Youth Arrested - A 15-year-old Medford youth was arrested Wednesday on a charge of forgery in connection with passing a $40 check Aug. 8 in a Medford store, police reported. Police said the youth was confined to the Jackson county juvenile detention home.

Business Names - The assumed business name "Lake O' Woods trailer sales" has been recorded by Earl T. Newbery, for Ashland resident and former secretary of state. He said the name was acquired in connection with a license to sell trailers at his Lake of the Woods home. Other assumed business names recorded at the county clerk's office were "Smiling Bill's Sales," by William and Marita Kyker, 120 Vancouver ave., and Pruitt's Fountain lunch, by Wilkie and Geneva Pruitt, 19 South Orange st. The Kykers are dealers for Dreamer travel coaches.

Unmourned Convict Goes To Death in Prison Chamber

San Quentin, Calif. (UPI) - Stephen A. Nash, 36, who bragged that he killed 11 persons "just for kicks," was executed today in the San Quentin gas chamber.

As he was strapped in the death chair, the lanky, admitted homo-sexual said: "I didn't live like a man because circumstances prevented me. But I'm going to try to die like one."

Associate Warden Louis Nelson said Nash "did just exactly what he said he would." He needed no support as he was led into the apple green death cell. The first cyanide "eggs" were dropped at 9:03 a.m. (P.S.T.) into the vat of hydrochloric acid beneath Nash's chair.

At 9:12 a.m. Dr. Herman Gross, prison medical officer, pronounced him dead after listening through a stethoscope outside the gas chamber. The other end of the instrument was attached to Nash's chest.

Victim's Father Present - The father of one of Nash's victims was among the witnesses at the execution. He was not identified.

A chaplain stood by, but Nash did not ask to talk to him.

The Long Beach, Calif., killer, who once said, "Me, I'm cold-hearted... I'm as rotten as they make 'em-and I hate people," went to his death unmourned. Even fellow inmates on death row refused to give him the customary "chin up" farewell as he was led to a cell next to the gas chamber Thursday night.

Nash stayed awake all night, eating steak, hamburgers and ham sandwiches and drinking almost a gallon of milk.

The Most Evil Person - A Los Angeles judge once referred to him as "the most evil person who ever appeared in my court."

There was even contempt for Nash among the other condemned prisoners on Death Row, where a prison officer said he was so "foul-mouthed and offensive" that he had to be segregated.

Guards said he would scream the obscene details of his crimes to the other convicts awaiting execution.

Nash was tried for the murder of Larry Rice, 10, whom he lured under a bridge in Santa Monica in 1956 and stabbed 50 times, and for killing John William Berg, 20, in Long Beach two days later.

Among the other nine victims that he bragged about was Robert T. Eche, 21, who was killed in 1955 in San Francisco. Nash said he stabbed the youth eight times and then pushed the body and the youth's car off a pier into the bay.

Gave Him Laughs - "It gave me the only laugh I had in months," Nash chuckled when he was arrested.

Prison officials said Nash would die as he lived - without a soul in the world who has anything but contempt or hate for him. He has no next of kin, and he hasn't had a visitor since he entered San Quentin in the spring of 1957.

No one even wants his body - so the state will cremate him without a funeral.

CUTS SHORT HONEYMOON - Colorado Springs, Colo. - U.S. Air Force Col. Bill Edwards and his new bride had to cut short their honeymoon and return to Lowry Air Force Base so Edwards could complete a course called "disaster control."
