

Open House Held on 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Summers celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, Aug. 16, at an open house at their home, route 4, box 480-C.

About 70 friends, neighbors and relatives attended.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Harnsberger and son, Stanley, and Miss Carol Reiling, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Tripp, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Summers, North Bend; and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sackett, Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Summers, who were married in Roseburg in 1909, moved to the Rogue Valley in 1912, living on a farm north of Phoenix on Highway 99. They operated one of the first fruit stands between Ashland and Medford before moving to their present home following retirement in 1950.

The couple resided in Riddle and British Columbia before coming to southern Oregon.

Summer clothes should be laundered as soon as possible after wearing. Perspiration weakens fibers.

Concert Series Continues in Ashland Today

Fourth in the Sunday afternoon concert series is set for this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival theater in Ashland.

Music Director W. Bernard Windt indicates that the full complement of instrumentalists and vocalists will be heard in a variety of numbers.

Sabine Phelps, Willene Ambrose, Diamond Tomaras, and Mira Frohnmayer—the Festival Singers—will open the program with a group of madrigals. Harpichordist Stanley Plummer will perform a selection of solo numbers, to be followed by harpichordist Meredith Ellis and contralto Willene Ambrose in a Purcell number, "When I Am Laid in Earth."

Violinists Harlaee Wilson, Richard D. Werner and Brenda Woods will join with violin-cellist W. Bernard Windt and the two harpichordists in Coldara's "Sonata a Tre."

Miss Phelps and Miss Ambrose—with the instrumental ensemble—will then sing the "Ah Remember" duet from Verdi's "Requiem."

Instrumental Group
Mr. Wilson and Mr. Plummer will combine violin and harpichord in the "Giocanna" of Vitali, and the entire instrumental group will conclude the program with Bach's Concerto for Two Harpichords.

Next week marks the end of the guest concerts for the 1959 Festival, with two 4:30 p.m. concerts scheduled. On Tuesday afternoon, in the afternoon, in the Fireside room of the First Methodist church, Laurel and Main streets, Ashland, a chamber music concert will be offered.

Thursday afternoon in the sanctuary of the same church, a concert of vocal, organ, and string music is to be given.

The music department's 1959 program concludes next Sunday, August 30, with a dance concert.

Rackleff-Joanis Wedding Held in Ashland August 16

Ashland-Trinity Episcopal church in Ashland was scene of the wedding August 16 of Miss Janet Lee Joanis, Talent, to Duane Harry Rackleff, Ashland.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Russell Combest, Reno, and Edward Joanis, Talent. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rackleff, Myrtle Point.

For the event, performed by the Rev. John L. Thompson III, the bride wore a green embroidered nylon over satin gown styled on princess lines. A green circlet of net and seed pearls held her shoulder length veil and her crystal necklace was a gift of the bridegroom. She carried orchids and stepanotis on a white prayer book.

Mr. Joanis gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Roland Hartley, Talent, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Sherry Taylor was bridesmaid. Both wore green empire sheath gowns of cotton cupioni and carried arm bouquets of pink and white gladiolus. Their hats were of green net circlets held by a satin bow.

Little Dana Combest, Reno, sister of the bride, served as flower girl and wore a frock of green dotted Swiss over white taffeta. She carried a basket of gold chrysanthemums.

Rickey Hartley, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer. Best man was Larry Mulrky, Salem, and ushers were Ken Miller, Corvallis; Roland Hartley, Talent, brother-in-law of the bride, and James Wright.

Organ music was played by Mrs. Edna Daugherty.

The bride's mother wore an aqua sheath dress with white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink and white satin sheath with white accessories and white rosebud corsage.

The bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Gleim, gave the reception, which was held in the parish house. Mrs. Richard Skeeters made the cake, which was cut and served by Mrs. Robert Seymour and Mrs. Bryce Rutledge.

Mrs. William Hollingsworth was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Rutledge at the gift table. Punch was poured by Mrs. Gleim.

For their wedding trip the couple traveled to Portland and the Oregon coast, the bride wearing a beige shirtwaist dress with matching accessories.

They are residing at 78 Fourth street. The bridegroom, who is a teller in the Ashland branch of First National Bank of Oregon, attended Myrtle Point High school, Oregon State college and Southern Oregon college. The bride attended Talent High school and SOC.

Guests Attend Sunday Dinner

Forty members, husbands and guests of Rogue chapter, Grandmother Clubs of America, met for a covered dish dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rucker, 25 Quince street.

Reminiscing and visiting provided entertainment. A cake honoring members with birthdays in July, August and September was served.

Hostesses were Mrs. Fred Rippe, Mrs. Rucker, Mrs. Harry E. Cole, Mrs. Clayton J. Walker, all of Medford, and Mrs. Cecil Hill, Grants Pass.

The club's next regular meeting will be Monday, September 28, at Girls Community club when new officers will be elected.

Bridal Shower in Wimer Honors Joyce Boulter

Wimer—Mrs. Richard Olym-pius gave a shower August 8 in honor of Miss Joyce Boulter, bride-elect of Peter Purrier.

Attending the event were Mrs. F. R. Williams, Miss Kay Williams, Mrs. Betty Rhoton, Mrs. Rose Marie Machado, Mrs. Carrie Weide, Mrs. Gene Chapman, Mrs. Richard Lehman, Mrs. Lloyd Hauman, Mrs. Gene Moore, Miss Elmer Baker, Mrs. Carl Rhoten, Mrs. Chester Jensen, Mrs. Ralph Badcock, Mrs. William Purrier, Mrs. Roland Raber, Mrs. Lee Hillis, Mrs. Leonard Weide, Mrs. W. C. King, Mrs. Alfred Boulter, and Miss Sharon Stevens.

Relatives Visit In Butte Falls

Butte Falls—Guests recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wright were his sister, Mrs. Emma Porter and her son, Paul, of Wenatchee, Wash.

The travelers were en route from San Jose, where they visited two other brothers, Harold and Paul Wright, and their families.

In Carpinteria, Calif., they were guests of Henry Wright's children and their families.

The Henry Wrights spent last week end with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Kay, and children, Coquille.

Visit Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Schireman, 1786 Roberts road, and 16-months-old son, William, recently returned from a two weeks' vacation in Nyssa, Ore., where they visited Mr. Schireman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schireman.

While there they also traveled to Boise, Idaho.

Trip to Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Vessey, 726 Alder street, returned recently from a one week trip along the coast. Following a stop at Newport the couple traveled to Salem where Mr. Vessey participated in a bowling tournament.

Winton Home Site For Tea

Women who will pour at the annual silver tea of the Women's association of the First Presbyterian church have been announced by Mrs. Garner Haupt, general chairman.

They are Mrs. Cady Denman, Mrs. Grace Collins, Mrs. E. B. DeVoe, Miss Elizabeth Burr, Mrs. W. W. Howard and Mrs. George Flanagan.

Mrs. Bert Elliott and Mrs. Victor Birdseye are in charge of flower arrangements.

The event will be from 2 to 5 p.m. Tuesday, August 25, at the John Winton home on Agate road. Singers from the Oregon Shakespearean festival, Ashland, will perform.

Proceeds from the tea will go to Presbyterian mission hospitals for purchase of medicine and drugs.

Those who wish transportation should be at the church at 1:45 p.m.

A sharp knife is better than scissors for cutting flower stems. Scissors pinch stems, making it harder for water to enter.
