Gold Hill Couple Honored

Gold Hill—Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey were honored at a party September 5 which observed their 50th wedding anniversary. The event, held at their home a mile south of Gold Hill on Old Stage road, was given by relatives and friends.

The honored couple received many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey met at a time when their families were living in Wheeler county, Texas, and were married there September 5, 1909. They moved to Yuma valley, Ariz., where they lived for 28 years, and then came to Gold Hill 10 years ago. Mrs. Bailey was born in Stonewall, Okla., June 12, 1890, and Mr. Bailey was born in Macdonald county, Missouri, January 18, 1884.

The Baileys have eight children. They are Leonard E. Bailey, Riverside, Calif.; Hubert E. Bailey, Gold Hill; M. Sgt. Ralph Bailey, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Francis L. Fohl, Fort Ord, Calif.; William Lee Bailey, Sumner, Wash.; Mrs. Otto McCoy, Redland, Calif.; Mrs. O. H. Fletcher, Yuma, Ariz., and Thomas Bailey, now in England where he has been on Army duty.

Hubert Bailey and Mrs. Fohl were with their parents for the anniversary.

The Baileys also have 28 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey, Gold Hill, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary September 5, were honored by relatives and friends. The Baileys were married in Wheeler county, Texas, and have lived in Gold Hill 10 years.

Extension Units Plan Festival

"What Makes A 100 Per Cent Home?" This question is the theme of the District V Home Extension festival which will be held at the Fairgrounds in Klamath Falls Thursday, September 17. Homemakers from Josephine, Jackson, and Klamath Counties will participate.

The meeting will convene at 10 a.m. Mrs. E. H. Ahlstrom, District V chairman, will preside. Principal speaker will be Mrs. Roberta Frazier who has recently joined the Oregon State college extension staff as family life specialist.

Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, Salem, Ore., will also speak. Mrs. Kilpatrick is the general chairman of the National Home Extension council convention committee. She will tell of the last-minute plans for the national convention to be held in Portland October 11-14.

Other guests expected at the festival include Frank Ballard, director of the Oregon Extension service, and Miss Evelyn Funk, state extension agent.

Part of the delegation from Jackson county will go to Klamath Falls by chartered bus and many others will go in private cars.

Retired Teachers Plan Picnic Monday
