

Betrothal News Revealed at Recent Party

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Taylor of Portland recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne LaNelle Richards, to Gerald Eugene Kalapus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kalapus, 2156 Hillcrest road, Medford.

The announcement was made to a group of close friends and relatives at a birthday dinner party at Piluso's Theater restaurant in Portland, Friday evening, August 28.

Miss Richards is a senior student at Pacific university majoring in journalism. She has been a reporter in the editorial department of the Washington County News-Times at Forest Grove for the past three years, and has also been active in college publications, serving as editor of the university newspaper this year. Miss Richards is a member and past president of Phi Lambda Omicron sorority.

Mr. Kalapus is a 1955 graduate of Medford High school and attended Pacific university where he was graduated in June. He played basketball and tennis for both Medford High school and Pacific university, and was state high school singles tennis champion in 1955.

Mr. Kalapus is on the staff of the Canyonville school system where he will serve as head basketball coach this year in addition to teaching duties.

No wedding plans were announced.

Donna-Lou Barker Bride Of Larry Wayne Anderson

Miss Donna-Lou Muriel Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Barker, 2371 Sunset court, became the bride of Larry Wayne Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence T. Anderson, 623 Benson street, at a ceremony August 29.

First Methodist church was the scene of the rites, which were performed at 8 o'clock by Dr. George Roseberry. Approximately 170 guests attended.

Miss Donna Clarke, the bride's cousin, Cupertino, Calif., was maid of honor, and Miss Charlene Hubler, also a cousin of the bride, was the other attendant.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. Her dress was of white Chantilly lace over net and tulle. It was of ballerina length in princess style with a scooped, scalloped neckline and scalloped skirt. Her fingertip-length veil was held by a crown of pearls and lace. She carried a white orchid surrounded by Stephanotis to Carmel.

Miss Clark wore an orchid-colored nylon gown with a three-tiered skirt and a matching headband. She carried a sheaf of orchid and white gladioli.

Miss Hubler's gown was of mint green tulle with white overlace. She wore a matching headband and carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

The flower girl, Roper Candace, Modesto, Calif., wore a white lace frock. David Schipper, Modesto, was ring bearer. Both are cousins of the bride.

Howard Anderson served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Charles Field, the bride's brother-in-law, Bend; Clarence Schipper, the bride's uncle, Modesto; Calvin Dalton, cousin of the bridegroom; and Don Gray.

White and orchid gladioli decorated the sanctuary. Miss Melody Pierce was organist and Mrs. D. G. MacDougall was soloist.

A reception attended by 160 guests was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Bryan Pierce, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Harold Hubler, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ownie Wimer cut the cake.

Pouring punch were Miss Martha Casad, Miss Carol Mann, Mrs. Ronald Nelson, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Teresa Thomas. Mrs. Charles Field, sister of the bride, poured coffee. Miss Sharon Barker, sister of the bride, was at the guest book.

A smaller reception for relatives was held later at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Berta Roper, and Mrs. Clarence Schipper, aunts of the bride, Modesto, served.

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a pink suit and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a gray dress with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Both the bride and bridegroom were born in Medford and were graduated from Medford high school. They are making their home at 331 North Holly street, apartment 8, following a wedding Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Alec.

Coming from out of town, in addition to those in the wedding party, were Jack, Douglas and Dennis Schipper and Donald Roper, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Bessie Hubler, the bride's grandmother, all of Modesto; Jennifer and Lorna Field, niece and nephew of the bride, Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Alice Davidson, Pittsburg, Calif.; Walter Norton, Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Leonard, San Bruno, Calif.

Miss Patricia Ann Ward Wed to Arden Hildebrand

Miss Patricia Ann Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin H. Ward, 30 Richmond avenue, became the bride of Arden Paul Hildebrand, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hildebrand, Orchard Home drive, in a ceremony at First Methodist church.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the two o'clock afternoon rites held September 12. Mrs. Milton Snow was soloist and Mrs. Gerald Sherman played the organ wedding music for the double ring ceremony. Baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and lighted yellow tapers decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace over tulle fashioned with long-sleeved fitted bodice and Sabrina neckline embroidered with pearls and sequins. A cascade of lace and tulle ruffles down the back of the skirt formed a chapel train and her fingertip length veil was held by a queen's crown of pearls. She carried a white orchid and Stephanotis on a white lace fan.

Miss Janet Ward was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a pale yellow tulle sheath dress with organza overskirt with yellow headdress and carried a bouquet of bronze spider chrysanthemums.

Miss Joanna Darrough was bridesmaid. She wore a bronze tulle dress with matching organza overskirt. Her head-dress was bronze satin and she carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Little Judy Lynn Plowman, Portland, was flower girl for her aunt and Steve Plowman, Portland, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Gregory Orr served as best man. Seating the guests were Wendall Clawson and Robert Parkins, Grants Pass.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ward wore a gown of powder blue lace with blue feather hat. Mrs. Hildebrand's dress was of turquoise lace with white accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. George Watson cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Leo Innocenti, Portland, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Ned Plowman, Portland, sister of the bride, poured the coffee. Miss Charlotte Wise was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Hazel Baxter and Miss Norma Huffman were at the gift tables.

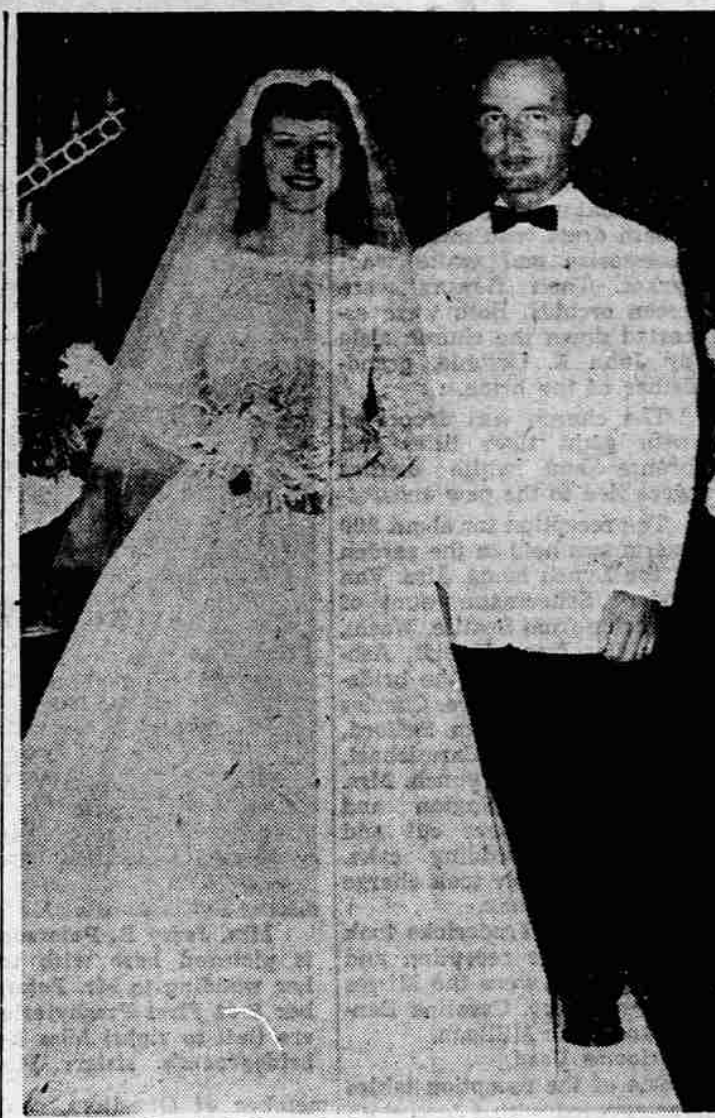

The couple traveled to Victoria, British Columbia, on their wedding trip, and will return to Medford today to make their home. For traveling the bride wore a black and white sheath dress with matching jacket and white accessories.

The bride attended Hastings, Neb., high school and the University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She is employed as a telephone operator with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Mr. Hildebrand was graduated from Grants Pass High school and is employed by Medford Veneer and Plywood corporation.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Harry Sipes, Home-Idaho, great aunt of the bride; Miss Arlene Allen, Nampa, Idaho, cousin of the bride; Mr. Plowman, Portland, brother-in-law of the bride; Mr. Innocenti, Portland, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. M. Hoffman, Glendale, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. H. Winger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winger, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Krug, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Berg, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Murschall, Mr. and Mrs. William Dierks, and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wilson, all Grants Pass.

Following the reception a dinner was held at the Hildebrand home attended by 60 guests. The evening prior to the wedding a buffet supper was held at the Ward residence for the wedding party and out of town guests. About 25 attended.
