

Dinner Observes Anniversary

A dinner and reception celebrating the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ora A. Gusinger, 832 Niantic street, was given August 29 at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ora O. Gusinger Jr., 2690 Elliot street.

The couple was married August 27, 1909, in Oklahoma and came to Oregon in 1936 from Kansas, where they had lived since 1916. They moved to Medford in November, 1949.

Their children, who with their families, were here for the event, are Marvin R. Gusinger, Ashland; Frank A. Gusinger, Cottage Grove; Mrs. H. O. Thompson, Klamath Falls; Mrs. A. A. Adams, Gold Hill; and Ora, Jr. They also have 10 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Frank Gusinger made and decorated a gold and white cake for the celebration. Mixed flowers came from the Ora Gusinger Jr. gardens.

Scout Advisor To Visit Here

George R. Sainsbury, member of the Girl Scout national staff, will be in Medford September 9-11, to confer with members of the Rogue Valley Girl Scout council, according to Mrs. T. R. Lytle, council president.

As the finance adviser for Region XI, Mr. Sainsbury works with Girl Scout councils throughout Oregon, Idaho, Washington, Montana and Alaska, helping with budget development and presentation, fund drive organization, and other procedures that involve finance. This will be his first visit to the local council.

Prior to his present assignment, Mr. Sainsbury served as the executive of the Olympic Area council, Boy Scouts, in Bremerton, Wash., and as a district Boy Scout executive in Seattle. He became a professional worker in scouting in 1948. He is a graduate of the University of Washington in Seattle.

Mrs. Lillian M. Lounsberry celebrated her 90th birthday anniversary August 29. Mrs. Lounsberry, who has lived in the Rogue valley since 1907, makes her home with her son, George, 25 South Peach street.

90th Birthday Observed By Medford Woman

Mrs. Lillian M. Lounsberry was honored August 29 on her 90th birthday with a party at the home of her son, George Lounsberry, 25 South Peach street.

Mrs. Lounsberry's other son, Philip, came from Pasadena, Calif., for the celebration, and friends and neighbors called during the day to extend greetings.

She was born in 1869 at St. Paul, Minn., and came to the valley in the summer of 1907 with her husband, the late Wells Lounsberry and sons.

The family bought property from H. C. Maury on the Central Point-Jacksonville road, now the H. S. Chirgwin orchards, and built a home. Mrs. Lounsberry moved to Medford during the 1920's to make her home with her son.

Sunshine Girls To Hold Session; Three Initiated

Pythian Sunshine Girls will meet Thursday, September 10, at 7 p.m. in the Pythian building, Fifth and Grape streets.

Three new members, the Misses Pamela Wyatt, Elizabeth Grochowski and Kelly Copeland, were initiated into the group August 27. Following the meeting refreshments were served by the Misses Dena Griggs, Call Riley and Evelyn Anderson.

Members had outdoor slumber party recently at the home of Miss Barbara Kadin, 601 West Jackson street. Adults attending were Mrs. Edward Bostwick, royal advisor, and Mrs. Ben Cheerier and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kadin.

Units Schedule First Meetings

Three of the county's home extension units have scheduled meetings for this week.

The Medford unit will open its fall season Wednesday, Sept. 9, at 10:30 a.m. in the county courthouse auditorium. A potluck luncheon will be served at noon with the officers as hostess. All members attending are asked to bring table service and either a salad or desert.

Mrs. Helen Allen, county committee member, will give the project lesson on "Leadership Development and Voice Control" from 1 until 2 o'clock.

All women in the community who are interested in homemaking are welcome.

Howard Home Extension unit will meet Thursday, September 10, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Howard Lind, route 2, box 452-A, Old Military road. Mrs. Arthur L. Straus will give the lesson on "Leadership Development and Voice Control."

Willamette Extension group will meet Tuesday, Sept. 8, at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Robert Vincent, 223 Willamette st., will be hostess.

Women of the area are reminded that extension is open to all interested and newcomers will be welcomed by the membership.

The subject to be presented is "Leadership Development and Voice Control."

Those attending are to bring a sack lunch.

Sojourners Plan Meeting, Cards

Medford Sojourners will meet Thursday, September 10, at 12:30 p.m. at the Girls Community club. A business meeting will be followed by dessert, and cards will be played later in the afternoon. All women new to Medford and vicinity during the past two years are invited to attend.

Coin Collectors To Hear Reports

Rogue Valley Coin club will meet Monday, September 7, at 8 p.m. at Girls Community club.

Those who attended the national convention in Portland last week will report on convention activities for the benefit of other members, President E. K. Witt announced.

Mistletoe Club Plans First Fall Session

Mistletoe club will hold its first fall meeting at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 9, at Girls Community club. Dessert will be served.
