

Chicago White Sox Clinch American League Flag

Windy City Celebrates First Flag in 40 Years

Chicago —UPI— The victory jag went on all night and into the dawn in the horn-blowing, siren-sounding Windy City today.

From the "world's busiest corner" at State and Madison, where some young celebrators were ushered into a paddy wagon, to the far suburbs and beyond, this was the day to remember.

This was the proud day after the glorious night when the go-go Sox brought the American League pennant, the first in 40 long years, to the folks back home. A few of the oldsters remembered that the last one was garnered by a team which later became the "Black Sox," but who cared about that gang 40 years ago.

The cork popped, emotionally and physically, at 10:43 p.m. (edt) Tuesday night, when the Sox clinched the pennant at Cleveland.

Out came the Chicagoans, from the bars and homes and clubs where they had clustered by radios and watched TV screens. The glare of headlights brightened the streets.

Police Called

Champagne bubbled in the far north suburbs. Beer cans and bottles were waved aloft on the South Side, where some old folks could recall how that some members of that former pennant-winning team threw a World Series to Cincinnati back in 1919, and where the old and young alike had waited for someone like "Nellie," "Loose," and their mates to come along and bring in another pennant.

Capt. Thomas Lyons of the police uniformed force called out his men in various emer-

Milwaukee Takes Full Game Lead

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

The Chicago White Sox are "in" and the neighboring Milwaukee Braves may be joining them soon to set up modern-day baseball's closest approach to the old-time nickel World Series.

It costs only $2.31 (tax included) to travel by bus from Chicago to Milwaukee, about 85 miles away, and that path looks more and more like the one fans will be shuttling on during World Series time.

The White Sox did their part by clinching their first American League pennant in 40 years with a 4-2 victory over the Indians Tuesday night, and the Braves took a big step in the same general World Series direction when they defeated the Pirates, 5-3, to move a full game ahead in the National League.

There were several standouts in the White Sox' clincher.

Al Smith and Jim Rivera supplied the muscle with six inning homers. Early Wynn, who won his 21st game, and Bob Shaw held the battling Indians in tow over the first 8 1/3 innings. Then when Cleveland loaded the bases in the ninth, sinkerballer Gerry Staley sauntered in from the bullpen, delivered one pitch and got Vic Power to hit into a game-ending double play.

It was a sweet triumph for Al Lopez, who had finished second the past four years, twice as manager of the Indians and the last two years with the White Sox. But it was a bitter defeat for Joe Gordon of the Indians, who officially left the club as manager the instant the final out was made. Pitching coach Mel Harder will lead the Tribe in their remaining four games.

The Braves' victory over the Pirates moved them a game ahead of the Dodgers and two in front of the fading Giants. The Cardinals knocked the Dodgers out of a first place tie by beating them, 11-10, and the Cubs downed the Giants, 5-4. The Phillies swept a two-nighter from the Reds, 3-1 and 3-2.

Southpaw Juan Pizarro, credited with his sixth victory, helped the Braves as much with his bat as he did with his pitching arm. Ordinarily a weak hitter, Pizarro blooped a two-run double just inside the left field foul line to highlight a three-run seventh inning rally against loser Harvey Haddix.

Pizarro yielded only six hits during the eight innings he worked and Don McMahon yielded two more in the ninth. Del Crandall hit his 21st homer for Milwaukee, which now can clinch at least a tie for the pennant by winning three of its four remaining games.

The Dodgers went down fighting. Rookie Frank Howard's pinch three-run homer in the ninth drew them to within one run of the Cardinals but reliever Lindy McDaniel got Junior Gilliam on an infield out to wind up the struggle. Walt Alston tried everything, including nine pinch hitters, which set a major league record.

Hal Smith hit a grand-slam homer in the first inning and Curt Flood hit a two-run homer in a five-run third inning rally by St. Louis. Gil Hodges homered with one on for the Dodgers.

Rookie George Altman's two-run homer with two out in the ninth sunk the Giants. Altman's game-winning homer came off the Giants' 20-game winner, Sam Jones, who was working in relief. Jim Marshall also hit a two-run homer for the Cubs. Reliever Don Elston scored his ninth victory.

Jim Owens won his 12th game for the Phillies when he stopped the Reds on five hits in the opener and winner Humberto Robinson and Jack Meyer combined to hold Cincinnati to three hits in the nightcap.

In the American league, the Yankees beat the Senators, 8-4; the Red Sox nipped the Orioles, 4-3, and the Tigers topped the Athletics, 6-4.

Art Ditmar checked the Senators on six hits in gaining his 13th win for the Yanks. Five Washington errors helped New York to four unearned runs.

Pete Runnels' triple and Dick Gernert's single in the seventh inning broke a 3-3 tie between Boston and Baltimore. Frank Sullivan was the winner and Skinny Brown the loser.

Harvey Kuenn's three-run homer powered Detroit to its victory over Kansas City. Jim Bunning hurled 5 1/3 innings, enough to earn him his 17th

HAPPY SOX MOB PITCHER—Gerry Staley, Sox pitcher, is mobbed by teammates after he retired the Cleveland Indians in the ninth inning with the bases loaded last night. Surrounding Staley (21) are Norm Cash (38), John Callison (9), and unidentified players. The Sox down the Indians 4-2 to wrap up their first American league crown since 1919. —(UPI Telephoto)

Idaho's Vandals Playing Their Toughest Schedule

By ROBERTA ULRICH
Moscow, Ida.—UPI—The University of Idaho Vandals, whipped in their first outing by Utah State, face the toughest schedule in their history this fall.

But coach Skip Stahley, who has improved Idaho football fortunes so much in his six years here that he received write-in votes for governor in one election, still is optimistic.

He won't make any predictions about how many games his Vandals will win, but he does say:

Improved Offense

"We'll be a better offensive team this year. We'll throw the ball better, partly because this season we have adequate receivers."

This theory didn't work out in the 14-0 loss to Utah State, but it would seem there is good material and the Vandals will come up with a few surprises.

The "adequate receivers" include one veteran end, Jim Norton, who caught 15 passes for 188 yards last year and topped the nation with nine pass interceptions, which he returned for 217 yards.

A pair of lettermen halfbacks were converted to ends during spring practice and Stahley was pleased with both Paul Wager and Hal Fisher. Reg Carolan, a 6-6, 220-pound sophomore, is another bright spot.

Three returning lettermen are available at quarterback, including seniors Gary Farnworth and Joe Espinoza and junior Sil Vial. All three can run or pass.

Lack Depth

But otherwise, the team lacks depth. Only 14 lettermen returned from last year's team that won four and lost five.

Although Stahley believes his team, playing from the spread-T, will hold up well on offense, he's worried about defense, except at the tackle positions. There he has senior Jim Prestel, who is 6-5 and weighs 245. Prestel has been drafted by the Cleveland Browns.

The rest of the Idaho schedule:

Sept. 26—at Washington; Oct. 3—at Arizona; Oct. 10—at Air Force Academy; Oct. 17—at Oregon State; Oct. 24—at Washington State; Oct. 31—Oregon; Nov. 7—Utah at Boise; Nov. 14—at College of Pacific; Nov. 21—Montana.

ELLIS FIGHTS CALHOUN

Chicago—UPI—Rudy Ellis gets a TV payday tonight, and he's assuring his fans he'll be back to collect more. Ellis, a 22-year-old Chicago middleweight, tangles with Rory Calhoun, a 25-year-old ring veteran from White Plains, N.Y., in the Wednesday TV fight feature. But he doesn't have much faith in the 6-3 odds against him.

TACKLE SIDELINED

Corvallis —UPI—Tackle Ed Kaokelauli of Oregon State is a doubtful participant in the Texas Tech game this Saturday, it was announced today. Doctors said a sprained knee suffered in the Southern California game Saturday will probably keep Kaokelauli from making the trip to Lubbock, Texas.

SOC. Center Sidelined By Injury

Ashland —Near-disaster hit the camp of the Red Raider football team at Southern Oregon college this week as it prepared for the game against Chico State in Chico Saturday night.

Phil Sword, two-time all-conference center choice, came up with twisted muscles in his back and is expected to miss the non-conference battle against the California rival.

Filling in for the injured veteran will be freshman Jess Munyon who was credited with playing a tremendous game against Hawaii by the Raider coaching staff.

Munyon will be one of six freshmen who will start on the defensive unit against Chico. The entire backfield unit on defense is made up of freshmen.

Safety back will be Crater's Wayne Allen, the only ballplayer to intercept a pass in the initial game of the season.

Clark Peterson of Cottage Grove and John Harvey of Medford will be the halfbacks. Willie Garner is the other linebacker and the fifth frosh while Dick Graves rounds out the six at guard.

John Buck is back in action on the practice field again this week after suffering from an injured knee. Buck, his speed from the service and his fresh is expected to help out in the backfield if we can get him healthy was the feeling in Coach Al Atkins mind, when quizzed about the ballplayer.

For the trip to Chico, the Raiders will take a 30-man traveling squad which will leave Friday afternoon.

The game will be at 8 p.m., daylight saving time on Saturday (7 p.m. Oregon standard time).

Southern Oregon's first home game will be Oct. 17 when the Raiders play Oregon Tech.
