Los Angeles (UPI)—UCLA's Bruin sports teams are back in the good graces of the NCAA today after three-year probation for recruiting violations.

The National Collegiate Athletic association took the school off the blacklist effective last Friday. NCAA Executive Director Walter Byers said in Kansas City the action was taken following a review of the athletic policies and practices at UCLA.

UCLA was placed on probation for three years effective Aug. 21, 1956, for violation of recruiting aid rules. The NCAA ruled the Bruins could not participate in any NCAA championship events, including bowl games and basketball tournaments.

"We are certainly pleased that we have the probation lifted," UCLA Athletic Director Wilbur John said. "I know that all the teams will be happy that they now are eligible for NCAA competition."

"Being eligible helps the moral of the whole school," he added. "We hope to continue the standards of performance that we've had in the past and I'm sure we'll do all right."

Bolin Hurls 7-Inning No-Hitter

United Press International Eugene's Bobby Bolin, a craftsman on the mound all season, fashioned a masterpiece Sunday night.

Bolin pitched a no-hit, no-run game to lead the Emeralds to a 13-0, seven inning victory over Lewistown in the second game of a Northwest league doubleheader. Bolin's effort followed Eugene's 5-2, first game victory in which Ron Herbel fired a three-hitter.

Blazing Bob, a 20-year-old right-hander, struck out nine and walked only four as he notched his 17th victory against seven losses. Only one Bronco reached second base, that coming in the seventh inning when Bolin gave up two of his four walks.

Maddox Shines Bolin, the league's strike-out leader, now has fanned 223 batsmen this season.

Eugene won it in the first inning when it broke loose for five runs on four hits, including a two-run double by Joe Sparks.

Terry Maddox hit a three-run double in the third inning of the first game to set up that victory. Maddox also contributed a solo homer in the fifth inning.

Bransom Sparkles For West Eleven In Shrine Tussle

Pendleton (UPI)—Doyle Bransom, a high-gear halfback from Jacksonville led a underdog West team to an 8-0 win here Saturday night in the 8th annual Class "B" Shrine football game.

It was the first win since 1956 for the West forces.

Bransom grabbed the opening kickoff and sped down the sidelines 90 yards for the game's only touchdown. The contest was only 16 seconds old when the 170-pound right halfback dashed into paydirt.

The first six points were enough as a rugged and determined West line stopped a stabfest of speedy East backs time and again.

Early in the fourth period Pendleton's Bob Pennel racked up the final two West points as he nailed Dick Ruhl of Heppner in the East end zone for a safety.

Bransom Top Player Bransom was named the outstanding player of the game, largely for his offensive work. Pennel, who was named top back for the West

Nieporte Golf Victor

Akron, Ohio (UPI)—Tom Nieporte, of Bronxville, N.Y., who finally broke a two-year victory famine, headed toward Malwaukee today spurred by a $2,800 check, evidence of his three-stroke victory in the Rubber City open.

The 29-year-old former Ohio State University and 1951 NCAA golf champion blasted a last round five-under-par 66 Sunday for a 267 total, a record-shattering 17-under-par for the Firestone Country club, site of next year's PGA.

Nieporte, who has collected more than $14,000 in 29 events this year, was sporting a red-hot putter as he carded six birdies and one bogey.

Bob Goalby, Crystal River, Fla., still looking for his first title of the season, was runner up with 270. Bill Collins, Crystal River, Fla., who wound up with the third place purse of $1,400 fired a brilliant final round six-under-par 65 for a 271.

Green Bay Triumphs In Thriller

By DON BECKER San Francisco (UPI)—It's about time they re-named Kezar stadium "Cardiac Canyon."

The San Francisco Forty-Niners have played enough heart-stoppers there to warrant the change.

Sunday in an exhibition game that didn't really mean beans to either club, the Forty-Niners had the whole house standing and screaming at the gun in what has become customary fashion.

The Forty-Niners got taken in this one, 24-17, by the Green Bay Packers, but on the basis of cliff-hanging thrills, the contest measured up with some of the best of the past.

On the last play of the game, Y. A. Tittle, who had just missed two alley-oop passes, lofted a third mile-high heave that covered 50 yards in the air. R. C. Owens "reached a cluster of defenders to grab the ball on the one-foot line. Then the gun sounded.

Though the game was not as satisfying for Forty-Niner fans as last week's last minute 27-24 win over the Washington Redskins, it certainly aided new Forty-Niner coach Red Hickey in readying his forces for the NFL opener.

Tittle played only the fourth quarter and led the Forty-Niners to their two touchdowns on some brilliant passing, 8-12, 153 yards, and with the aid of fine snagging by Billy Wilson 5-95 yards.

With John Brodie at the quarterback helm, the Forty-Niners were almost completely shackled by the Packers. The Green Bay line bottled up the San Francisco offensive forward wall and put the rush on Brodie, who still managed to complete 11 of 18 tosses. But on the ground, the Forty-Niners could not generate sufficient yardage to sustain a drive.

Packers Lead Early Green Bay grabbed a 10-3 half-time advantage with a fumble by rookie Paul Lowe on the Forty-Niner 34, paving the way for the Packer touchdown. Forty-Niner Bobby Luna opened the scoring in the second quarter when he kicked a 20 yard field goal, and Paul Horning tied it for Green Bay with a similar boot.

A 97-yard kick-off return by rookie George Dixon set up the Packers' final touchdown and gave them a 24-10 lead. Dixon's run came after Tittle had taken over for Brodie and led his mates on a 42 yard TD drive.

Tittle moved the Forty-Niners 71 yards in six plays for the second San Francisco touchdown. A 46 yard pass to Wilson was the key play.

And then with only a minute to play, Tittle continued his accurate flinging to get the Forty-Niners all the way to the one-foot line when time ran out.

Australians Grab Toga

By BOB SALMON Chestnut Hill, Mass. (UPI)—U.S. Davis Cup Capt. Perry T. Jones waxed lyrical today over young Earl Buchholz while hoping Peruvian Alex Olmedo would "hit his crescendo" in this week's showdown at Forest Hills, N.Y.

Australia made its final call Sunday by winning the National Doubles here on the shoulders of a 25-year-old Neale Fraser and 22-year-old Roy Emerson. Winner took the pot—the top prize in tennis—starting Friday when the Aussies challenge the United States for the Davis Cup.

Jones was holding his breath during the week-long doubles here, pairing the 23-year-old Olmedo, now living in Los Angeles, with the 18-year-old Bucholz. Many said it was a mistake; that Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, and the Air Force should be teamed with Olmedo.

Turns Tables But Buchholz, a quiet, crew-cut lad from St. Louis, Mo., with more potential than any tennis youngster in years, turned the tables on just about everybody.

Fraser and Emerson squeaked through to a 3-6, 6-3, 5-7, 7-5 win, but it was Buchholz who carried Olmedo.

Wimbledon champions Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., and Jeanne Arth of St. Paul, Minn., successfully defended their women's doubles crown Sunday with a ho-hum victory over Maria Bueno of Brazil and Sally Moore of Bakersfield, Calif., 6-2, 6-3.

Northwest Title Won By Florists

Portland (UPI)—The Erv Lind Florists of Portland won the Northwest regional women's softball title Sunday night by walloping Salem 13-0.

Salem had gained the finals with a marathon 3-2 win in 19 innings over the Seattle Ramblers in a game just before the championship contest.

The Florists won 2 to 0 over Bremerton and 3 to 0 from Seattle on Saturday while Salem defeated Bremerton 3 to 0. In other Saturday action Seattle whipped Tacoma 5 to 1 and Bremerton won 3 to 0 from Tacoma.

Gene Fullmer Tunes Up With All-Out Session

San Francisco (UPI)—Middleweight slugger Gene Fullmer planned to pull out all stops today in his final sparring session in preparation for Friday's (NBA) middleweight title bout against Carmen Basilio.

This was in contrast to the routine of most fighters who taper off on the windup day of boxing. Fullmer has fought 136 practice rounds for the big fight and planned to go five more today.

Grid Rookies Prominent In Exhibition Victories

By JOE SARGIS United Press International It's tough taking away an "old pro's" job in the National Football league, but three rookies—Nick Pietrosante, George Dixon and John Aveni—gave it a try during the week end.

While they didn't exactly chase the veterans off the field, the three figured prominently in their team's exhibition victories.

Pietrosante, a rugged full-back from Notre Dame, picked up 57 yards in seven cracks at the Cleveland line to lead the Detroit Lions to a 9-3 victory over the Browns; Dixon, a scabback from the University of Bridgeport, contributed a key 97-yard kick-off return that helped the Green Bay Packers scuttle the San Francisco Forty Niners, 24-17, and Aveni, a big end from Indiana, booted a 31-yard field goal as the Chicago

Sport Parade

New York (UPI)—Northwestern, Southern Methodist and Louisiana State appear today to be the best bets for college football's mythical national championship this fall with another haphazard season in store for the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame.

The Big Ten shapes up as another ding-dong grid battle with equally torrid action in the South and Southwest and a scrambled situation on the West coast.

Sectionally, the champions well could be: Big Ten—Northwestern. South—West Virginia. Southwest—SMU. Southeast—LSU. East—Army. Atlantic Coast—North Carolina.

West—Southern California. Big Eight—Oklahoma. Skyline—Wyoming.

The mighty appear to have fallen in the Big Ten with such titans as Ohio State, Michigan and Michigan State expecting their lumps from resurging Northwestern, Purdue and Iowa. Northwestern is the choice because of 29 lettermen headed by quarterback Dick Thornton.

Irish Have 13 Lettermen Notre Dame has 13 lettermen headed by quarterback George Izo but erstwhile pro coach Joe Kuharich will have his troubles under the golden dome.

In the West, Southern California is tops but, under NCAA suspension, can't appear in the Rose Bowl. California, ranked number two, is out because it played there last year. So Oregon, Washington State and UCLA will battle possibly for third honors and a non-glittering Rose Bowl position.

Led by Quarterback Joe Anderson, Army again should be the class of the East despite Red Blaik's retirement. Dart-
