Durocher Probable Tribe Boss

New York—UPI—Leo Durocher, finally assured the "stock deal" he has held out for since 1955, will be named manager of the Cleveland Indians between now and World Series time, it was learned today from an authoritative American league source.

Durocher's hiring by the Indians will set of a chain of events that will include:

—Joe Gordon, current Cleveland manager, moving to Detroit as manager of the Tigers.

—Jimmie Dykes, present Detroit pilot, returning to the job he left as coach of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

—And the strong possibility of Chuck Dressen coming to Cleveland next year from Los Angeles to serve as coach under Durocher just as he did for many years with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Indians have okayed a stock deal for Durocher, according to UPI's source, but it is a bit different than Leo had sought. Instead of being given stock in the Cleveland Baseball club, Durocher is being given shares of blue-chip stocks now held by the owners of the Indians.

Dodgers Face Tall Challenge

Los Angeles—UPI—The Los Angeles Dodgers left for San Francisco today and the start of a three-game series that will probably determine if they continue in the pennant race down to closing day.

"Taking three games at San Francisco is a tall order," manager Walt Alston admitted, "but we are 6-2 up there. Still, past records don't mean a thing when the umpire says 'play ball'."

49ERS CLAIM LYLES

San Francisco—UPI—The San Francisco Forty-Niners have claimed halfback Lenny Lyles on waivers from the Baltimore Colts. Lyles, a former University of Louisville star, was Baltimore's first draft choice in 1958.

SF Giants Crunch Braves 13-6; Crucial Dodger Series Starts

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
The Giants left the Braves for "dead" today and moved on to the job of killing off the Dodgers.

Eager to do it themselves, the Giants open a three-game week end series with the Dodgers at San Francisco tonight with a two-game lead and only eight games left to play. They'll practically eliminate the Dodgers and put themselves on the high road to San Francisco's first World Series if they can win two out of three games from the Dodgers.

The White Sox, meanwhile, can clinch a tie for the American league pennant tonight if they beat the Tigers and the Indians lose to the Athletics. And, even if the Indians keep winning, the White Sox must take only three of their last seven games to clinch their first flag in 40 years.

Won Biggest Game
The Giants won the biggest game of the season Thursday when they routed Warren Spahn before he could retire a batter and went on to whip the Braves, 13-6. Rebounding from Lew Burdette's five-hit shutout 24 hours earlier, the Giants hammered out 14 hits, including four by Willie Mays who drove in five runs with a homer and three singles.

The Braves are idle today and then play the last-place Phillies single games on Saturday and Sunday.

The Dodgers "stayed alive" with a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds Thursday night and come back tonight with strikeout ace Don Drysdale (16-13) against San Francisco's Johnny Antonelli (13-9).

Snider Paves Way
Duke Snider crashed a three-run homer in the first inning to pave the way for Danny McDevitt's 10th win, achieved with the help of Larry Sherry in the ninth.

The White Sox are sending Bob Shaw (16-6) against Frank Lary (17-10) or Jim Bunning (16-12) tonight while the Indians have Jim Perry (11-9) facing Bud Daley (16-12).

The Philadelphia Phillies beat the Chicago Cubs, 5-2, and the Pittsburgh Pirates downed the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-0, in the other National league games Thursday. All American league clubs were idle.

Robin Roberts yielded homers to Ernie Banks and Irv Noren but won his 15th game of the year with a six-hitter for the Phillies.

Harvey Haddix pitched a four-hitter for his 12th win for the Pirates behind a nine-hit attack.

Ford Leading El Paso Golf

El Paso, Tex.—UPI—Doug Ford, happy with his putting on a tricky course, held a three-stroke lead going into the second round today in the $20,000 El Paso golf tournament.

Ford shot a sparkling seven-under par 34-31-65 first round on the 6,653-yard El Paso Country club course.

Three strokes behind Ford at the end of the first round Thursday on the par 37-35-72 course was Joe Campbell of Knoxville, Tenn., and Iverson Martin, El Paso, each with 68s.

Small College Grid Spotlight Focuses Here

United Press International
An invasion by Hawaii, a trip north by defending Northwest conference champion Willamette and a game to decide the championship of Portland highlight small college football action this week end.

With conference games still two weeks away for members of the Northwest and Oregon Collegiate conferences, interest will center on games at Spokane, Medford and Portland.

Willamette meets Whitworth of the Evergreen Conference in Spokane Saturday afternoon. The University of Hawaii plays Southern Oregon of the Oregon Collegiate loop in Medford Saturday night.

Lewis and Clark of the Northwest loop and Portland State of the OCC tangle in Portland tonight with the city's title at stake.

In other week end games Pacific plays host at Forest Grove Saturday night to Central Washington. Linfield plays Oregon College at McMinnville Saturday night. Oregon Tech plays host to Westminster of Utah at Klamath Falls Saturday night. College of Idaho travels to Eastern Washington for a Saturday afternoon game and Eastern Oregon meets Whitman at Walla Walla Saturday night.

Beginner Water Ski Tournament Sunday

First event is scheduled for 10 a.m. Sunday in the beginner and novice water ski tournament to be held by Gardener Lake and Rogue Aqua Ski clubs at Gardener lake.

Registration is billed for 9 a.m.

The competition will be for beginning tournament skiers only and no experts or professionals will be allowed to contend. A novice is described as a person who has not yet won a first place in a meet. A person who has won first in a slalom event but not in other types of rivalry may enter the jump and trick classes in this meet.

Southern Oregon skiers are invited to participate. Classes are planned for both adults and children. Events are scheduled for both men and women.

Homemade Trophies
There will be an entry fee. Entry blanks and information is available at Skinner's Buick agency here or at Reese Marine at Phoenix. Homemade trophies will be given for first three places in every event and class.

Lon Skinner will be chief judge and he asks that members of the two sponsoring clubs attend to help and serve as judges and referees.

Boats and ropes will be furnished by the sponsors. Boat speeds will be 20 and 22 miles per hour for the women's slalom and 22 and 24 miles per hour for men. A five-foot jump will be used for any speed up to 28 miles per hour allowed.

Gardener lake is northeast of Medford in the Yankee Creek area and is about a 16-mile drive from here.

CONGDON, DAHL LEAD

Walla Walla—UPI—Charles Congdon and Dr. Herman Dahl of Tacoma took the lead Thursday in the first round of the Northwest Pro-Amateur golf championships with a best-ball score of 62. Congdon and Larry Pepin don fired an eight-under par 64. In the second place were of Walla Walla.
