

Among the guests at the annual tea of Presbyterian women, held last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Winton, Agate road, was the Rev. G. Robert Jacks, new assistant pastor of First Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Jacks. They are pictured here with Miss Elizabeth Burr, one of the tea hostesses who poured during the afternoon. The beautiful tea service is an heirloom in Miss Burr's family. About 150 guests attended the tea.

Women Give Large Tea On Tuesday

About 150 guests attended the annual summer tea given by Presbyterian women Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Winton on Agate road. The event was sponsored this year by the new Woman's association of Westminster Presbyterian church, and the Woman's association of First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. G. L. Hauptert was general chairman, and she was assisted by a large committee of women.

Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Kenneth Denman, president of the Westminster association; Mrs. George Flanagan, president of the First Presbyterian association; Mrs. Grace Collins, Miss Elizabeth Burr, Mrs. L. C. Bates and Mrs. W. F. Roemer.

An arrangement of summer blossoms which centered the tea table and others in the rooms of the Winton home were the work of Mrs. Winton, Mrs. Hauptert and Mrs. Charles W. Lemery.

The guest book used for the event was sent from Jerusalem by Mrs. Lloyd Neilsen who is now traveling abroad.

Entertainment was provided by the Shakespearean festival singers, the Misses Sabine Phelps, Willean Ambrose, Diamond Tomaras and Mira Frohnmayer, the latter of Medford. John Lusk provided organ music.

Proceeds from the tea, as in past years, will go to a fund for the purchase of drugs and medical supplies for Presbyterian foreign mission stations.

Mrs. Kenneth Denman (at left) was one of the hostesses who poured for the annual tea of Presbyterian women, held last Tuesday afternoon at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Winton, Agate road. Mrs. Denman, who is president of the Women's association, Westminster Presbyterian church, is shown here with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Donald K. Denman, the former Sandra Daley of Bath, Maine. The young couple will leave soon for Salem where Mr. Denman will attend law school at Willamette university and Mrs. Denman will teach home economics at Parrish Junior High school.

Annual Golf Tournament Heightens Social Tempo

The tempo of social life in the Rogue valley takes on a higher pitch each year during Labor day week end. Annually this week end is chosen for the Southern Oregon Golf championship tournament, played at Rogue Valley Country club, and the event brings scores of visitors here from various parts of the west. Social events include a number of cocktail parties.

The tournament entries number 374 this year, and many of these men and women visiting players are accompanied by husbands, wives and families.

Women golfers of the valley and other Rogue Valley Country club members look forward to the annual luncheon during the tournament. This year's luncheon will be held Saturday, September 5, at 12:30 o'clock in the main dining room for feminine visitors, both women playing in the tournament and wives of out-of-town men contestants. Members of the Women's Golf association will be hostesses, and all local women members are encouraged to attend in order to welcome the visitors. Reservations may be made by calling the clubhouse.

Mrs. Fred Conrad, chairman of the Women's Golf association, will preside at the luncheon.

Among the visitors expected for the tournament are Mr. and Mrs. Bob McKeivitt, Ocean Lake, Ore. They will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ranny Smith, 1501 South Whitman avenue, and Mr. McKeivitt will play. The visitors are to arrive Tuesday.

Also registered for the tournament is Phil Bladine, McMinnville. He and Mrs. Bladine are expected Tuesday, and they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Teutsch, Ardmore avenue.

Thursday, August 27, the women held a "flag tourney." Winners were: A group, Mrs. Thomas Culbertson; B group, Mrs. B. D. Mitchell; C group, Mrs. Richard Knight; D group, Mrs. Stuart McQueen; 9-hole group, Mrs. William Cowling.

Party Honors Officer, Wife

Lt. and Mrs. Darrel Brown were honored August 19 by an open house at the home of Lieutenant Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin L. Brown, 1203 Queen Ann avenue. The couple left Thursday for England where Lieutenant Brown will be stationed with the U.S. Air Force.

Assisting Mrs. Orrin Brown were Mrs. Kenneth Brown and Mrs. Wilbur Arnold.

Pouring punch and coffee were Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Victor Sether, Mrs. Merton Lyster, Mrs. Elliott Becken, Mrs. Neil Davidson, Mrs. Ethel Schultz and Mrs. Helen Hemphill.

Visitors Attend Festival Plays

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Top sides, Old Stage road, were Mr. Carpenter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Carmel, Calif.

Also here was Mrs. Bernard Van Horn, Portland, a niece of both couples. The visitors all attended performances of the Oregon Shakespearean festival in Ashland.

Parties Honor Molly Walker; Rites Sunday

Miss Molly Walker, bride-elect of Larry Lee Kerr, has been honored by several bridal showers recently. Miss Walker is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. Paul Walker, 2132 Dellwood avenue. Mr. Kerr's parents are Mr. and Mrs. David Kerr, 486 South Mountain avenue, Ashland.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice honored the bride-elect at a miscellaneous shower and patio party at her home on Saginaw drive. The gifts were hidden throughout the house and each guest brought an unlabeled can of food.

Mrs. Charles Culmer entertained Miss Walker and several friends at a luncheon at the Culmer home at 612 Altamont street, Ashland. Miss Carol Culmer was assistant hostess for the event.

Attending were Miss Janet Jamison, Miss Pat Rushton, Miss Charlotte Ritley, Miss Carol Morris and Miss Sylvia Winchell.

A miscellaneous shower August 15 at the home of Mrs. Wayne Stine, Carpenter Hill road, also honored the Medford girl. Mrs. Brad Morris, Mrs. Stine's daughter, was co-hostess for the event. Miss LuWayne Stine dressed in Japanese costume, greeted guests. Tea was served when they arrived and Oriental decorations were used throughout the rooms.

Miss Walker and Mr. Kerr will be married in a ceremony here Sunday, September 6.

Group Attends Tacoma Wedding

A large group of relatives and friends of Brent Carter were in Tacoma last week end to attend the wedding of Miss Beverly Roberts to the Medford man. The rites took place August 22 at 8 o'clock at the Little Church of the Prairie.

Among those traveling north for the event were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Carter, his sister, Miss Janet Carter, two aunts, Miss Ellen Carter and Mrs. Richard C. Keen, Chula Vista, Calif., Miss Margaret Morrison, Robert Sevcik, Glen Peterson, Gordon DeArmond, Crescent Lake, Jerry Young, Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. Duke Anderson and Ted Braun.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mickelson, 306 King street, and son, David, returned recently from a 10-day vacation in Washington state where they visited relatives in Port Angeles. They also visited in Astoria.

Maddux Family Here From Texas

Mrs. Sam Maddux and three children, Michael, James and Sara, have arrived in Medford from Texas and will make their home here for the next several months. Maj. Gen. Maddux, who is to join his family here soon for a visit, has been assigned to the United Nations Armistice commission in Korea and expects to be in that country for about nine months.

The Maddux family has taken the home of Col. and Mrs. William H. Bartlett on Valley View drive.

Mrs. Maddux is the daughter of J. E. Collins, 164 Black Oak drive.

Mrs. Robert Sly and children Judy and Jimmy, have returned to their home near Creswell, Ore., after a visit here with Mrs. Sly's mother, Mrs. Robert Hammond, 509 Park street. Mrs. Sly is the former Virginia Hammond.

Dinner Series Given by Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Adams were hosts Friday and Saturday for two dinner parties. The Adams invited guests to their home on Thompson creek.

Both evenings dinner was served on the terrace, and the garden and pool were lighted especially for the occasion.

The Adams plan two additional dinner parties for September 5 and 6, and these also will be at their home. Mrs. Adams' mother, Mrs. Guy Fenner, is assisting with the dinners. Guests number

Medford Family Returns to City

Mrs. Edward H. Collins and children, David, Barbara and Julie, have returned to their home on White Oak road after spending several weeks at Gull Lake, Alberta, Canada, summer home of Mrs. Collins family.

Mr. Collins went to Canada by air and joined the family for a time and they then toured British Columbia before returning to Medford.
