Three Units Listed For Black Tornado Game at Beaverton

Shades of Louisiana State! Coach Fred Spiegelberg has indicated that his Medford High school football crew, taking a cue from the 1958 national collegiate champion Tigers, will operate in three units when it goes against the Beaverton Beavers in the metropolitan area community on Friday night.

Spiegelberg last night named two offensive units, a "Go Team" and a "Shock Team" and a defensive combination. It's not three completely separate units like the LSU Tigers fielded. The two attacking Black Tornado contingents have different personnel but the defending combination is mostly a selection of players from the Goes and Shocks.

For defense across the line are Lowell Dean, James Breeze, Knight and Jensen, with Anderson, Earl and Charley, linebackers; Ragsdale and Calvin Dean (152), halfbacks; and Durkee, safety.

Of the foregoing crew James, up from the junior varsity, is the only non-letterman. Cal Dean could see some quarterbacking duty. A couple of players who could be on one or two of the units are Al Funston, fullback and linebacker, sidelined by a knee ailment, and Jim Johnston, tackle, hampered by an old non-football injury and advised by his doctor to lay off a couple of weeks. Both are lettermen.

Multiple Offenses Spiegelberg did not say last night which of the two offensive elvens will take the field first. He may not announce his decision until just before game time. A squad of 44 players will suit up for the game and the gridgers will leave here at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

The game will be a battle of multiple offenses. Both the Tornado and Beavers mix T and single wing formations. It's no small school Medford is going up against. Beaverton, a four-year school, lists 1,500 students.

Possible Beaverton starters are Guy Hale and Doug Whitney, ends; Ron Hopkins and Lewis Tuttle, tackles; Ken Conklin and John Town, guards; Tony McCoy, center; Brian Sinnerud, quarter; Tod Kennedy, fullback; and Chris Bishop and Roger Ross, halfbacks.

Phoenix-A Phoenix High school football contingent, believed to be the best blocking crew the Pirates have had in years, will play at Mt. Shasta, Calif., at 8 p.m. (daylight saving time) on Friday.

Coach Jack Woodward said that a squad of 20 players will make the trip. He reported that there will be little dead-weight since 16 or 17 lads are expected to see considerable service.

In the matter of the blocking ability of the club, Woodward noted the most improvement in the line.

Used to Leading Jack Hoffbuhr, Ron Baker and Joe Colfax are fast, tough blockers who all are used to leading plays. They are especially good downfield blockers and Jim Martin is a good, solid dependable lineman. Les Baker, who lettered at tackle as a freshman, is playing center for the first time. Ends Othar Richey and Raymond Thompson both played quite a bit last year. Richey is a fine line blocker and he and Thompson are good pass receivers.

St. Mary's Will Tussle IV Cougars

Cave Junction — A good crop of sophomores is helping to make up for a shortage of lettermen on the Illinois Valley High school football squad, according to coach Eldon Durham.

Four Cougar lettermen plus a couple of youths with previous experience at other schools are on the roster of IV which will be guest of the St. Mary's high grid machine on Friday evening at the Medford stadium.

Like St. Mary's, Illinois Valley has had a squad short on numbers. About 20 boys were out for practices the first couple weeks of drill. The aggregation has swelled to about 25 candidates now.

The lettermen on hand are Bob Tucker, fullback; Doug Lewis, halfback; Mike Hanby, quarterback; and Jerry Buckhaults, end. All are seniors. One other letterman, Carl Hammer, sophomore halfback and Chuck Baird, who had experience at quarterback as a sophomore, are expected to play when they've recovered from injuries. Baird broke an ankle playing softball, and Hammer cut off a toe.

Transfers who lettered at their former schools are Dale Campbell, tackle, from Jefferson (city), and Loren Meredith, halfback, from Long Beach, Calif. Campbell was a center at Jefferson.

Among the sophomores are Pat Hill, end; Don Johnson, tackle; Bob White, center; Bob Prather, guard; Steve Hanby, quarterback, and Roger Cross, fullback.

At ends, also, are Terry Johnson, junior with jayvee experience, and Mike Robins, transfer from Santa Rosa, Calif., but inexperienced. Mike Johnson, a senior, is a tackle with junior varsity background. Lee Rosenberg, guard, is a senior who played jayvee ball. In the backfield are R. J. Cross, a junior and former JV and Jack Scott, a freshman.

Roger Cross is said to be the fastest man on the squad. Just 18 players will be brought to Medford for the opening game.

Wayne Thornhill is assisting Durham as line coach and Ron Brood, ex-Crater high, is junior varsity coach.

Hornbrook Bills Softball Fray

Hornbrook, Calif. — Second annual East-West softball game will be played at 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 12 at the Hornbrook school diamond.

The event originated last year when the men from the east side of the railroad tracks challenged the men on the west side to a game. Funds donated at the game will be applied to the Hornbrook Youth fund and will be used for recreational purposes.

A few of the talented players who'll take part are Ike Dooley, Pete Fisher, Ray Blankenship, Harle Baker, Loren Cummins, Ralph Chadwick, Buck Skeahan, Skip Shinar, Ralph Bennett and George Brautlaucht.

Shinar is skipper for the East Bearcats and Bob Farmer will manage the West Alley Cats. Umpires will be George McCann, L. C. Walsh and Frank Lowe.

A base running contest may be a side feature of the fracas. The public is invited to the funfest. There will be a food concession stand on the grounds.

Talent HS Short on Footballers

Talent — Hustle and split are going to have to count a lot for the Talent high football team which plays Friday night at Eagle Point.

Right now, anyway, the Bulldogs are way short on numbers. New mentor Don Moore has reported just 13 boys on hand for workouts. The number is expected to swell somewhat by next week. School is underway but students who work are being excused from classes this week.

Nine of the boys who have reported are lettermen. Seniors are Don Skundrick, Mike Jacobs and Eddie Seaver, backs; Ernest McCasland and Larry Bradford, tackles; and Morris Sterrett, end and tackle. Sophomores who lettered last year are Rick Seymour and Mike Olson, guards, and Fred Tyksen, backs.

Others on hand have been Tom Burnett, a senior, end, and three freshmen, John Kern, a center and Larry Johnson and James Bench, linemen.

Moore said that the players have been hustling and showing zest for the game.

Steelers Get Pete Brewster

United Press International A budding Bobby Layne-Pete Brewster passing combination has suddenly made the Pittsburgh Steelers look like a top contender in the National Football league.
