Magic Number Cut To Four As White Sox Nick Yanks; Giants Crush Cincinnati

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Get the champagne ready, Loole!

The White Sox may be asking you to pop the cork this week end.

And by that time, the Giants should let you know definitely one way or the other.

For the White Sox, it's virtually all over but the gala formality of celebrating their first pennant clinching in 40 years. Their "magic number" now is down to four and for those whose mathematics may be a bit rusty, it simply means the Sox can wrap up the whole business by Friday night.

That was made possible when Cleveland fell 5½ games behind Tuesday night by losing to Boston, 1-0, after the White Sox had won a 4-3 thriller from the Yankees.

The Giants are in good shape, too, although not quite in the commanding position the White Sox are. San Francisco is two games in front of both Milwaukee and Los Angeles, and the Giants meet the Braves in a two - game series at home starting today, then play host to the Dodgers in a three-game set.

Everything worked out perfectly for the Giants Tuesday. They crushed the Reds, 13-6, while the Dodgers beat the Braves, 8-7, in 10 innings.

The Giants hammered out 13 hits Tuesday in routing the Reds. They shelled rookie Jay Hook with a five-run burst in the first inning.

Reliever Don McMahon walked in the winning run in the 10th inning to enable the Dodgers to climb back into a second - place tie with the Braves.

Cards Trim Phillies

St. Louis defeated Philadelphia, 6-4, in the only other NL game played. The game between the Cubs and Pirates was postponed because of cold weather.

Ernie Broglio of the Cards gave up five hits in beating Ed Keegan for his seventh victory. Tim McCarver, 17-year-old rookie catcher, collected two of St. Louis' 10 hits and scored two runs.

The White Sox' victory over the Yankees marked the 34th game this season they won by one run. The White Sox scored three of their runs – including the winning one – with sacrifice flies to offset Mickey Mantle's 30th and 31st home runs.

Frank Malzone broke up a brilliant pitcher's battle between Tom Brewer of the Red Sox and Jim (Mudcat) Grant of the Indians. Malzone's ninth - inning single scored Pete Runnels from second base with the only run of the game.

Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm registered his 15th victory for the Orioles with a four-hit 2-1 triumph over the Tigers in 11 innings.

LA Fracas Protested By Braves

Los Angeles – (UPI) – The Los Angeles Dodgers, winners of an extra-inning disputed 8-7 decision over the Milwaukee Braves Tuesday, take on the Cincinnati Reds tonight in their next to last home game of the season.

Although the Dodgers came up with two runs in the bottom of the 10th to win, Manager Fred Haney played the game under protest because first baseman Joe Adcock's fifth inning hit into the left field screen was called a ground-rule double instead of a homer.

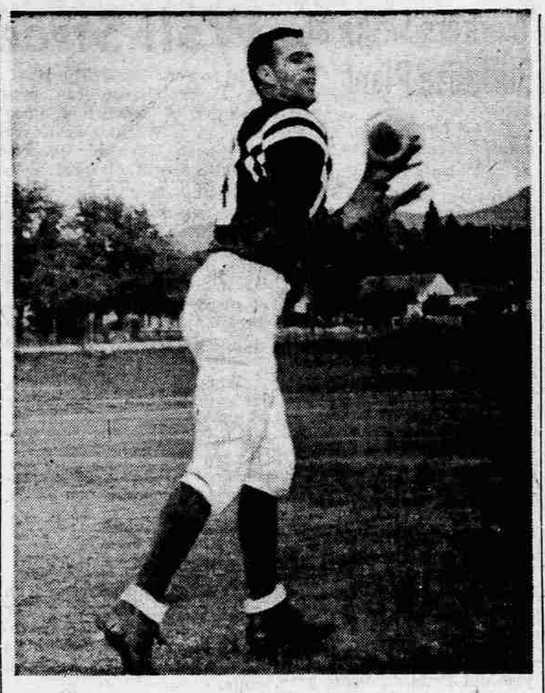
Umpire Vinnie Smith called the hit a double when the Dodgers produced a ground rule requiring any ball that goes through the screen or sticks in it is limited to two bases. But Haney pointed out the ball hit the tower holding the screen, hit straight down and lodged on a projection holding the horizontal bar that marks the top of the screen 40 feet above the playing field. He said it should have been called a homer because the ground rule did not apply.

Had the homer been allowed, the extra run would have given the Braves a 7-6 win in nine innings.

Pending a league ruling on Haney's protest, the Braves left town tied for second with the Dodgers and two games behind the San Francisco Giants.

MURPHY WINNER

Portland – (UPI) – Molly Murphy, a former Oregon Coast champion, defeated Mrs. Martin Hunter of Portland, 6 and 5 in a feature match of the Oregon Women's Golf association championships here Tuesday. Mrs. R. L. Borst, Portland, won over Mrs. Howard Durbin, Oswego, 3 and 2; Mrs. Frank Fisk, Portland, was a 6 and 5 winner over Miss Lillian Schassen of The Dalles, and Mrs. Ed Wheelock of Portland defeated Mrs. Roy Renoud of Portland, 5 and 3.



TO FACE HAWAIIANS–Gordon Carrigan, above, is certain to see a lot of action for Southern Oregon college when the Red Raiders oppose University of Hawaii football team Saturday night, Sept. 19, at the Medford high stadium. Carrigan, ex-Crater high, is a halfback and end for Coach Al Akins' Raiders.

Dignitaries Will Greet Hawaiian Football Team

Jim Donlevey, president of the Medford City Council, representing Mayor John Snider; Mayor Richard Neill of Ashland, and Dr. Elmo Stevenson, president of Southern Oregon college will be on hand at the Medford airport Thursday at 10:28 a.m. when the University of Hawaii football team and entourage land.

Following the reception at the airport, the gridders will be driven in convertibles through the Pear City to the Medford hotel, which will be their headquarters while here for the SOC-Hawaii football engagement.

Friday morning the Hawaiians will be hosted on a visit to Crater Lake before returning to play SOC Saturday on the Medford High school grid turf at 8 p.m.

BENNETT SPEEDSTER

After taking Monday afternoon off, Southern Oregon footballers got back to serious work in preparation for the Rainbow game.

Timed 100-yard dashes and the running of plays were in order yesterday in an effort to smooth the machine of the Raiders into good working order.

Freshman Kerm Bennett from Crater continued to lead the sprints. He had a time of :11.2 on two occasions last week in football uniforms and the ex-Comets' speedster posted a :11.7 on the wet field yesterday.

The Raiders are yet to come up with the starting lineup for the Hawaiian game but Phil Sword at center, Jim McAbee at end, Jim Tacchini at guard, and Troy Bellah at either guard or tackle appear to just about have nailed down starting assignments on the offensive unit.

During the wet and rain that swamped the practice field, the Raider gridders watched and diagramed plays from the Idaho State-Hawaii game of last year which the Rainbows won 40-19. This was an effort to gain some sort of idea on how to stop the Rainbows.

Injuries were still hampering three of the Raiders with backs John Buck and Damien Rossetto nursing leg ailments and Jim Clark still being absent.

JOCKEY SUSPENDED

New York – (UPI) – Jockey Manuel Ycaza was handed a 10-day suspension Tuesday by Aqueduct Track stewards for rough riding during the eighth race of Monday's opening program. Ycaza's suspension begins Thursday and extends through Saturday, Sept. 26.

Stockton, Calif. –(UPI)– Halfback Dick Bass will be ready for College of Pacific's opener with Colorado State at Stockton Saturday night, coach Moose Myers announced Monday.

Few Frays Breathers For Fresno

Fresno, Calif. – (UPI) – New head football coach Cecil Coleman is hopeful about Fresno State college's gridiron talent, but the 1959 schedule doesn't provide many "breathers."

"I didn't have a hand in the order of the schedule, but if I had it would have been a differnt sequence if possible," says Coleman. "I think, however, the boys will show some surprises."

The Bulldogs open the season Sept. 26 by hosting Brigham Young university, followed by three other home games with Santa Barbara, Oct. 3; San Diego Marines, Oct. 10, and San Jose State, Oct. 24.

"I like to think that Santa Barbara will be the easiest among the first four," says Coleman. "However, last year they beat Fresno. And, I don't particularly like to look further on the schedule."

The remaining games are Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo Oct. 24, San Diego State at home Oct. 31; College of Pacific in Stockton Nov. 7; Long Beach State at Long Beach Nov. 13 and Hawaii at Honolulu Nov. 28.

Came From Arizona State

Coleman, acquired by State from Arizona State university, succeeded Clark Van Calder who went to University of Wisconsin after seven seasons. Coleman showed a sparkling T-formation multiple offense during spring practice.

Coleman has the 1958 backfield veterans back on the squad, plus a crop of junior college transfers, mostly linemen. All the new faces make for a ranking among the "unknowns" for Fresno this season.

One newcomer is Van Calder's son, Bob, an ex-Stanford university freshman, who is the probable starting quarterback. Other quarterbacks are Nick Papac, former University of California frosh and varsity player, and Mike Pratt, a three-year veteran.

Veteran QB Converted

Jim Kuhn, top signal caller for the past three seasons, is being converted to a fullback and end, while other backfield men include veterans Dale Messer, Nick Masich, Billy Wayte and T. J. Owens.

A heavy forward wall includes newcomers Doug Brown, Don Prockett, Ervin Bishop, Ron Puckett and Lou Poplar, plus veterans Harold Householder, Dave Peeler, Charley Ratliff and Jack Attox. Center Householder is the lightest at 185 pounds, while guard Brown is the heavy at 235.

Veteran ends Troy Ratliff and Fred Raco are on hand for pass-minded Coleman. He has recruited from Ventura JC two sticky-handed boys in Jay Buckert and John Webster.

SPORTS

Besmanoff, Ed Machen Vie Tonight

Portland, Ore. – (UPI) – Willie Besmanoff, a native of Germany who now fights out of Milwaukee, muscles in on some of the Braves' headlines tonight when he tangles with favored Eddie Machen in a 10-round nationally televised bout.

Machen, who has transferred his allegiance from San Francisco to Portland, is going after his sixth straight win in a comeback campaign which he launched this year after being flattened in the opening round last September by Ingemar Johansson.

Eddie is ranked fourth in the latest Ring Magazine listing while his opponent is not cited. But Besmanoff's camp claims this is all wrong.

Shot at Title

"A win over Machen could mean a shot at the title," Manager Eddie Metrie has said. And he claims that a group in Milwaukee "will beat any offer from anywhere" for a world title bout between Johansson and Besmanoff.

So far, Besmanoff has won three out of five during his 1959 campaign. He holds wins over Alvin Williams, Mike DeJohn and Ben Marshall. Zora Folley and Don Fleeman have beaten him.

NOSE SURGERY

Seattle – (UPI) – Schoolboy Bobby Hicks will lay aside his boxing activities for the next two months to undergo corrective nose surgery, his manager, George Chemeres, said Monday. Hicks suffered a nose injury in his second fight with Teddy Hall here March 17 and has been having breathing troubles ever since.

Golden Trout Limit on Flies

Portland—Thar's gold in them thar hills, pardner—golden trout, that is—and from all indications the strike is a bonanza. And fitting to the occasion, the big golden strike is in Golden lake, located just to the north of Broken Top Mountain near the Three Sisters.

C. A. Nelson of Portland recently reported that he had no trouble taking his limit of golden trout on flies with the fish ranging in length from 7 to 9 inches. The trout were highly colored, red-meated, and in excellent condition.

These trout were experimentally stocked in Golden lake by the game commission last October. At that time the fish averaged about five inches in length.

Several other lakes in the Chambers lakes basin were stocked with goldens about the same time, including Carver and East and Middle Chambers lakes. All plants in the Chambers lakes group were made by pack horse.

During September of this year the commission aerial dropped golden trout into several more lakes in the area on an experimental basis. These plants were made in Camp, Skinner, East Chambers, Moraine, and Rim lakes.
