Receives degree - Garold N. Davis of Ashland received a degree of master of arts Friday from Brigham Young University. He was one of 90 students to receive master's degrees at the commencement ceremony.

Revolver Taken - John Kern Willis, landlady at 328 North Riverside ave., informed Medford police Friday of the theft of a .38 calibre revolver from a drawer of his desk at that address sometime since Aug. 13.

Vehicles Collide - Vehicles operated by Amanda Margaret Thompson, 1009 S. Outh Peach st., and Garland Lee Lowery, 1612 Orchard Home dr., collided Friday on Main st. between Fir and Grape sts., Medford police reported.

Stove Taken - Henry Charles Stemper, 113 Cottage st., informed Medford police of the apparent theft of a $50 electric stove Thursday night or Friday from the rear of the garage at that address. Police were investigating the possibility that Stemper's landlady may have removed the stove.

Rings Taken - Medford police Saturday reported that a set of rings, a wedding band and an engagement band worth together about $90, were taken from Dell's Jewelry store, 123 West Main st., Thursday morning at the same time as the four wristwatches reported previously.

Hit and Run - Carl F. Kellenger, 348 Sutter ave., informed Medford police that a hit-and-run automobile Friday night struck two parked cars owned by himself and by Willie H. Fischer, 910 Winchester ave., on 11th st. between Laurel and Peach sts. Police reported no damage to either of the parked vehicles.

Roundtable - Heinz Bertram, who conducts an upholstery business here, will review his life in this country at the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce roundtable luncheon Monday noon at the Jackson hotel. Bertram was in the valley during World War II as a prisoner of war at Camp White.

Car Struck - A parked automobile registered to Valley Motor company, 224 North Riverside ave., was struck Friday by a car operated by Winifred Alice Olson, 539 Haven st., on Grape st. between Fifth and Sixth sts., Medford police reported. Police said an unidentified person in the parked vehicle opened the door, and the moving vehicle struck it. No citations were issued.

Accident - State police reported a traffic accident at 9:30 p.m. Friday on Highway 99 and Charlotte Anne rd. A car driven by Lewis A. Rambousek Jr., 18, of 423 King st., Medford, struck the rear of a car driven by Lucille J. Daniels, 560 Charlotte Anne rd., Medford. Police said minor damage was sustained by both cars and that a complaint would be filed against Rambousek for violation of the basic rule.

ARRIVES BY AIR - Mrs. Emma Gatewood, the "walking grandmother" who hiked over 2,000 miles to Oregon this summer, was resting on her laurels this past week - she arrived in Medford by air. Mayor John Snider, with whose mother Mrs. Gatewood was to spend the week end, greeted her. Draped on Mrs. Gatewood's wrist in this picture are two kerchiefs, red and green, which she said she gleaned - one by stealth and one as a gift - from the Coos Bay Pirates.

CENTRAL POINT Visitor Honored at Event

Footlighters

Take Breather Medford's little theater group, the Footlighters, finished the first week of "On the Bridge at Midnight" last night, and looked forward to two days off before resuming the production.

The three-act "mellow-drama" is staged at the group's theater near the Jackson county fairgrounds south of Medford. It started last Tuesday, and will resume Tuesday, Aug. 25. Last night of the production is Aug. 29. Footlighter officials said attendance has been low, and encouraged valley residents to see the Bruce Brandon three-act play. It is directed by Bob Ford.

Included in the cast are Marie Pierce, Frank Buchter, Marion Keim, Virginia Murphy, Audrey Reiss, Margaret Dix, Charlene Tarvin, Chuck Tucker, Marianne Samuelson, Thayer Tarvin, Dr. Laurence Ware, Virginia Lusk and Dr. Frank Roberts.

LEARNS ABOUT WOMEN Venice, Calif. (UPI) - Albert A. Tammer, 31, learned the hard way Friday that, when women are involved, it's sometimes the better part of valor not to try to break up a fight. Tammer, a dishwasher, told police that when he tried to act as a peacemaker, two scuffling women beat him into semi-consciousness and took his cigarette lighter and his wallet containing $5.

Oliver Evans invented a flour mill in 1784 in which the grain was unloaded and processed into finished flour without the aid of human hands.
