mossadegh by Nationalists.

The Iranians marching before the Russian building turned their heads away, looking away from the embassy, following the national custom of showing dislike.

Across the country, which lies on the borders of the Soviet Union, anti-Russian demonstrations were reported.
