ILLINOIS VALLEY Training Meeting Set

By MARGARET M. CROWL

Cave Junction—There will be a project training meeting for HEU leaders in the Legion auxiliary rooms in Cave Junction Wednesday, Sept. 2 from 10:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. Miss Rizpah Douglas will have charge of the meeting and will present a program on the uses of the deep freeze and how to prepare foods for the deep freeze.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Duhaugon, accompanied by their daughter, Collette, and son, Barry, arrived Sunday from San Mateo, Calif., to spend the week with Alice Ott and mother, Mary Jacobs.

Mrs. Gene Pulley of O'Brien entered the hospital for major surgery last week. Caring for her family while she is away is her sister, Marion Seisers, and her mother, Mrs. Norma Ward, of Sacramento, Calif.

Blue Star Mothers met at the World War I hall Tuesday, Aug. 18. Zelda Foster presided.

Edna Davis was elected to fill the unexpired term of Nila McKinnon as secretary.

It was voted to enter a "Blue Star Mother's Float" in the Labor Day parade at Cave Junction. A planning committee was appointed to plan and prepare the float. On the committee are Zelda Foster, Mable Ramsey, Hazel Slanaker and Nina Weber.

Institute Slated At Yreka High

Yreka—The Siskiyou County Teachers institute will be held at Yreka High school auditorium starting at 9:15 a. m. Tuesday, Sept. 8, Ken Young, director of curriculum, Siskiyou county, has announced.

The theme, "Science, Research and Effective Communication," has been selected because of the current interest in the subjects, he said.

Principal speakers for the opening morning session will be Dr. Irving R. Melbo, dean of the school of education, University of Southern California, Los Angeles.

Other panelists include Dr. Irvin C. Futter, professor of education, San Francisco State college; Thomas L. Harris, legislative representative and consultant, California Teachers legislative council, Sacramento; Miss Susan Thom, American Field Service Exchange student from Dunsmaur High school to Germany in 1938; and Dr. Paul Beal, professor of foreign languages, Willamette university, Salem.

During the afternoon session, 11 study groups to which a number of Siskiyou county residents have been invited, will discuss implications of the morning presentations.

Dr. Hugh Bell, professor of psychology, Chico State col. lege will speak during the afternoon session. An evening program is being planned for the newly formed Siskiyou County School Board association.

Grange News...

Roxy Ann Grange

The regular meeting of the Roxy Ann Grange was held Aug. 21. R. J. Rickey, master, presided.

A few officers were absent but were filled in by other Grange members.

Reports on the HEC meeting was given, which was held at Mrs. Ray Offord's home, assisted by Betty Hall. Refreshments were served after the HEC meeting. The next HEC meeting will be at Minnie Pameron home, assisted by Willie Sims.

Insurance chairman Roscoe Roberts reported on car insurance. Mable Christenson brought the vases that were on the display table.

State Grange lecturer Victor Croxton and Mrs. Croxton were visitors from the Sams Valley Grange.

After the close of the meeting a program was put on by the Grange lecturer, which consisted of several musical selections by the Daumes boys, several poems by the state lecturer, a reading by Madge Nolen on the water supply in Oregon, and a reading by Marie Phinister.

Refreshments were served by the serving committee.

Astoria—Betty Morris, 18, has been chosen queen of the 39th annual Astoria Regatta, which runs through today.

Salem—Kickoff day for the annual observance of "Red Hat Days" in Oregon will be Sept. 25.

Members of the Nomads include vocalists Ted Lawson, Jim Clark and George Koch, with Jim Collins on drums, Buzz Goodman on bass and Lynn Offord on piano.

Present plans call for the group to drive to Salem by private automobile and to return the same day. Expenses for the trip will be paid by the Kiwanis County Fair, officials stated.

Their appearance was arranged by Howard Maple, manager of the state fair. The Nomads will appear as a part of the 4:30 p. m. stage show during the opening day of the fair, Sept. 5.
