Stewart Schroeder, 19-year-old Oregon State collegian and ex-Medford High linker, made a blazing bid yesterday for medalist laurels in the Southern Oregon Golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club.

Young Schroeder, who played for the OSC Rooks last spring, bolstered his cause with an eagle two on No. 7 hole and stroked a blistering three under par 69 in qualifying play at the Medford links. His fine tally topped home club entrants and set a tough card for visiting golfers to

Atkinson, Yost Gain National

Portland — (UP) — Two Portlanders and two golfers from Seattle have nailed down berths in the United States Amateur Golf championships beginning Sept. 14 in Colorado Springs, Colo.

The local linksmen, Bob Atkinson and Dick Yost, joined Jim Bourne and Ted Naff in qualifying for the four berths allotted in the sectional rounds of 36 holes at Riverside here Tuesday.

Atkinson was the only man to finish the double round in sub par figures, 69-73-141, three under par. Bourne was second at 72-72-144, even par. Yost ended with 73-74-147 and Naff claimed the final spot with 73-76-149. A field of 22 finished the play.

Alternates
U. S. Golf Association representative F. J. Heikemper said alternate berths would be given in the following order:
Tom Liljeholm, Rose City; Dan Morgan, Seattle; Jerry Cundari, Portland Golf Club and Clarence Soowers, Royal Oaks.

Each of the alternates finished with 151.

United Press International
Four members of this year's victorious U. S. Walker Cup team, led by Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N. C., passed their qualifying exams Tuesday for the forthcoming National Amateur golf championship.

In addition to Patton, young Ward Wettauer of Buffalo, N. Y., Bill Hyndman of Philadelphia and Dr. Frank (Bud) Taylor of Pomona, Calif., also earned berths in the 1959 tournament, which will be played at the Broadmoor Golf Club, Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 14-19.

Ward Automatic
Four other Walker Cuppers — Harvie Ward of San Francisco, Deane Beman of Bethesda, Md., Tommy Aaron of Gainesville, Ga., and defending champion Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City, Okla., were awarded automatic berths in the 200-man field.

Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, the ninth member of the squad which defeated Britain's best amateurs earlier this year in Scotland, is expected to join his teammates in the starting lineup when he completes his qualifying rounds today at Cincinnati.

He posted an opening round 71 before rain chased him off the course Tuesday.

Two former Walker Cuppers — Arnold Blum of Macon, Ga., and Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., also turned in splendid rounds.

Killebrew Hits Fenway Homer

Boston — (UP) — It took young Harmon Killebrew most of the season to do it but the Washington Senators slugger made it a good one.

The 23-year-old Killebrew hit his 39th home run Tuesday, against the Boston Red Sox, to tie him with Cleveland's Rocky Colavito for the American league leadership. Though he had hit at least two in every other park in the league, it was his first at Fenway Park.

Moyer in Trim For 10-Rounder

Portland — (UP) — Denny Moyer, 19-year-old welterweight contender, was reported in top shape today for his 10-round bout here Thursday night with Paddy DeMarco, former lightweight champ from Brooklyn.

It is Moyer's first fight since he lost a title bout to champion Don Jordan here July 30.

DeMarco has confined his bouts here for five days punching the bag. He said he was in top shape from daily boxing in New York.

try to better in the men's division today.

Mrs. Helen Davies, RV club champ and seven times SO winner, paced home course lady qualifiers yesterday with an 80, four over women's par, and Fred Langley, Grants Pass, headed senior entries who toiled the links.

Out-of-town contestants in men's, women's and senior men's divisions were shooting their 18-hole qualifying rounds throughout today. Match play in the tourney, 31st annual one, opens Thursday and finals will be on Monday, Sept. 7, Labor Day. Members of the Rogue Valley club and residents of the valley qualified in advance with local men and women aiming for championship flight positions playing their rounds yesterday. Seniors, who wished, also qualified yesterday.

Jim Sheldon, RVCC club champion, was close behind Schroeder Tuesday with two-under par 70. Each of the two had four under standard 33s on the first nine holes. Schroeder with his eagle and two birds and Sheldon with five birds and one bogey.

On the back side Schroeder three-putted on No. 11 hole, hit the ball over No. 12 green and muffed a chip shot on No. 15 for bogies. He put in birds on No. 14 and 18 holes. The collegian reported that he socked the ball well during his round, hitting his irons better than usual and putting well. He reached all greens on the front nine in regulation count.

Sheldon three-putted No. 11 and missed a two-foot putt on No. 15 for bogies. Otherwise, he parred on the return nine. He missed only one green on the out 'nine and said that he hit the ball just about as well as he'd ever want to hit on that half of the tour.

Other men's cards yesterday included an even par 72 by six-times champion Eddie Simmons, 74s by Dr. William Miller, Jay Brown and John Jensen, and 76s by Dr. Bruce Stanley, Clayton Lewis, Bob Phillips, Dr. N. J. Wilson and Carl Schmidt. Justin Smith Jr., and Lee Flink stroked 77s and Nelson Gallant, Bill Clark, Dick Knight and Owen Thomas, 78s.

Another with a 78 was Dr. Robert Huck, who tied at 71 last year with Alan Holmes for medalist honors. Holmes, who won the 1958 trophy play-off with Buck, had an 82 yesterday.

Hammond, Cavalli 85s
Dom Provost Jr., 1954 champion, had a 92 yesterday, which more than likely keeps him out of the championship flight for the second straight year.

In the women's qualifying yesterday, Mrs. Maxine Hammond had an 85 as did an out-of-towner who played, Mrs. Bill Cavalli, King City, Calif. Mrs. C. B. Collins had an 88 and Mrs. William Miller an 89.

Senior cards included Larry Butler and George Stacey, 78s, Leland Clark, 79, Jack Mitchell, 80, and W. L. Hallmark, Roseburg, 81.

Two defending champions, Marvin Clark, Grants Pass, in the senior, and Miss Sue DeVoe, took their automatic No. 2 seeded spots and did not try for medalist trophies. Lynn Creason, 1958 men's division titlist, had not been heard from but was expected to do the same today.

37s Entries
The tourney field yesterday showed a 376 total with 256 in the men's division, 72 in the ladies' and 48 in the senior men's.

Matches Thursday will be in the men's championship and fifth through eighth flights, in the women's title and second flights and in all senior flights. Men's championship, first through fourth, plus the ninth flights, vie on Friday along with women's fourth and lower brackets. Other entrants have a Friday rest. Play in all flights is scheduled Saturday through Monday.

The entry list showed golfers from 27 California communities.

White Sox, Dodgers, Braves Encounter Spoiler Troubles

By FRED DOW
United Press International
Take it from the White Sox, Dodgers and Braves — a "spoiler" is a pennant contender's worst enemy in September.

The true "spoiler" almost always is a fellow who'll have to pay his way into the World Series in October but is happy to spoil the party for the contenders. And, more often than not, he's a pretty ordinary performer except where his favorite opponent is involved.

Jim Bunning of the Tigers, Larry Jackson of the Cardinals and Don Cardwell of the Phillies all pretty much fit that description today — much to the chagrin of the contending White Sox, Dodgers and Braves.

Bunning, rocking along on a so-so season, extended his career mastery over the White Sox to 10-2 Tuesday night when his three-hitter gave the Tigers a 4-0 win over the American league leaders. The loss snapped the White Sox's five-game winning streak and sliced their lead over the idle second-place Cleveland Indians to five games.

Jackson, a "500-pitcher" since he joined the Cardinals in 1955 and struggling to beat that mark all this season, raised his career mark against the Dodgers to 12-5 with a two-hitter that gave St. Louis a 3-0 win. The defeat dropped the Dodgers 1½ games behind the idle first-place San Francisco Giants and to within two games of the fourth-place Pittsburgh Pirates.

Cardwell, a 23-year-old righthander had won one game up to July 1 but has been knocking off contenders with happy abandon ever since. He's won a mere nine games this season — and seven of them have been against the four top contenders. He picked off the Braves Tuesday night pitching a six-hitter and hitting a two-run ninth-inning homer for the Phillies' 5-3 victory.

Harmon Killebrew hit his 39th homer as the Washington Senators downed the Boston Red Sox, 7-4, and Whitey Ford and Ryne Duren combined in a seven-hitter as the New York Yankees whipped the Baltimore Orioles, 5-0, in other games.

Harvey Kuenn hit a double and three singles to raise his average to .356 and lead Detroit's 12-hit attack on 14-game winner Bob Shaw. Bunning, meanwhile, walked two batters in the first inning but did not allow a White Sox runner to reach second as he struck out eight the rest of the way. It was his first shut-out of the season.

Jackson's second shutout of the year ended Johnny Podres' four-game winning streak and prevented the Dodgers from moving to within a half game of the Giants. Ken Boyer, who stretched his hitting streak to 20 games, and Alex Grammas homered for the Cardinals.

Cardwell, who had made only one single in 44 previous at-bats, homered off Bob Buhl in the ninth to hand the Braves their fifth loss in eight games. The Phillies had taken the lead with three runs in the sixth inning but Joe Adcock homered in the bottom of the frame to tie the score.

Killebrew tied Cleveland's Rocky Colavito for the American league home run lead and also completed the circuit of homering in every park with a 380-foot clout off Boston's Al Schroll. The Senators clinched the decision in the eighth when Billy Consolo singled home one run and Roy Sievers doubled home two more.

The Yankees sent Ford off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning with a salvo of five singles and a sacrifice fly against 20-year old Jerry Walker. The little lefty, who won his 14th game, was lifted in favor of Duren when the first two Baltimore batters singled in the seventh.

Ring Mag Warns Ray

New York — (UP) — Ring magazine today warned Sugar Ray Robinson to defend his world middleweight crown against Gene Fullmer, brand new National Boxing association champion and "fighter of the month," or risk being regarded as a retired champion.

In its latest ratings today, the magazine continued to recognize Robinson as world ruler but with misgivings.

Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, was designated fighter of the month, NBA champ and top contender because of last week's upset knockout over Carmen Basilio, Chittengo, N. Y., in their fight for the NBA version of the 160 pound crown.

Basilio was dropped from first to third, below Spider Webb of Chicago.

Mitt Group Picks Webb

Toronto — (UP) — The National Boxing association today picked Spider Webb of Chicago to face middleweight champion Gene Fullmer for the NBA division of the world title.

Webb's selection was announced during the third day of the four-day NBA annual meeting. The NBA title is not recognized in either Massachusetts or New York state.

Fullmer captured the NBA's share of the world title when he knocked out Carmen Basilio last week in San Francisco.

Fullmer and Basilio both posted a $5,000 guarantee bond whereby the winner was committed to fight a challenger for the title within 90 days.

No date was announced for the Fullmer-Webb fight. Webb was ranked immediately behind Fullmer in the latest NBA ratings.
