Frederickson-Harris Rites Held

An event of Saturday, August 29, was the marriage of Miss Sally Joann Harris to the Rev. Willard Lee Frederickson, Dr. D. Kirkland West performed the double-ring ceremony at three o'clock in the afternoon at First Presbyterian church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Harris, 707 South Oakdale avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Frederickson, Los Angeles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a short gown of white tulle with a scoop neckline and balloon skirt. Her crescent-shaped bouquet was of white spider chrysanthemums and her shoulder-length veil was held by a circlet of orange blossoms.

Mrs. Merrill Hval, Portland, was matron of honor for her sister, Miss Mary Kay Harris, another sister, and Mrs. John Dupen, San Francisco, were bridesmaid and matron. They wore afternoon frocks of aquamarine flowered silk with picture hats of blue net held by circles of white flowers, and carried nosegays of white carnations and asters.

Mr. Harris gave his daughter in marriage and the Rev. Ernest Fricke, San Francisco, was best man. Merrill Hval, Portland, and Dennis Chadeayne, Tracy, Calif., seated the guests. Reed Harris, brother of the bride, and James Snodgrass lighted the candles. The sanctuary was decorated with white and aquamarine gladioli, the gift of W. J. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Warner. Mrs. Robert Sheldon was at the organ.

The reception was held at the Harris home. Mrs. Luther Harris, Lamont, Wash., cut and served the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Murray Anderson, Grants Pass. Both are aunts of the bride. Serving coffee and punch were Mrs. D. Kirkland West, Mrs. T. V. Williams, Mrs. Robert Beatty, Mrs. Robert Swindler, Miss Rhoda Williams and Mrs. Lyle Klessig, Portland.

The Misses Linda Beatty and Christy Chamberlain assisted with serving. The cake was cut with an heirloom knife, loaned by W. J. Warner, which has been used at scores of valley weddings. The silver coffee service was another Warner heirloom, and also in use was the silver service presented to Frank Van Dyke when he served as Speaker of the Oregon House of Representatives. Miss Ellen West, student at San Francisco Theological seminary and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. West, took charge of the guest book and gifts were cared for by Mrs. De Vere Taylor.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Oregon and then left for Inglewood, Calif., where the bridegroom is assistant minister at First Presbyterian church. The bride recently terminated her work as a hostess for the Pacific Division of Pan-American World Airlines.

Engagement Told Of Doris Raines To Cecil Owings
