of our fellow Americans has a serious mental problem. You certainly know at least one such person. Maybe it's even someone in your own family.

How can you help? By treating this person with understanding. You see, doctors say the understanding a mentally disturbed person receives can make the difference between further illness or recovery.

And as you give your understanding to others, learn to understand your own emotional tensions, too. Learn how to keep these tensions from making life unhappy for you, and those around you.

Find out what to do. Send for the new free booklet, "How To Deal With Your Tensions". Write: Box 2500, New York 1, N.Y. Do it today!

HORN BROOK

Barber Reopens Shop

By KATHERINE CHAPMAN

Hornbrook-Joe Leoni and his Mountain View Barber shop are back in business. Joe was "benched" by a bench saw while back, and has been recuperating from two badly cut fingers.

In order that the period of his convalescence would not be a total loss, he and Mrs. Leoni and a nephew, Jim Leoni, of San Diego, drove to Whidby Island on Puget Sound for some salmon fishing.

Returning home last week end, they brought another nephew, Michael Hardy, Seattle, with them for a visit. Now Joe has a sign on the door of his barber shop—"Have finger—Will cut hair."

Visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Merritt were his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Adams.

News and Notes From Camp White

By WALTER TOWNSEND
It was Happy Birthday in the theatre, for 46 members born in August.

Birthday parties are a Camp White VAVS project. Veterans Foreign Wars Auxiliary, for the first time, the hosts, provided entertainment, refreshments, and presents. Mrs. Lelia Birch, introduced the new VAVS representative, Miss Laurene Kell.

Eve Prentiss, and her six-piece orchestra, furnished music and appropriate birthday relaxation, for the members who were "a year older."

Some dozen women, from Medford, Ashland, and other points in the Valley, were present and helped serve refreshments, and distribute gifts.

Many of the ex-soldiers and sailors, were surprised to learn how nice a birthday could be, as they heard, "Till We Meet Again" sung from the stage by all the ladies.

Manuel Santos, 77, was given a special gift for being the "oldest man present." Lelia Birch of the VFW auxiliary, made the announcement over the loudspeaker, and had one of the women hand the ribbon-wrapped parcel to Santos, personally.

George Mueller, instructor in archery, has among his many learners, three champions of the bow. They are Clarence Thompson, Don Anderson, and Wilbur Lee.

"When they let an arrow fly, they mean business," the instructor said.

Fern Wilgus, Portland, on Hillsboro team, was hurt in the Saturday game, playing against Dairy Maids. She suffered a torn cartilage, turning at first and sliding to second.

She was sent to Sacred Heart hospital in Medford. Her leg will require an operation. The mishap caused a renewal of an old injury.

Her painful hurts failed to dampen her enthusiasm. Two of the Hillsboro players carried her to the stadium the next day so she could view the outcome of the tournament. She plays first base.

Vivian Reaves of Gervias, playing on the Salem team, against Eugene, was hurt sliding into home plate at 1:30 p.m.

She sprained a ligament in her leg. Notwithstanding the injury she went back into the game, at first base, for the evening finals, against Forest Grove.

Sue Hendrick, peppery left fielder, also played through the three game series with a game leg, to win the Oregon women's softball championship for Salem, last Sunday.

"Whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord, shall be saved," was the text of Ian Hoover, who came with some two dozen singers from Central Point, Sunday night.

Nikita Sends Notes to West

Paris—(UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has sent notes to the western allies expressing Russian determination on the Berlin situation as a prelude to his talks with President Eisenhower, diplomatic sources said Monday.

The latest note to West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was delivered Sunday in Bonn. Diplomatic reports said Khrushchev letters also had been sent to France and Britain, and British Press reports said there had been a note to Washington as well.

The diplomatic sources said they did not know the contents of all the notes but that Khrushchev apparently was summing up the Russian unyielding demands including a free city status for Berlin and the end of western military occupation.

Some quarters here believed Khrushchev's main idea was to show that the Soviet official attitude had not softened one whit on basic issues like Berlin's status, German

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS

The Hallmark of Circulation Value

In the same way that STERLING on silver signifies a standard of known value, so is the A.B.C. emblem a symbol of integrity for the circulation of newspapers and periodicals. It means that circulation so identified is measured according to the rules and standards of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS.

The A.B.C. is a cooperative and non-profit association of 3,450 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Organized in 1914, these buyers and sellers of advertising brought order out of advertising chaos by setting up standards for paid circulation and establishing rules and methods for measuring, auditing and reporting circulations.

Therefore, the work of the A.B.C., of which this newspaper is proud to be a member, provides you with a direct and valuable service. You can buy advertising as you would make any other sound business investment — on the basis of well known standards, known values.

At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of our circulation records. The results of this exacting audit show: How much circulation we have; where our circulation goes; how it was obtained; and many other FACTS that you need in order to know just what you get for your advertising dollars. This audited information is published by the Bureau in easy-to-read A.B.C. reports which are available to our advertisers on request. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.
