

NEAR MISS—Clock shows no time left as last second 40-yard "alley-oop" pass from 49er quarterback Y. A. Tittle floats toward end R. C. Owens (27) in exhibition game at Kezar Stadium in San Francisco. Owens came down with ball on one foot line. Green Bay Packer defenders are, left to right: John Symank, Dan Currie and Hank Gremminger. Green Bay won, 24-17.

SPORTS

95 Issued MHS Grid Uniforms

Medford High school's football squad probably will hold its first scrimmage this Saturday morning, head coach Fred Spiegelberg has reported. Each player likely will see about one-half hour of action, he said.

A total of 95 uniforms have been issued to Black Tornado grid candidates. Turnout for each of the workouts has averaged about 85 youths.

In addition to conditioning drills, there has been a lot of group work with offensive fundamentals getting the emphasis. Spiegelberg said that line aspirants have been working at individual blocking. Backs have drilled at ball handling and ball carrying and have run through plays to improve timing.

New plays have been added each day to the Tornado offense and the squad has run through them in dummy scrimmage.

Thirty of the 32 lettermen who'll be in school this year have been on hand for drills. The squad includes nine boys, mostly sophomores, who were on the Jacksonville high varsity as freshmen last year.

Jacksonville and Medford districts have since consolidated and students from Jacksonville will attend high school here.

Missing so far from among the lettermen are Pat McLaughlin, center, who suffered a leg injury last spring at Beaver Boys State, and Doug Kliever, a center, who may not turn out this fall.

The squad will be lighter this year than in 1958, according to Spiegelberg. Gordon Pathman, tackle, and Lowell Dean, end, both down to around 195 after this week's workouts, are heaviest on the squad, the mentor said.

Practices are at 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. daily.

Liechtenstein, whose history goes back to 1342, covers 61 square miles and has a population of only 15,000.

Riddle Foe Of Keglers Tonight

Riddle and Medford Bowling Lanes teams of the Rogue Valley Baseball circuit collide this evening at Camp White.

Game time is 8 p.m. Riddle, first half champ, is fighting to keep in the running for top spot in the second half standings. Medford is out of the running.

Best Riddle, now tied for second with Ashland, can do, however, is to knot for first position. The Bowlers are now in fifth place.

Regular league play is slated to end next Sunday.

Swedish Youth Not Eligible

Portland - (UP) - A Swedish youth who was granted free tuition to Grant High school will not be eligible for high school basketball here, the Oregon School Activities association said Tuesday.

Orjan Suidan was brought here by Jim McGregor, former local coach who now is mentor of a Swedish national team. Tom Pigott, OSAA official, said that although no official ruling had been made the association had acted negatively on a similar case.

He said Suidan did not come under the rules of exchange students which would permit a newcomer to take part in athletics.

Salem Finalist In State Tussle

Corvallis - (UP) - Salem got shutout pitching from two hurlers Tuesday to advance to the finals of the Oregon State Softball association tournament here against unbeaten Eugene.

Salem defeated Corvallis 1-0 as Marion Craft pitched a one-hitter and then blanked Mt. Angel 6-0 behind the one-hit hurling of Norv Billflicker.

Salem meets Eugene tonight at 7 p.m. If Salem wins the two teams play another game. If Eugene wins, it's all over.

BOWLING

ROXY ANN LEAGUE	W.	L.
Standings:
Groceries	4	0
Med-Ply	3	1
Hopkins Richfield	3	1
Pacific Motor Truck	3	1
Baker's Molding	2	2
Graham's Electric	2	2
Taylor-Salade Ins.	1	3
Coca-Cola	1	3
Harrison Electric	1	3
Team Four	0	4

Results:
Med-Ply 3 (Fischer 548) 2214;
Taylor-Salade 1 (Lilly 470) 2165;
Groceries 4 (Van Austral 300) 2089;
Team Four 0 (Carr 412) 1686;
Coca-Cola 1 (Havice 440) 2023;
Hopkins 3 (Freemyer 415) 2065;
Baker's 2 (Baker 483) 2008;
Graham 2 (O'Connor 450) 2094;
Harrison 3 (Perry 462) 2021;
PMT 3 (Phillips 434) 2050.

Olson Records Victory by TKO

Fresno, Calif. - (UP) - Carl (Bobo) Olson scored a fifth round technical knockout over George Kartalian, of Syracuse, N. Y., Tuesday night in a one-sided light heavyweight bout.

Olson, a former middleweight champion, displayed some of his form while confining his attack to the mid-section. He scored at will toward the end and won every round on all cards.

Referee Frank Manfredi halted the bout after Kartalian went down for a nine-count, the only knockdown of the fight.

Billings Nine, Roseburg Clash In Legion Final

Roseburg - (UP) - Billings meets Roseburg tonight for the regional American Legion junior baseball title here.

Billings eliminated Seattle with an 8-2 win Tuesday night. The Montana team will have to knock off Roseburg twice to win the right to enter the sectional tournament starting at Bend this week end.

TEEN-AGERS VIE

Portsmouth, Va. - (UP) - One-hundred teenage golf stars opened competition today for the 14th International Jaycees championship with two southerners and a Yankee sharing the favorite's role.

Ronnie Geringer, Newport News, Va., who earned medal honors with a 36-hole score of 139, one under par, faced tough competition from Maury Finkelstein of Savannah, Ga., Shortridge of St. Paul, Minn., with 145.

Francis Could Go Whole Tilt

Portland - (UP) - Coach Vince Lombardi of the Green Bay Packers indicated today that Joe Francis may remain at quarterback for the entire game with the Philadelphia Eagles Saturday night in Multnomah stadium.

"This will be Joe's game as he shows us the stuff," Lombardi said.

Francis, former Oregon State star, will be up against the Eagles' Norm Van Brocklin, who played his college football at Oregon.

CANNON SERENADE

Aquebogue, N. Y. - (UP) - Two Long Island farmers have given up trying to scare birds away from their fields with scarecrows or shotguns. They now use a cannon. Stanley Kernsnowski and Henry Worm picked up "zon" noise-making devices-made in Holland-consisting of a tank of bottled gas, a built-in timing device, a pressure chamber and a large horn to amplify the explosions. The blasts aren't big, but they sound big.

American motorists consumed a record 59 billion gallons of gasoline in 1958, one and a half billion gallons more than in 1957, the previous high.

There are 4,007 different pieces in the body of one particular 1958-model four-door sedan.

Portlanders Win From Vancouver

United Press International
The Portland Beavers defeated Vancouver, 10-4, Tuesday night to provide Salt Lake City with a little leeway in the Pacific Coast league pennant scramble.

The loss dropped Vancouver 1 1/2 games behind the first-place Bees, who shaded Phoenix, 3-2.

George Freese and Len Neal both hit home runs for Portland, Freese's coming in the third inning with two aboard. Dave Melton drove in three runs for the winners.

Marty Mutyna went the route for the Beavers to register his 13th win against eight setbacks. The loss went to Mountie started George Bamberger, leaving him with a 6-9 mark.

LINESCORES:
Vancouver .001 010 020-4 9 3
Portland .100 030 240-10 12 2
Bamberger, Pagliaroni (7), Luebke (7), Johnson (8) and Zimmerman; Kulyna, Besana (7) and Neal.

Spokane .000 110 000-2 6 0
Seattle .000 100 000-1 7 1
Fowler and Sherry; Osteen and Bevan.

San Diego .010 104 100-7 12 1
Sacramento .000 002 000-2 8 2
Briggs and A. Jones; Brown, Davis (7), Fox (9) and Dalrymple.

Salt Lake .100 010 010-3 4 0
Phoenix .100 000 100-2 5 2
Pepper and Brockell; Choate, Hyman (9) and Barnes.

Good Hustle At Crater

Central Point - Pretty good hustle, even during calisthenics, has been noted on the Crater High school football squad in drills so far.

Coach Leonard Warren said that 35 to 40 players have turned out for the varsity crew. There are another 22 on the freshman squad. It had been planned to have the frosh turned out later but it was decided that the additional turnouts could be handled, Warren reported.

He said that the boys now freshmen would be a big help to the Comets next year when few seniors will be available.

It's strictly fundamentals and conditioning so far in the practices at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. Work is mostly on machines and dummies with very little live contact. The Comets will not workout on Saturday this week, according to Warren.

The big intrasquad scrimmage is set for Friday, Sept. 4.

With the exception of Darrell Williamson, a tackle, who is expected to turn out shortly, all eligible lettermen from last year are on hand.

Drag Race On Sunday

Drag racing fans from many sections of Oregon and northern California are expected to converge on Medford this Sunday, Aug. 30, for the Roseburg Disaster Benefit drag races sponsored by Southern Oregon Timing association.

All proceeds from the meet will go to a Roseburg relief agency to help rebuild the city following the blast and fire that leveled several blocks of the downtown section three weeks ago.

Competition will be held in all regularly scheduled classes. For many contestants this Sunday marks the last opportunity to tune their engines and test their driving skill before the Centennial Gas Championship drag races, being held on the Camp White strip Sept. 12-13. Some of the top contenders on the west coast are slated for competition during the two day championship meet.

Time trials will commence at 9 a.m. with the eliminations slated for after lunch.

U.S. Hurting on Eve Of Pan Am Rivalry

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

Chicago - (UP) - The United States was hurting in more ways than one today, on the eve of the opening of the third Pan American games.

They were hurting prestige-wise and also athletic-wise, the latter being the reason these games were inaugurated back in 1951.

In the prestige league, the U. S. way of doing things wasn't exactly what the doctor ordered so far as most of the other 23 North and South American nations competing in the games were concerned.

The grumblings, which first started when the vanguard of almost 1,700 athletes from the competing countries outside the United States arrived last week, were increasing.

Chances Decreasing
Meanwhile, the U.S. chances of spread-eagling the field athletically were decreasing.

Injuries and late arrivals figured to keep the U. S. team from full strength.

In the decathlon, in which the U. S. was counting on sweeping the gold, silver and bronze medals, it looked like Mike Herman of New York university would be lost to the host forces. He suffered an ankle injury in practice and the U. S. team trainers said there was little chance he would be able to compete.

In the pole vault, Don Bragg of Villanova had an infected heel and there was doubt whether he would be in the best of condition when the athletic competition of these games opens on Friday a day after the formal official opening ceremonies.

Added to that was the fact that at least 20 of the 404 members of the U. S. team still were absent and were not scheduled to appear until Friday because of summer school examinations or other commitments. So lacking the practice usually mapped out for the athletes, there was a question of whether they would be in top shape.

Despite it all, however, the U. S. still was heavily favored to win the unofficial team title of the games, expected to serve as a prelude to the U. S. chances in the 1960 Olympics at Rome.

In the grumbling department, the U. S. itself was involved. It seems that officials of the games forgot to notify all of the U. S. delegation that the official flag raising ceremony for the U. S. quarters at the housing village on the University of Chicago campus was scheduled to be held Tuesday afternoon. Several of the U. S. executives showed up, were left standing in the hot sun until it was decided to re-schedule the flag raising ceremony for 11 a.m. today so all U. S. officials could be present.

question of whether they would be in top shape.

Despite it all, however, the U. S. still was heavily favored to win the unofficial team title of the games, expected to serve as a prelude to the U. S. chances in the 1960 Olympics at Rome.

In the grumbling department, the U. S. itself was involved. It seems that officials of the games forgot to notify all of the U. S. delegation that the official flag raising ceremony for the U. S. quarters at the housing village on the University of Chicago campus was scheduled to be held Tuesday afternoon. Several of the U. S. executives showed up, were left standing in the hot sun until it was decided to re-schedule the flag raising ceremony for 11 a.m. today so all U. S. officials could be present.

In the pole vault, Don Bragg of Villanova had an infected heel and there was doubt whether he would be in the best of condition when the athletic competition of these games opens on Friday a day after the formal official opening ceremonies.

Added to that was the fact that at least 20 of the 404 members of the U. S. team still were absent and were not scheduled to appear until Friday because of summer school examinations or other commitments. So lacking the practice usually mapped out for the athletes, there was a question of whether they would be in top shape.

Despite it all, however, the U. S. still was heavily favored to win the unofficial team title of the games, expected to serve as a prelude to the U. S. chances in the 1960 Olympics at Rome.

In the grumbling department, the U. S. itself was involved. It seems that officials of the games forgot to notify all of the U. S. delegation that the official flag raising ceremony for the U. S. quarters at the housing village on the University of Chicago campus was scheduled to be held Tuesday afternoon. Several of the U. S. executives showed up, were left standing in the hot sun until it was decided to re-schedule the flag raising ceremony for 11 a.m. today so all U. S. officials could be present.

In the pole vault, Don Bragg of Villanova had an infected heel and there was doubt whether he would be in the best of condition when the athletic competition of these games opens on Friday a day after the formal official opening ceremonies.

Added to that was the fact that at least 20 of the 404 members of the U. S. team still were absent and were not scheduled to appear until Friday because of summer school examinations or other commitments. So lacking the practice usually mapped out for the athletes, there was a question of whether they would be in top shape.

Despite it all, however, the U. S. still was heavily favored to win the unofficial team title of the games, expected to serve as a prelude to the U. S. chances in the 1960 Olympics at Rome.

In the grumbling department, the U. S. itself was involved. It seems that officials of the games forgot to notify all of the U. S. delegation that the official flag raising ceremony for the U. S. quarters at the housing village on the University of Chicago campus was scheduled to be held Tuesday afternoon. Several of the U. S. executives showed up, were left standing in the hot sun until it was decided to re-schedule the flag raising ceremony for 11 a.m. today so all U. S. officials could be present.

In the pole vault, Don Bragg of Villanova had an infected heel and there was doubt whether he would be in the best of condition when the athletic competition of these games opens on Friday a day after the formal official opening ceremonies.

Added to that was the fact that at least 20 of the 404 members of the U. S. team still were absent and were not scheduled to appear until Friday because of summer school examinations or other commitments. So lacking the practice usually mapped out for the athletes, there was a question of whether they would be in top shape.

Despite it all, however, the U. S. still was heavily favored to win the unofficial team title of the games, expected to serve as a prelude to the U. S. chances in the 1960 Olympics at Rome.

In the grumbling department, the U. S. itself was involved. It seems that officials of the games forgot to notify all of the U. S. delegation that the official flag raising ceremony for the U. S. quarters at the housing village on the University of Chicago campus was scheduled to be held Tuesday afternoon. Several of the U. S. executives showed up, were left standing in the hot sun until it was decided to re-schedule the flag raising ceremony for 11 a.m. today so all U. S. officials could be present.

In the pole vault, Don Bragg of Villanova had an infected heel and there was doubt whether he would be in the best of condition when the athletic competition of these games opens on Friday a day after the formal official opening ceremonies.

Added to that was the fact that at least 20 of the 404 members of the U. S. team still were absent and were not scheduled to appear until Friday because of summer school examinations or other commitments. So lacking the practice usually mapped out for the athletes, there was a question of whether they would be in top shape.

Despite it all, however, the U. S. still was heavily favored to win the unofficial team title of the games, expected to serve as a prelude to the U. S. chances in the 1960 Olympics at Rome.

In the grumbling department, the U. S. itself was involved. It seems that officials of the games forgot to notify all of the U. S. delegation that the official flag raising ceremony for the U. S. quarters at the housing village on the University of Chicago campus was scheduled to be held Tuesday afternoon. Several of the U. S. executives showed up, were left standing in the hot sun until it was decided to re-schedule the flag raising ceremony for 11 a.m. today so all U. S. officials could be present.

In the pole vault, Don Bragg of Villanova had an infected heel and there was doubt whether he would be in the best of condition when the athletic competition of these games opens on Friday a day after the formal official opening ceremonies.

Added to that was the fact that at least 20 of the 404 members of the U. S. team still were absent and were not scheduled to appear until Friday because of summer school examinations or other commitments. So lacking the practice usually mapped out for the athletes, there was a

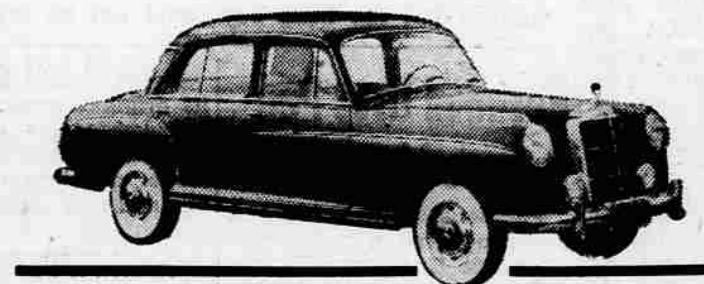

You Can Win a

MERCEDES-BENZ CAR PLUS $1,000⁰⁰ CASH

MERCEDES-BENZ

These prizes will both go to the person who bowls the first 300 game in sanctioned league play at ROXY ANN LANES.

ROXY ANN LANES will offer this terrific 300 game bonus throughout the entire league season. $1,000.00 cash prize is through the courtesy of Rogue Equipment Sales and Central Market. Register now at ROXY ANN LANES or clip and send the registration blank in this ad. CAR ON DISPLAY ON ROXY ANN LANES CONCOURSE

Courtesy of DeLeigh Motors

ROXY ANN LANES

2375 South Pacific Hwy.

SP 2-7171

FREE BOWLING!

All day Saturday, August 29 Roxy Ann Lanes will feature FREE bowling for everyone. No costs -- you can bowl all day FREE. All new A.M.F. equipment has been installed and now it's up to you to help break it in.

WATCH FOR THE GRAND OPENING SOON

League Play will begin approximately the 2nd week in September. Plan now to be a part of this bowling fun. Fill out the blank below and send it in. Supervised playroom facilities for children during scheduled women's league play.

To: ROXY ANN LANES
2375 So. Pacific Highway
Medford, Oregon (SP 2-7171)

From: _____
(Name)

(Address) (Phone)

I AM INTERESTED IN

- Starting a Bowling Club
- Husband-Wife Team
- Joining a Fall League
- Father-Son Team
- Joining a Junior League
- Mother-Daughter Team
- Mixed Doubles Team
- Bowling Instructions

Remarks: (Best Day, Times, etc.) _____