San Fancisco Giants Rip Philadelphia Phils By 8-1

By United Press International

The San Francisco Giants increased their National league lead to 3½ games Saturday by ripping the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-1, behind the combined pitching of Al Worthington and Gordon Jones.

Worthington, normally a relief pitcher, made his second start of the season a winning one. He stopped the Phils with only three hits before giving way to a pinch hitter in the seventh inning. Jones completed the job by allowing only one hit over the final three frames.

The Giants gained a 2-1 lead in the second on a two-run homer by Hobie Landrith off losing pitcher Jim Owens. They added two more in the seventh, a single run in the eighth and then pushed across three runs in the ninth with the help of a solo homer by Jackie Brandt.

Bennie Daniels, with relief help from Don Gross, pitched the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 2-0 victory over the second place Los Angeles Dodgers in a wild game that produced a 15-minute rhubarb in the eighth inning.

Protest Game

The Dodgers protested the game after a disputed play involving Don Hoak and Smoky Burgess of the Pirates. With Burgess on first base, Hoak lined a single to right. The Dodgers clafmed the ball hit Burgess as he was running between first and second, and insisted the Pirates' catcher should have been called out.

When the umpires ruled the ball did not strike Burgess, the Dodgers tossed towels and a bucket full of ice on the field. Don Drysdale and Duke Snider were ejected from the game for being the instigators of the towel-throwing incident.

Daniels blanked the Dodgers on six hits until he tired in the ninth and gave way to Gross, who completed the shutout. The Pirates collected nine hits off three Los Angeles pitchers, with Roger Craig taking the loss.

Frank Robinson socked three homers and drove in six runs in leading the Cincinnati Reds to an 11-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. Eddie Kasko and Johnny Temple also homered for the Reds, who broke a 1-1 tie with three runs in the fifth inning and then added six more in the next frame.

The Milwaukee Braves swept a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs, 7-0 and 3-2, and now trail the Giants by 4½ games.

Carl Willey posted his first victory since July 5 in the opener, blanking the Cubs on six hits. The Braves collected 10 hits, including a three-run homer by Del Crandall. In the second game, Milwaukee tied the score at 2-all in the seventh inning on a pinch homer by Mickey Vernon. Bobby Avila scored the winning run in the ninth on a wild pitch by Bill Henry with the bases loaded.

Rosensohn Says Story Will Stand

New York—(UPI)—Bill Rosensohn, subpenaed for another appearance before the "boxing" grand jury on Monday, declared Saturday. They can question me till Christmas and my story will stand; it's the truth."

Rosensohn, ousted as promoter of the return Ingemar Johansson - Floyd Patterson heavyweight title fight, was so irritated by Friday's long interrogation in the grand jury room and district attorney's office that he said:

"Some one is lying and there has to be perjury in this case, but I'm telling the truth."

Rosensohn is being questioned persistently, as a witness, because of discrepancies between his story of how he lost control of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., and the story of Vincent J. Velella, who wound up with two-thirds of the stock and is now president.

Rosensohn's corporation promoted the first Johansson-Patterson fighth at Yankee Stadium June 26, when Joohansson won the title. But now, Attorney Velella—a Harlem politician—owns two-thirds of the stock and is the new president.

NFL Forms Framework

Dallas, Tex.—(UPI)—The American Football league set out Saturday to form the framework upon which it will try to compete with the long-established National Football league for player personnel and the lifeblood of pro sports, public patronage.

Moined interests from New York, Los Angeles, Houston, Denver and Minneapolis-St. Paul sat down with Dallas Backer Lamar Hunt, the son of fabulously wealthy oilman, H. L. Hunt, and the man who took it upon himself to organize a rival for the NFL's lucrative drawing power.

They scheduled a two-hour morning session, then staged a luncheon at which the press was given the privilege of asking questions.

The embryo league can waste no time in drawing its battle lines. Although it doesn't plan to start competing until 1960, it will be only a matter of weeks until it must start bidding with the NFL for players.

Ashlanders Will Work In Evenings

Ashland—Some 55 Ashland High school athletes have been issued football gear.

Coach Varney Corey reported that the Grizzlies will open one-a-day practice sessions on Monday evening. A workout from 7 to 9 p.m. will follow 6 p.m. physical examinations.

Corey said that the one session-per-day plan is being followed, instead of two-a-day, because so many of the prospective gridders are working. He indicated that the nightly drills will be hard ones. "We'll make the old sweat roll," he remarked.

Corey anticipates the return of 11 lettermen. He said that the Grizzlies, small in size last year, are even smaller overall this season. Phil Tucker, 172 end being switched to tackle, is the biggest among the youths expected to see regular duty.

Little Offense Change

Ashland offense will be changed very little over last year, Corey stated. It will be mostly split T. One problem is at tackle. All five men at that position on the 1958 squad are gone.

iLne lettermen are Verne Speirs, end; Chuck Rush, Leroy Hannon and George Moses, guards, and Tucker. In the backfield are Steve Gray, Bob Voris and Stan Quenton, halfbacks; Dave Jackson, quarterback, and Doug Forrest, fullback. Forrest was a guard last year and Voris is being moved from quarterback.

The Grizzlies entertain Yreka, Calif., in their opening game.

ON CRUISE

Midshipman First Class Donn R. Johnson, son of Mrs. Helen M. Johnson, 733 Hazel st., Central Point, is aboard the destroyer USS Uhlman, operating in the Far East. It is on an eight-week summer training cruise.

Skindiver Rides Whale in Harbor

Wellfleet, Mass. —(UPI)— Philip Amero of East Dennis thinks he may be the only person ever to go riding on a whale.

The rugged skin diving instructor had a group of pupils in a boat a quarter mile outside Wellfleet Harbor when he saw four whales swimming past.

He jumped overboard with the hope of driving them into shallow water where he could photograph them with an underwater camera.

But the whales didn't frighten. So Amero swam right up and grabbed one by the dorsal fin, securing his hold by plunging a short knife into the whale's blubber, but not deep enough to hurt the big mammal.

Not until one of the students started up the boat's motor did the whale streak for the open ocean. Amero estimates he traveled 50 feet before he was washed overboard.

White Sox Eke Out 1-0 Win Over Washington Senators

By United Press International

The amazing Chicago White Sox, getting the most out of a singles-hitting lineup, got only three hits Saturday but they were enough for a 1-0 victory over the Washington Senators.

The victory, their 10th straight over the Senators, kept the White Sox 2½ games in front of the Cleveland Indiants in the American league race. The Indians capitalized on Woody Held's grand-slam homer and neat pitching by Gary Bell, Bobby Locke and Jim (Mudcat) Grant to defeat the Baltimore Orioles, 4-2.

White Sox rookie righthander Barry Latman doled out five hits in picking up his sixth victory against five losses. He struck out eight and walked six.

Russ Kemmerer pitched an even more impressive game, but took his 13th loss against seven victories. The White Sox capitalized on his only shaky inning, the second, to fashion their victory. Sherm Lollar led off with a walk, stole second, moved to third on a wild pitch and scored the game's only run on a single by Bubba Phillips.

Tito Francona, Jim Baxes and George Strickland were on base when Held cleared the right field fence with his 24th home run of the season in the fourth inning. Young Milt Pappas of the Orioles, who gave up the blow, was charged with his sixth loss. He has 13 victories.

Bell (14-10) was the beneficiary of Held's jackpot hit, but he didn't stick around to complete the game. He gave way to Bobby Locke in the eighth. Locke gave up Baltimore's second run and Grant finished up.

Frank Baumann pitched a six-hitter and Ted Williams hit his ninth home run of the season as the Boston Red Sox defeated the Detroit Tigers, 7-1, and the Kansas City Athletics beat the New York Yankees, 8-7, in 10 innings on former Yankee Jerry Lumpe's single.

The Tigers got their only run off Baumann (5-2) in the eighth on singles by Eddie Yost, Ted Lepcio and Gus Zernial. But by that time Williams, who went out for a pinch runner in the sixth, had accounted for three of the Red Sox' four runs with his homer and a single.

Pinch-hitter Norm Seibern's ninth-inning double sent the Yankee-A's game into overtime. After the New Yorkers went out in the top of the 10th, Bill Tuttle, first man up for KC, singled and was sacrificed to second. Dick Williams grounded out and Bob Turley, the fourth New York pitcher, walked Bob Cerv. Lumpe then rifled his hit to give rookie John Tsitouris his second major league victory. Turley was tagged with his 11th loss compared to eight victories.

Mickey Mantle and Hector Lopez of the Yankees and Tuttle shared hitting honors, each with three base knocks.

Ingemar Sees Jack

London —(UPI)— World heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson met former champ Jack Dempsey on a London bus Saturday to start discussions about the Swedish boxer's future fight plans.

Dempsey is the new front man for Rosensohn Enterprises Inc. which promoted the fight in which Johansson took the title from Floyd Patterson.

Dempsey flew into London from New York with two associates. Johansson flew down from the northern England town of Morecambe.

Johansson was sitting in an airport bus waiting to be taken to a plane bound for Copenhagen and Goteborg, his home town, when Dempsey dashed from the trans-Atlantic terminal and boarded the same bus.

He plopped down in the seat next to Johansson.

"Have a piece of seaside rock hard candy," said Johansson calmly.

Thus the two men together for the first time to talk business.

Dempsey said he was ready to give the Swede a full accounting for his fight with Patterson last June and to draw up a new contract for the return bout.

The meeting on the bus was a complete surprise. Neither man knew the other would be on it.

Sox Low In Homers

United Press International

The White Sox are working on their first pennant in 40 years and brother, they're doing it the hard way—almost entirely with singles.

When it comes to hitting home runs, the White Sox are low men on the American league totem pole, but when it comes down to winning games on singles, they can give lessons to everyone.

That's their particular specialty and they demonstrated it for the umpteenth time this season when they defeated the Senators, 5-4.

The White Sox collected nine hits in their win over Washington. Eight of those hits were singles. The only extra base blow was a double by Bubba Phillips.

Pinch-hitter John Romano's single with the bases loaded in the sixth inning put the White Sox ahead, 4-3, and singles by Jim Landis and Phillips sandwiched around an infield out produced what proved to be the winning run in the seventh.

Spokane Tops Portland Team

United Press International

Spokane unlashed a 14-hit barrage and captured a come-from-behind 9-5 win over Portland to sweep a Pacific Coast league doubleheader from the Beavers on Friday. The Indians won the opener, 3-2.

The double loss shunted Portland from first place to third, one game behind Salt Lake, and half a game back of Vancouver.

Eight of Spokane's nine starting men made base hits, four fo them batting two or more, the nightcap. Tommy Davis blasted two doubles and a single to lead the attack.

San Diego Man Sailing Champ

San Diego, Calif. —(UPI)— Al Frost Jr. of the San Diego Yacht club Saturday won the international 110 world sailing championship.

Frost and his crewman, Gordon Heller, finished second in Saturday's final race but a first, two seconds and two thirds in the five days of racing won theh title.

At 84¼ points, Frost and Heller were trailed by Dan Sanborn and John Shoemaker, also of the San Diego Yacht club, with 82½ points, good for second place in the world competition.

Third place was won by Dayton Carr and crewman Fred Bates of the Wilmette (Ill.) Harbor Fleet with 78 points.

Sanborn was the winner of today's race. He finished the 10-mile course of Point Loma slightly more than two minutes ahead of Frost.

Frost was followed by Ralph Gehlikin and crewman Richard Barni of the Lake Merced Sailing club, third; Grant Willson and crewman, Mike Figour, representing San Francisco Bay Fleet, fourth, and Carr.

Next in the overall standings for the world title and their points were:
Dooie Isdale, New Rochelle, N. Y., 60½ points for fourth; Art Jessop, San Diego Yacht club, 59, fifth; George Worthington, 59, San Diego Yacht club, fifth (tie); Robert Mann, 57¼, Coronado Yacht club, seventh; Morris Landon, 57, San Diego Yacht club, eighth; Phil Acker, 56, San Diego Yacht club, and Gehlki, 52, tenth.

Fullmer Meets Basilio in Ring

San Jose, Calif. —(UPI)— Gene Fullmer and Carmen Basilio, who will meet at the San Francisco Cow Palace Aug. 28, trained at the same ring Saturday. However, neither middleweight contender saw the other in action.

Basilio boxed four fast rounds at San Jose auditorium with Leo Owens of Syracuse, N.Y., but insisted Fullmer leave before he started his workout.

Fullmer entered the ring after Basilio left and went five free swinging rounds with Billy Murray of Stockton.

"The "lasagne" punch — a short left hook to the liver — semed Basilio's most effective technique but he didn't extend himself to the fullest, he said, because he didn't want "to lose the edge."

Fullmer, who has boxed 136 training rounds so far, seemed and rougher and more reckless than usual Saturday.

Phoenix Rally Now Too Late

United Press International

Somebody woke up the sleeping Phoenix Giant, but it's too late, his crown is gone.

Phoenix, defending Pacific Coast league title-holder, was in the thick of a madcap eight team pennant scramble just two weeks ago. But the club hit the skids with a horrenous 14 game loss streak.

Phoenix broke the streak Friday night was a convincing 9-1 trouncing of San Diego, but it was too little and too late inasmuch as the Giants now find themselves 9½ games off the pace.

Just who will turn up with the Giants' crown at the end of this season was still a matter of considerable doubt, however.

49'ers Meet Packers Today

San Francisco — (UPI) — The San Francisco Forty Niners and Green Bay Packers have at it in a National Pro Football league exhibition tussle today at Kezar stadium.

It will be the first meeting for a pair of dynamic rookie coaches. Red Hickey of San Francisco and Vince Lombardi of Green Bay are the first year mentors and each has brought a new look to his team.

Lombardi, who won acclaim as a master strategist both as a player and assistant coach at Army, has engineered eight major deals since taking over Green Bay. He has filled his line-up with proven pros such as defensive back Em Tunnell, obtained from New York, and defensive end Bill Quinlan, Cleveland stalwart last season.

There are 21 new faces on the squad.

Lombardi has moved to solve the Packers perennial quarterback dilemma by obtaining veteran Lamar McHan from the Chicago Cards. He will join in the battle for the starting berth against Babe Parilli and Bart Starr. Parilli is due to start today.

The Packers, who had a dismal 1-10-1 record last year, looked good while dropping their first exhibition game to the tough Chicago Bears, 19-16, the week before.

IN TRAINING

Marine Pvt. Dewane W. Hodgson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hodgson, 529 Albert st., Medford, is scheduled to complete four weeks of individual combat training soon at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Swan Downed, Snared at Last

Portland (UPI) — Zoo Director Jack Marks and Portland harbor police were recuperating Saturday from a harrowing race 10 miles up the Willamette river late Friday in which a rare trumpeter swan from the Portland Zoo was the eventual loser.

The swan, one of two of the highly-prized birds in the Zoo, escaped sometime Wednesday night.

The bird was spotted Friday on the Willamette river here. Marks enlisted the aid of the Portland harbor patrol cruiser Star and the chase started just south of the Morrison bridge.

The swan stayed ahead of the boat, capable of 27 knots, and near Oregon City the cruiser grounded on a gravel bar. Marks continued in pursuit in a water ski tow boat and the trumpeter, finally tired, landed on the river and was snared with a net.

Damage to the police boat was estimated at $500. The swan was returned to its mate, in a wire enclosure.
