

Relatives Here Attend Rites In California

Several Medford relatives attended the August 8 wedding in Hayward, Calif., of Miss Beverly Pearl Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Powell, San Leandro, Calif., formerly of Medford, and Laverne A. Lamkin, Jr., Hayward, Calif.

The rites were held at 8 o'clock in the evening at First Presbyterian church with the Rev. John Pickrell officiating. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lamkin. Matron of honor was Mrs. Perry Sneed, 800 1/2 Beekman avenue, Medford, cousin of the bride. Brides matron was Mrs. Joseph Ferreira, San Leandro, and Little Barbara Lamkin, Hayward, was flower girl.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Chantilly lace and net gown fashioned with lace bodice and floor length full net skirt. Her veil was held by a small crown and she carried white roses encircled by yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Sneed wore a floor length turquoise gown and carried white carnations encircling yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Ferreira wore a lavender dress and also carried carnations and rosebuds.

John Lamkin, Hayward, served as best man and Mr. Ferreira and James Worthen, Hayward, seated the guests. Denise Turner, San Leandro, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Moose hall, Castro Valley. The couple traveled to Lake Tahoe on their wedding trip. They will make their home in San Leandro.

The bride attended Roosevelt Elementary school in Medford and was graduated from San Lorenzo High school. She is employed by Sears, Roebuck and Company. Mr. Lamkin attended Rice Lake High school and Oakland City college. He is employed by Chip Steak company.

Among the valley relatives of the bride attending were Mrs. Roy Watkins, grandmother; Mrs. Ralph Peyton, aunt; Mrs. Joe Madden and Mrs. Guy Havice, cousins. Also Mrs. Steven Stephenson, Mrs. Jim Hodgson, and Mr. Sneed and small son.

Medford Family Returns From Extended Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. William Davenport, 405 North Central avenue, and daughters, Joann and Elaine, returned last week from a six weeks trip throughout the United States.

The family left the valley June 6 and visited Boulder dam, Grand Canyon, Carlsbad Caverns, El Paso, Juarez, Mexico, and New Orleans. From there they traveled through the Gulf states to Daytona Beach Fla., and up the eastern coast to Washington, D. C.

During their two weeks stay in the capital they visited Bernard West, former schoolmate of the Davenports who is now in charge of personnel at the White House. Mr. West took the family on a private tour of the White House during their visit. The family also attended sessions of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

From Washington, D. C., they drove to New York City, parking their house trailer in a trailer park near Lincoln tunnel only 15 minutes from downtown Manhattan.

While in New York City they visited the United Nations building and attended a session. From there they drove to Niagara Falls, Cleveland, and Chicago where they visited Mrs. Davenport's brother, Homer Vanscoy, and children.

While in Chicago they saw the White Sox beat the New York Yankees 3 to 1. From Chicago the family traveled to their former hometown, Creston, Iowa, where they visited relatives for two weeks before returning to the valley by the way of Salt Lake City, D. C.

Rickers Return From Europe Trip

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Ricker, Plaza apartments, returned recently from a three-month trip to Europe, where they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. John K. Ricker, and children, Sharon, Rickie and Kim, in Nuremberg, Germany.

The Rickers traveled to Europe aboard the SS American and spent some time in Italy, Austria, Holland, Belgium, Denmark, France and other areas before returning by jet airliner.

Russell-Barclay Wedding Held in Methodist Church

Miss Marlene Rae Barclay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barclay, 425 Modoc avenue, became the bride of Michael Bryon Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Russell, 3492 Jacksony August 13 at First Methodist church.

The Rev. Melvin W. Dixon, St. Luke's Methodist church, officiated at the eight o'clock evening ceremony held on the bride's birthday. More than 200 relatives and friends attended. Baskets of melon and white gladiolus decorated the church and satin bows marked the pew ends.

Miss Linda Smith was soloist. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length white tulle and Chantilly lace gown fashioned with fitted bodice with long sleeves and scalloped neckline. Her fingertip length veil was held by a scalloped crown of seed pearls and she carried a crescent shaped bouquet of carnations and butterfly orchids.

Mrs. John Beleck, Eugene, was matron of honor and Miss Myda McCabe was bridesmaid. Bridesmatrons were Mrs. E. W. Robinson, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Gary Hart. They wore brocade taffeta sheath dresses in pale pink and melon shades. Their headdresses were pale pink tulle circlets, held by pink satin bands and they carried bouquets of white gladiolus tied with melon colored ribbon.

Candlelighters were Miss Julie Ann Barclay, sister of the bride, and Miss Lucinda Magruder, cousin of the bride. Little Barbara Jane Barclay, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Jair Robinson, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Fred Greene, Eagle Point, served as best man for his cousin. Tom Hamlin, David Reese, Mr. Shasta, cousin of the bridegroom; Gerald Fanger and Tony Brauner seated the guests.

For her daughters' wedding and reception which followed in the church reception hall, Mrs. Barclay chose a blue lace frock styled on princess lines with matching accessories. Mrs. Russell wore a pale lavender sheath frock with white accessories. Their corsages were white carnations.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Edward Radzweit, Mrs. Russell Heyzell, Mrs. Richard Mackley, and Mrs. Fred Greene. The reception was under the direction of Mrs. Jessie Minear assisted by members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Miss Barbara Pierce and Tony Brauner were at the gift table and Miss Helen Granger was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. J. E. Vincent decorated the church.

Miss Barbara Jane Barclay passed the individually wrapped bridegroom's cake and Miss Barclay and Miss Lucinda Magruder passed baskets of rice.

Following the ceremony the couple traveled to Portland on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a beige and white checked suit with matching accessories and white orchid corsage. They will make their home in Klamath Falls after September 15 where Mr. Russell is a student at Oregon Technical Institute. The bride and bridegroom attended Medford High school.

Among the out of town wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leburn Magruder, Brunswick, Mo., grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mackley and family, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Eugene Magruder and daughter and son, Lucinda and Gary, Seattle, Wash.; and Mrs. David Reese and David Jr. and Jonathan, Mt. Shasta.

Wedding Planned For September 12
