

Presbyterian Events Listed Westminster Starts Services

Fall activities will resume at the First Presbyterian church, Eighth and Holly sts., with Dr. D. Kirkland West preaching on, "How Should We Treat Khrushchev?" at both the 9:45 and the 11 a.m. services Sunday.

The Youth choir under the direction of Otis Swisher will sing, "Lead Me Lord" at the early service and the chancel choir under the direction of Lynn Sjolund will sing the anthem, "Incline Thine Ear, O Lord" at the 11 a.m. service. Swisher will be soloist, singing "O Lord Most Holy" at both services.

Dr. West, as moderator of the Council of Synod, will leave Sunday afternoon for Portland where he will preside at the installation of Dr. Dwight Russell as the new executive secretary of the Synod of Oregon. Dr. West will also preside at the meeting of the council in executive session on Monday.

Junior High Fellowship will meet at the church Sunday at 5 p.m. The program, following a time of recreation, will be the Ecumenical League game of Bible Baseball. The New Testament Yankees will be battling the Genesis Giants. Worship and refreshments will follow.

Young People Senior High Fellowship for senior high young people will meet at the church Sunday at 7 p.m. The program, "What Is a Protestant?" will be conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Brian B. Mullen. Fireside will follow at the Mullen home, Campbell rd. Youth night will be held at the church Wednesday evening. Potluck supper and Bible study will be followed by choir practice at 7:15 p.m.

Medford will be the meeting location for the Westminster Fellowship Southwest Oregon Youth Presbytery Sept. 25-27. One of the highlights of the week end will be the dinner on Saturday, followed by a worship service and a drama, "Christ in the Concrete City" by Philip W. Turner. All WF members and Junior High Fellowship are invited to be guests at the service.

At the meeting of the session on Sept. 15 Dick Corum, sophomore at Harvard university, and Norman Gallucci, sophomore at Southern Oregon college, were received as candidates for the gospel ministry. Later they will be presented to the Southwest Oregon Presbytery for further recognition and acceptance.

Westminster Presbyterian church, which was organized Dec. 1, 1958, will begin its program of church school and worship service Sunday morning. For the past months, the members of the new church have been worshipping jointly with the First Presbyterian church.

Church school classes for all ages will be held at 9:30 a.m. Sunday. The different departments will meet at the following locations: nursery, block house at the site of the new church, Oakwood dr. and Glen Oak ct.; kindergarten, 257 Windsor ave.; junior, 302 Windsor ave.; senior high, 31 Glen Oak ct.; and adult, 408 Windsor ave. This will also be the beginning of the church school.

The worship service for the church will be held at 11 a.m. in the auditorium of the Hoover Elementary school, Siskiyou blvd. The Rev. John Reynolds will preach on the subject "The Foundation of Christian Experience" and the church choir will sing "God, Himself, Is With Us".

A Junior High Fellowship meeting will be held at 6 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duke McQueen, 2136 Hillcrest dr. All junior high young people of the new church are invited to attend.

Ashland-The Rev. B. J. Holland, minister of First Presbyterian church, Ashland, will speak Sunday at both 9:45 and 11 a.m. on "The Ordinal of Temptation".

Central Point—"Not for Sale" is the sermon topic of the Rev. Bruce Weber at the 11 a.m. worship service, Sunday, at First Presbyterian church, Central Point.

Westminster Fellowship will hold their first fall meeting at the church, at 7 p.m. All junior high and high school students are invited to attend.

"How To Study the Bible" will be discussed at the Couple's club meeting, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weber.

The church school staff will meet at the church, Wednesday, at 8 p.m. to make plans for Christian Education Sunday which is promotion day for the church school.

Jacksonville-The Rev. King K. Jones, minister of First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, will begin a new series of sermons entitled

Nazarene Church Plans Visitor's Day This Sunday

The Rev. and Mrs. Elwood Munger of Los Angeles, Calif., have just concluded a four day training session with members of the local First Church of the Nazarene.

The Mungers are now on district tour of the Oregon Pacific area in the interest of church schools. Their church, which is the Glassel Park Church of the Nazarene in Los Angeles, recently won national recognition by going from 256 average attendance to 1,417. And this with only 40 active adult working membership. They are now in Eugene carrying on a similar training session.

Locally the First Church members have met at 9 a.m., 1:30 and 7:30 p.m. daily. Along with daily instruction and inspirational sessions, the Mungers have directed the calling program of the people. The program is continuing through this week as the church prepares for Giant Visitor's Sunday, Sept. 20. Many of the neighbors and friends of the Medford community will visit the church, the significance of "giant visitor's day."

Souvenir motto-kit gift paks have been prepared for everyone that attends. Hawaiian leis will be given to each adult, child and youth that attends.

The pastor, the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, announces that the Sunday school and morning worship services will be combined beginning at 9:45 a.m. Department programs are planned which will be followed by a brief worship service in which the pastor will speak on the subject, "Complete in Christ." Music is to be provided by the choir and mixed quartet.

Transportation that has been worked out in order to bring in the many visitors from the various parts of the city, includes the two buses of the church as well as many volunteers. Everyone is invited for the "visitor's day" and any who may desire transportation are to call the church office.

Eastwood Baptist Tells Sunday Topic

Sunday the Rev. Clifford Young, pastor of Eastwood Baptist church, will speak on "The Spirit of Expectancy," at the 11 a.m. worship service. At the evening service he will speak on "Tell It to the Judge." Nursery is provided at both services.

Sunday at 2 p.m. a reception will be held for the Young family who arrived in Medford this month. Mr. Young succeeds the Rev. Richard M. Jones, pastor of the church for more than three years.

Sunday evening the Baptist Youth Fellowship groups of the church will resume their fall activities. All young people from junior high through college age are invited to attend.

Baptism Scheduled At St. Peter's

The Rev. John E. Simon, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran church, will perform the 23rd baptism since his arrival at the local church in January, during the Sunday morning service. Sunday school will start at 9:30 a.m. for all ages.

Mr. Simon will be in Portland Thursday and Friday to attend the Leaders' and the Fiscal conferences of the Northwest District of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, respectively. Joe Jarvis will represent St. Peter's church for the Fiscal conference.

Sunday afternoon Mr. Simon will serve as speaker for the Lutheran Laymen's league rally of the Southern Oregon area at Grants Pass. Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Carl Engel, Albany, president of the Oregon District Lutheran Laymen's league, and Henry Dodge, Eugene, and Mel Sandwick, Portland, past presidents, will be at St. Peter's to activate a local chapter of the league.

Loyalty Day Planned Sunday at Church

The Medford Church of the Brethren will observe Church Loyalty Day Sunday with a "loyalty dinner" following the morning worship service. The theme of the program and business meeting will be "What My Church Means To Me." The program will be directed to the property and finance commission with Harold Breazeale, chairman. It will be the send off for the annual "mission to members" in which missionaries from the local congregation will call upon the total membership in an interpretation of the total church program.

Infant Baptism at Ascension Lutheran

Infant baptism will be held Sunday during the 11 a.m. worship service at Ascension Lutheran church, 2501 Barnett rd. The Rev. Elvin S. Tofelsson, pastor, will speak on "Christ's Table Talks."

Thursday, Sept. 24, the adult instruction class in Christian doctrine will be held at 8 p.m. The following Sunday, Sept. 27, 30 persons will be received into membership of the church.

Local Minister to Unity Conference

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of Unity Center of Medford, will attend the Northwest Unity Conference in Spokane, Wash., Sept. 20 through 23. Mrs. Bosworth will leave Medford Sunday.

Among the speakers at the event will be Dr. Marcus Bach, world traveler, author, and interpreter of inter-church relations, and dean of the School of Religion, University of Iowa.

Ralph Rhea, field lecturer from Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo., will also speak.

The local aspects of the conference will be presented by the Rev. Marion Brown, minister of the Brethren Unity Center and president of the Unity Ministers' association—International. Mrs. Brown will speak in the Rogue Valley next month with events scheduled in Medford, Grants Pass and Ashland. During World War II she started a Unity center in Medford, conducting a weekly study class in the Medford Center building, now the Medical Center building. She was elected to the president position earlier this year.

Mrs. Bosworth will speak Sunday at 11 a.m. on "Preparing Your Couriers" during the devotional service in the Pythian hall, Fifth and Grape sts. The Wednesday evening healing service subject will be "Between the Lines" held in the Center, 995 South Oakdale ave.

The center at 995 South Oakdale ave. is open daily, Monday through Friday, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. For private consultation with the minister, telephone SP 2-6902, for an appointment.

Field Secretary To Speak Here

Pastor F. A. Mote, formerly president of the Australian and the Far Eastern Divisions and at present field secretary of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists in Washington, D. C., will be the guest speaker at the Medford Adventist church Saturday at 11 a.m.

Accompanying Pastor Mote will be E. J. Bergman, newly elected Sabbath school secretary for the Oregon conference, replacing C. S. Belleau who held the position for a number of years.

Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Lincoln School gymnasium Pastors Mote and Bergman will hold a Sabbath School Rally for all the Adventist churches in southern Oregon.

Pastor Mote will show pictures and relate experiences from his extensive travels and labors in mission fields. There will be no admission charge for the evening program.

CENTRAL POINT TOPICS

Central Point—"This Which Is Called Love" will be the topic of the Sunday 10:45 a.m. sermon of Mr. Jean M. Shelley, minister of the Church of Christ, Central Point. "Jesus Marvelled" will be the topic for the 7:30 p.m. service there.
