

Family Demands Probe of Death During Initiation

Los Angeles—The family of a University of Southern California student who choked to death during a fraternity hazing ritual today demanded a complete and thorough investigation.

Dr. Arthur L. Swanson, a dentist, charged that some members of the fraternity could have prevented the death of his brother, Richard, 21, had they cooperated with ambulance attendants.

Swanson issued a statement on behalf of himself and his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Swanson Sr.

Young Swanson died early Thursday when a quarter-pound piece of oil-smeared paper was ordered to swallow, lodged in his throat during initiation into Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

Police and ambulance attendants charged the student's life might have been saved if about 50 fraternity members present had told what had happened. Instead they claimed Swanson was suffering from a nervous spasm.

The district attorney's office said it was waiting for complete reports before determining whether to file charges. No arrests have been made so far.

Senator Urges Trials

"Those members of the fraternity who refused the information requested of them by the hospital ambulance attendants and stood by while my brother choked when he could have been saved are guilty of taking my brother's life," Swanson's brother said in his prepared statement.

State Sen. Edwin J. Regan (D-Santa Anita), chairman of the Senate Judiciary

Committee and author of a new anti-hazing law, said in Weaverville, Calif., he was urging Los Angeles District Attorney William B. McKesson to prosecute those fraternity members taking part in the fatal initiation.

Fraternity Closed Down

Ironically, Regan's law prohibiting all forms of hazing went into effect at one minute after midnight today.

The Los Angeles Examiner supported Regan's plea. In an editorial, the Examiner urged that charges be filed in the case.

The fraternity chapter was officially banned from the university within hours after Swanson's death. And a short time later it was indefinitely expelled from the Kappa Sigma National Fraternity.

Dr. Norman Topping, president of USC, said the chapter's expulsion was permanent. He ordered the fraternity house vacated and closed within 48 hours.

It was the first such action against a fraternity chapter in the history of the university.

Actor Rod Steiger Will Marry Costar

Hollywood—Actor Rod Steiger said today he and actress Claire Bloom, 28, will wed in the next couple of days.

The couple, who romanced as costars in the Broadway play "Rashomon," took out a marriage license Thursday at Ventura, Calif.

Steiger, 34, has been wed once before. It will be his first marriage for Miss Bloom.

Fairview Home Man on Leave Held for Assault

Portland—A young man on leave from Fairview Home at Salem was taken into custody Thursday night after officers said he held a young married woman and a teenage girl captive at gunpoint and shot one of them in the neck.

Booked without bail on a charge of assault with intent to kill was Charles Haggblom, 24, Portland. He surrendered to two firemen about 10 p.m. in Viking park. A search party of about 150 hunted for him.

The victim who was wounded in her own home was Mrs. Pauline Jarrett, 19. She was hospitalized today in satisfactory condition.

A 16-year-old girl was accosted on a street later. Both victims were forced to disrobe, police said, but neither was criminally assaulted.

Tied To Bed

Mrs. Jarrett's husband found her about 5:30 p.m. when he returned from work. She was nude, tied to their bed with a bullet wound in her neck.

Haggblom left the Salem home about one week ago. Mrs. Jarrett said he came to the Jarrett house about 1:30 p.m. to "exchange comic books." Then he displayed a .22 pistol, forced her to disrobe and tied her up, she said. Police said she was wounded when she screamed.

The 16-year-old girl was stopped at gunpoint about 2½ hours later in the same district as she walked home.

Romney, W. Va., changed hands 56 times between Union and Confederate forces during the Civil War.

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

New York—F. Dell-Agnese, manager of the tower section of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, describing how Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev reacted to an elevator breakdown that forced him to walk five flights of stairs:

"Khrushchev took it in excellent humor. He joked."

New York—Arthur Canton, publicity manager for the Majestic theater commenting on the sellout that resulted from Mrs. Nina Khrushchev's decision to see "The Music Man":

"She sold out the house. She should come here every night."

Fort Worth, Tex.—Maj. Kenneth Lewis, of Denver, Colo., pilot and only survivor of the B-58 Hustler that crashed and burned on takeoff Wednesday night, sizing up the supersonic jet bomber:

"It's a good ship and I'm ready to fly it again."

San Francisco—Rep. John F. Shelley (D-Calif.) urging labor leaders at the opening session of the AFL-CIO convention to oppose vigorously any congressman who supported strong labor reform measures:

"Chase out of the halls of Congress everybody who worked for the Landrum-Griffin bill."

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

ONE OF THE REASONS Jack Benny stays at the top in the turbulent TV world year after year is his infectious enthusiasm and obvious enjoyment of his work. His wife Mary reveals that Jack's gusto carries over into the most minute facets of his home life.

One day, sunning himself beside his Palm Springs swimming pool, he suddenly pulled George Burns to his feet and urged, "I've got to show you something sensational upstairs in my dressing room." Burns expected the blueprint of a new space ship at least—but Benny whipped out a pair of sport shoes. "Admit it," he declared happily. "Isn't that the greatest shine you ever saw?"

Poem composed by a weary Arizona taxpayer: "Rock-a-bye, baby, why do you fret? Are you aware of the national debt? Father has gone round the corner to vote millions in bonds that his smookums will tote. Are you suspicious? Sleep while you can. You will squirm later, dear, when you're a man."

MAYTAG ... the most service-free automatic washer made!

Get cleaner, lint-free washing with New FILTER-AGITATOR

Maximum Lint Removal

Positive Detergent Distribution

Greater Washing Effectiveness

The exclusive new Maytag Filter-Agitator is the most revolutionary change in agitator design since it was invented by Maytag. It provides increased washing action, positive distribution of detergent, and maximum lint removal. It's new, it's fabulous, and it's available only in Maytag.

Now full time filter is in the heart of the new Filter-Agitator, under water where the lint is, and is supplemented by Maytag's famous Lint Remover Tub. Surface lint, as well as lint suspended in water is filtered out as water recirculates through agitator. And there are no parts or traps to interfere with loading or unloading.

Detergent dispenser in agitator prevents overconcentration and damage to fabrics from heavy concentrations of undissolved detergent. Simply
