

Dugan-Spencer Ceremony Held in Baker Church

A wedding of interest to valley residents was held August 22 in St. Francis Cathedral, Baker, Ore., when Miss Suzanne Patricia Spencer of that city became the bride of Timothy J. Dugan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dugan, Valleyview. Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Spencer are the bride's parents.

The Rev. Thomas J. Moore officiated at the 11 o'clock morning nuptial mass attended by 250 relatives and friends. Mrs. Shirley Crane played the organ wedding music and accompanied Joseph Bowen, soloist. Gladiolus in pastel shades decorated the church.

The bride wore a floor length white organza gown trimmed with sequins and pearls. The skirt formed a chapel train and her fingertip length veil was held by a cap of sequins and pearls. Her pearl earrings were a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of red rosebuds and stephanotis. Mr. Spencer escorted his daughter to the altar.

Miss Cheryl Spencer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Celeste Spencer, Miss Jan Spencer, both sisters of the bride, Miss Judith Atteberry, all Baker, cousin of the bride, Miss Mary Kay Dugan, Ashland, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Margaret Morris, Haines, Ore. They wore embroidered Nile green nylon frocks with matching head-dresses and carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums and white daisies tied with green ribbons.

Flower girls were Kim Spencer, Baker, sister of the bride, and Kathy Clark, cousin of the bridegroom. Gregory Spencer, Baker, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. Patrick Dugan, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and seating the guests were Timothy Atteberry, cousin of the bride; Brian Spencer, brother of the bride, both Baker, and John Walsh, Medford.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed in the parish hall of the church Mrs. Spencer wore an embroidered beige linen dress with feather hat. Mrs. Dugan chose a sheath dress in copper-tone with overskirt and feather hat. Their corsages were of white carnations and orchids.

Miss Barbara Alfrey, Portland, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Raymond Spencer, Boise, Idaho, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Clifton J. Windle, Lakeview, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. T. Ned Thomas, Baker, presided at the punch bowls.

Mrs. R. T. Alfrey, Portland, and Mrs. J. F. Clark, Medford, aunts of the bride and bridegroom, respectively, poured the coffee. Miss Karen Windle, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Jessie Chambers, aunt of the bride, was at the gift table.

Following the reception the couple traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling a green suit with the rose corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of St. Francis Academy. Mr. Dugan attended St. Mary's High school and both attended the University of Portland. The couple plan to make their home in Talent until he resumes his studies at the university.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mrs. Herman Gillette, Seaside; R. T. Alfrey, Portland; Ardis Alfrey, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sherlock, Portland; Mr. Windle and David Windles, Lakeview; Mr. Spencer and Scott Spencer, Boise, Idaho; and relatives of the bridegroom, Mrs. Henry J. Devaney, grandmother, J. F. Clark, uncle, both Medford; Mr. and Mrs. McDonald C. Devaney, San Francisco, uncle and aunt; Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Howarth, St. Helens, uncle and aunt; Miss Helen Dugan, Miss Margaret Dugan, both Medford, Miss Mildred Dugan, Walla Walla, Wash., all aunts; and cousins, Miss Josephine Whitman and son, Mike, Medford; Eugene Allen, Niagara Falls, New York; and Mrs. Ralph Buck, Seattle.

The evening prior to the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Dugan were hosts for a rehearsal buffet supper at the Spencer home for members of the wedding party.
