

Charlie Coe Takes Match In National Amateur Golf

Colorado Springs—(UPI)—Dick Yost of Portland, Ore., advanced to the third round of the National Amateur golf tournament Tuesday by defeating Raymond E. Witzel of Sanford, Fla., 9 and 7.

By NORMAN MILLER
Colorado Springs, Colo.—(UPI)—Charlie Coe, Bill Hyndman and some of the older golfing gaffers have been doing right well in the National Amateur golf championship thus far, but the real test for creaking bones begins today. The grind steps up to two rounds a day on the mile-high, 7,010-yard Broadmoor Club course. And from here in it will take stamina as well as savvy to beat the rarified atmosphere, the long fairways and the young hot-shots in the tournament. Coe, the 35-year-old U.S. Walker Cup captain, and Hyndman, his 43-year-old teammate, scored the most impressive victories among the "name" players in Tuesday's second round. And who sprang the biggest upset? Dee Replogle, an unheralded Oklahoma oilman, aged 40. Replogle eliminated Deane Beman, the 21-year-old Walker Cupper and British Amateur champion who had been rated a threat to Coe's crown, 4 and 3. Plays Penrose Replogle's third round opponent is Jack Penrose of Miami Beach, Fla. The slender 150-pound Coe, who says, "Don't worry about me, if I keep winning, I'll make it around if I have to crawl," played Bob Ratdorff of Hershey, Pa., 28-year-old Pennsylvania state amateur champion in today's third round. Coe shot two-under-par golf Tuesday in truncating John Mallory of Spokane, Wash., 6 and 5. Hyndman, who said he also was at the peak of his game in beating Bob Loufek of Rock Island, Ill., 5 and 4, faced 40-year-old John Klire of the Westover (Mass.) Air Force Base today. Three other members of the Walker Cup "old guard"—Harvie Ward, 33; Dr. Frank (Bud) Taylor, 42, and Billy Joe Patton, 37, also reached the third round, along with two Walker Cup youngsters, 22-year-old Tommy Aaron and 19-year-old Jackie Nicklaus.

Green Bay Among Teams To Beat in Pro Football

By FRED LINDECKE
Green Bay, Wis.—(UPI)—The Green Bay Packers don't have a star passer or a big break-away runner. But they figure to be one of the teams to beat this year because of a man who won't touch a ball during a game—new coach and general manager Vince Lombardi. Lombardi—45 and never before a head coach other than in high school—picked a tough assignment. The Packers had the worst record in the National Football league last year and the poorest in their own 40-year history—a 1-10-1 mark. Lombardi took the job because he was given a five-year contract and made complete boss on the field and in the front office. Even before he got the team winning on the exhibition trail, Packer pre-season ticket sales reflected the fans' confidence in Lombardi by reaching record highs. Lombardi came to the Packers this year after five years as an offensive coach under Jim Lee Howell of the New York Giants. He came with the knowledge that he faced a long rebuilding job. His first problem was to change the defeatist attitude of the club. New uniforms and a street clothes outfit of the and jacket for all players were two things Lombardi picked to help wipe away the "I don't care attitude."

But more important was Lombardi's insistence that every man was going to give everything he had, or get out. Twelve men who were on last year's team are not around this year. Lombardi has made nine deals for replacements and more trades are expected. "The men I traded for are football players, not just players. There's a big difference, you know," Lombardi said. The biggest trade made by Lombardi sent end Billy Howton to the Cleveland Browns for halfback Dew Carpenter and defensive lineman Bill Quinlan. He also bought 11-year veteran Emlin Tunnell from the Giants as a defensive safety. Marv Matuszak went to Baltimore for guard Fred Thurston, while defensive back Bobby Freeman came from Cleveland and defensive lineman Tom Saldock moved in from Philadelphia. "Last year the Packers couldn't run the ball and were an almost exclusively passing club. It's not going to be that way this year," said Lombardi.

ALL JUNIORS Seattle—(UPI)—Coach Jim Owens of the University of Washington said Tuesday he will probably start an all-junior lineup when the Huskies open the season against the University of Colorado at Boulder Saturday.

Parilli Put On Waiver List by GB

United Press International
A handful of veterans, including end Max Boydston and quarterback Babe Parilli, and a handful of rookies were handed their walking papers Tuesday when National Football league teams cut their rosters to meet the 38-player limit. Those who survived the axe will not be able to breathe easily until after next Tuesday when the squads must be cut once more to the new league level of 36 players. The Green Bay Packers placed Parilli, their top draft choice in 1952, on the waiver list along with veteran tackle Tom Saldock and rookie halfback Alex Hawkins of South Carolina. Boydston, the Chicago Cardinals' No. 1 draft choice in 1954, was placed on the club's waiver list. The Los Angeles Rams asked waivers on three players and placed defensive back Floyd Iglehart on the injured reserve list. Those released on waivers were guard Bob Reifsnnyder of Navy, Jim Jones, a defensive back from Washington, and Fresno State halfback Darryl Rogers. Linebacker Joe Robb of Texas Christian and Rommie Laudd of UCLA were released by the Chicago Bears. The San Francisco Forty-Niners axed four from the squad—quarterback Bobby Newman of Washington State, tackle Frank Gernemia of Notre Dame, guard Hogan Wharton of Houston and end Tom Osborne of Hastings. Veteran halfback Gene Gedman and three rookies were placed on waivers by the Detroit Lions. Punting specialist Dick Deschaine was released by the Cleveland Browns, along with two rookies. The Pittsburgh Steelers purchased tackle Byron Beams from Los Angeles, acquired halfback Bobby Luna from San Francisco for a future draft choice, and cut six players.

COUSY PAY HIGH
Boston—(UPI)—A "very pleased" Bob Cousy was the "highest paid player" in pro basketball Tuesday after signing a Boston Celtic contract for in excess of $30,000 and possibly as much as $40,000. Cousy, a former Holy Cross All-America who signed his 10th contract with the National Basketball association champion Celtics Monday, was to be paid on a sliding scale based on attendance according to owner Walter Brown.

HOCKEY OPENING SET
Montreal—(UPI)—The National Hockey league's 43rd season will open Oct. 7 with the New York Rangers playing the Chicago Black Hawks at Chicago, it was announced Tuesday by the league office.

Tornado Seeks First Win In 12 Years at Coos Bay

When Medford high grid-ers edged Marshfield 3 to 0 in the first encounter of 1958 between the two schools, it marked the first Tornado triumph in 11 years in football rivalry with the Pirates. Latest edition of the Black Tornado will seek another accomplishment this Saturday evening—The first Medford victory over Marshfield in 12 seasons on the Coos Bay gridiron.

Medford defeated the Buccaneers 18 to 12 in the coast city in 1947. That was the last win for the Tornado over Marshfield until the verdict here last year, a win which was followed by another victory, 7 to 0, in the state semifinals. Even the two ties, which occurred in the 11 year period, were on the Medford field. Despite the fact that no conference or district honors are at stake this Saturday, the tangle will rate as one of the week end's top billings. The two clubs already are being ranked as top contenders for state honors and the struggle for prestige will add flavor to the scuffle. General Admission Available Competition between the two schools always has been keen. If last year's action is any indication, a fierce, tense skirmish will be put on for fans at Coos Bay. The 1958 games here between the Bucs and Black Tornado were two of the finest to be played at the local stadium. A block of 150 reserved

Athletics End Pact

Portland—(UPI)—The Kansas City Athletics of the American league Tuesday ended their working agreement with the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast league. Arch Kingsley, president of the Portland team, said he believed the cancellation was a result of a lawsuit recently filed by Portland against the major leagues for "player control" and territorial invasion by television. "It can't be any other reason," Kingsley said. Portland finished in sixth place in the Pacific Coast league this season. It has had previous working agreements with the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Chicago Cubs.

Y Volleyball For Men Slated Thursday Night

Men's Volleyball League play has been changed from Monday to Thursday night this year at the Young Men's Christian association. Men will start tomorrow at 7 p.m. All men interested in playing volleyball are encouraged to be at the YMCA on Thursday. This is for non-members as well as for members. Only equipment needed will be gym shoes. It is not necessary for men to be experienced players. Beginners will be welcomed. As play continues teams will play out-of-town YMCAs and will enter some of the Northwest tournaments.

SHOOTING AREA OPEN TO HUNTERS AT INDIAN LAKE
Opening of the Indian lake shooting preserve to hunters as of yesterday has been announced by owner Bill Walch. The preserve is a mile up Crowfoot rd. from the Butte Falls highway. Crowfoot junction with the Butte Falls road is nine miles up from Crater lake highway. Hunting is possible for a fee. Hand-raised Mongolian ring-necked pheasants run at will on the preserve. Walch said hunters must have state licenses but that there is no bag limit.

Roxy Lanes Ceremonies Scheduled

Grand opening for Roxy Ann lanes, new bowling establishment on Highway 99 south of Medford, is set for Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 19 and 20. The opening will be highlighted Saturday by 8 p.m. ceremonies and by evening exhibitions by Johnny Guenther and Foy Belcher of the American Machine and Foundry company (AMF) bowling promotion staff. The two men will be on the lanes Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday afternoon to give instruction to both beginning and experienced bowlers. An elimination to determine the two local men who will meet Guenther and Belcher. The two with the highest three-game series will be picked. Roxy Ann proprietors Herschel and Kenneth Dixon said that details of the formal opening ceremonies are being worked out and that details will be announced in a day or two. Guenther, Seattle, Wash., holds the Pacific Northwest record for high series, an 809. Belcher was BPA national match game finalist in 1955. He is from Glendale, Calif.

Prospect Defeats EP

Prospect—Prospect high opened its 1959 football season Tuesday evening with a 12 to 6 decision over Eagle Point junior varsity at Eagle Point. The Cougars marched 75 yards after the opening kickoff for their first score and took advantage of an Eagle muffed punt attempt in the second period for their other touchdown. Cliff Chapman went 13 yards around end for the opening TD and Floyd Scaife boomed eight yards for the other score. Eagle Point tabulated with 10 seconds to go in the first half on a 15-yard jaunt around end. Cougar Coach Duane Payne said he was impressed by his club which played good ball despite its greenness. Prospect varsity will be host to Klamath Falls junior varsity on Saturday afternoon.

10 DROWN IN FLOOD
Madras, India—(UPI)—At least 10 persons were drowned when their boat capsized in the rampaging Godavari river near Hyderabad Tuesday, it was reported today. The Godavari river has flooded large areas of the delta and the Andhra government has requisitioned Indian army planes to drop food to marooned villagers.
