

Bates-McGee Ceremony Held In Carson City

Central Point—Miss Ellen Louise McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McGee, 312 Maple street, became the bride of Loyal Richard Bates, San Jose, Calif., at a ceremony September 6 in Carson City, Nev. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Marie Bates and William Bates, both of San Jose.

The Rev. Clyde E. Teel performed the ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the Carson City Methodist church.

The bride wore a black and white ensemble with black accessories. She is a former student at Crater high school.

The bridegroom attended school in San Jose. They are making their home in Selma, Calif., where the bridegroom is employed by the forestry department.

Mrs. Lawrence Kottke, Mrs. Dennis Kottke and Mrs. Gwen Stockdale were hostesses for a recent shower which honored the bride.

A miniature bride and bridegroom centered the table. Approximately 30 guests attended.

Dinner Given

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard, East Fairview drive, were hosts Monday evening for a cocktail and dinner party. The event was held at Rogue Valley Country club.

Patricia Crofoot Bride Of Air Force Lieutenant

Among September brides is the former Patricia Ann Crofoot, who was married September 9 to Lt. H. Martin Donahoe, Lowell, N. Y. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Crofoot, Hillside drive, Medford, and Lieutenant Donahoe is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Donahoe, Glenfield, N. Y. Mrs. Donahoe was here for her son's wedding.

The double-ring marriage ceremony was read at St. Mark's Episcopal church by the Rev. George R. V. Bolster at eight o'clock in the evening. About 100 guests attended.

Lt. and Mrs. Donahoe traveled to Valdosta, Ga., for their wedding trip, and the bridegroom is assigned to duty there with the United States Air Force. He is a jet pilot.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white taffeta fashioned with short harem skirt and fitted bodice. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade of gardenias.

Mrs. Gordon Cerrudo, Sacramento, Calif., was the bride's matron of honor. She wore a white lace sheath dress over pale green taffeta designed with empire waistline and carried a sheaf of pale green spider chrysanthemums.

The veil worn by the bride had first been worn by Mrs. Cerrudo for her wedding.

Harrison J. Colborne, brother of the bridegroom from Richmond, Calif., was best man, and ushers were Ensign Eugene Porter, roommate of the bridegroom at the United States Naval academy, Annapolis, and now of Seattle, William Wall and J. William Eatherton.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad played the wedding music. Baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the church, and yellow and white bouquets marked the family pews.

The reception was held at the Crofoot home. The bride's table was arranged with yellow and white chrysanthemums, and autumn flowers decorated the punch table.

Mrs. C. H. Buffington and Mrs. Monterey Holst cut the wedding cake, and Mrs. Eugene Porter poured coffee. Jack Findley served punch. The bride's sister, Susan, took charge of the guest book, and Mrs. Mary Lou Jonason the gifts.

The bride's mother wore a blue lace gown with pink

Church Ceremony Marries Couple

Rogue River—Miss Carolyn Condray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Condray, Evans Creek road, became the bride of Alfred Vanscooter, son of Mrs. Lawrence Sparlin, Grants Pass, in a ceremony held September 12 at the Hope Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Robert Maxon officiated at the wedding.

rosebud corsage and the bridegroom's mother a beige lace sheath frock with corsage of American beauty roses. For traveling the bride wore a Navy blue linen suit and white accessories.

Here for the wedding were the bridegroom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Harrison Colborne, and children, Christine, Marty and Peter; Mrs. Eve C. Crofoot, the bride's grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Pierson, Elizabeth and Robert, and Mrs. Ira Woodworth, the bride's aunt, all of Sacramento; Mrs. Eugene Porter, Seattle, and William Edwards, uncle of the bride.

The bride attended Sacramento Junior college after graduating from Medford High school and has been employed by Foster and Marshall. The bridegroom was graduated from the Naval academy in 1958.

Miss Barbara Jensen attended the bride and William Marrow served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship hall at the church. About 50 relatives and friends attended.

The couple attended Rogue River schools. Mr. Vanscooter is serving with the U.S. Marine corps.

Former Officer Will Study Law

Mr. and Mrs. Justin M. Smith have left Medford for Salem where Mr. Smith will enter Willamette university school of law. Mr. Smith, who was graduated from the University of Oregon, then served in the United States Air Force and was released in June with the rank of first lieutenant.

The Smiths have a daughter, Kristin, and a second child, a son, was born September 17 in Salem. The infant has been named Justin Jeffrey Smith.

The Smiths came here from Alaska after his service with the USAF terminated, and they spent the summer with Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Justin B. Smith, 21 Geneva street.

Wedding Of Interest In Valley

Of interest to valley residents is the wedding of Miss Eleanor Joann Leibbrand to Paul Gfeller, San Francisco. Miss Leibbrand is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leibbrand, formerly of Medford and now living in Denver, Colo.

The double ring ceremony, held last month, was read by the Rev. Thomas P. Krumpke of Park Presidio Methodist church in San Francisco.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of silk organza with hand-fashioned rosepoint lace bodice and matching lace inserts in the full skirt. Her veil was held by a small lace crown hand beaded by Mrs. Floyd P. Watkins of Medford.

Mrs. Donald Elgin served as matron of honor and Mrs. Jim Stokes, the former Phyllis Watkins, served as bridesmaid. Their gowns were of coral colored silk organza and they carried cascades of white and coral carnations.

Donald Elgin served as best man for the bridegroom and Mr. Stokes and Larry White were ushers.

The reception which followed the ceremony was held in the nurses home of French hospital in San Francisco. Mrs. Frank Seeks, aunt of the bride from Davenport, Iowa, cut the cake and Mrs. George R. Wahl and Mrs. Gene Kosel also assisted at the reception.

The bride's mother wore for the wedding a smoke blue lace dress with a hat of grey and white feathers. Her flowers were white orchids.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue faille dress with navy and white accessories.

Valley residents attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Chester Bourne and Mrs. Jessie Watkins.

The newlyweds will reside in San Francisco where Mr. Gfeller is associated with the Charles Bruning company. Mrs. Gfeller is a recent graduate from the French Hospital School of Nursing in that city.
