Jury Absolves Man In Shooting Death
Ontario—UPI—A coroner's jury has absolved Crescencio Chavez of blame in the gunshot death Sunday of Santiago Martinez, a migrant worker.

Dog Killed—A black male spaniel, owner unknown, was killed in front of 719 Central ave. yesterday when a car driven by Forrest Samples, 3492 Bursell rd., Medford, struck it, police reported. The car then swerved and struck a parked car owned by Mary Eleanor Jones, 1151 Brookdale rd., Medford. No citations were issued, city police said.

Two Injured When Car, Motorcycle Involved in Crash

Two men were injured in a motorcycle-auto collision last night just north of Phoenix, according to state police. Samuel Bell, 1001 Tolman Creek rd., Ashland, motorcycle operator, and Charles Royden Learn Jr., 3628 South Pacific highway, driver of the car, were reported in fair condition at Rogue Valley hospital this morning. Bell is suffering from an injured wrist and cuts and bruises, and Learn from a possible back injury, police said.

State police said the motorcycle was traveling south on Highway 99 in the outside lane without a headlight when it was struck by the Learn car. Neither man saw the other until the collision occurred, they told state police. A state police car had just pulled onto the highway to stop the motorcycle for driving without lights when the accident occurred. Bell was cited for not having lights on his motorcycle, officers said.

Earlier last night on Highway 99, a horse was struck by a car, state police said. A car driven by Marie Lila Critten, route 1, box 190, Talent, was traveling north in the outside lane when it struck a horse near the Bear Creek motel. The horse's head hit the upper right corner of the windshield breaking the glass, police said. No other damage or injuries were reported.

State police had been notified of the stray horse and were en route to the spot when the accident occurred.

Ike May Set Stage For Nikita's Visit

Washington—UPI—President Eisenhower's radio-television address to the nation Thursday night is expected to set the stage for next week's visit of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Administration officials said the President probably would explain the reasons for his invitation to Khrushchev and caution against expecting any dramatic developments or sudden solutions of cold war problems.

It also was considered likely that Eisenhower would request the American people to receive Khrushchev politely and correctly as befits a visiting head of state, no matter how strong their antipathies to the system he represents.

Portland—UPI—Metal Tradesmer. union members have joined two other unions in the Pacific Coast shipyard strike.

Central Point Man Found Innocent

Charles Bateman, 2130 Taylor rd., Central Point, was found innocent in Medford municipal court this morning of charges of violation of basic rule.

Bateman noted that he was traveling 35 miles an hour in a 30 mile an hour zone, and that the accident in which he was involved was "unavoidable."

The charges resulted from a rear-end collision Sept. 2. The accident occurred between a car driven by Mrs. Patricia Lee Young, 1920 Sunset dr., Medford, and Bateman at Howard ave., and North Pacific highway.

Salem—UPI—John F. Weisser Jr., has been assigned to the Salem office of the State Labor Bureau as an assistant attorney general.
