

Grand Guardian Inspects Bethel; Initiation Held

Mrs. Joe Rogers, Independence, Ore., grand guardian of the International Order of Job's Daughters in Oregon, inspected Bethel 55 here at a meeting September 22 at the Knights of Pythias hall. Queen Barbara Gordon presided, and 20 girls were initiated.

The new members are the Misses Teresa Pitts, Carolyn Peterson, Diane Medcalf, Judith Mee, Dorothy James, Susan Root, Jeanne Salade, Penny Simmonds, Jocelyn Six, Lona Taylor, Judith Wood, Carol Adams, Kathleen Bowers, Claudia Edson, Christine Finch, Susan Gordon, Pamela Grove, Patricia Hardenburger, Sandra Irving and Ann Jensen.

Among the guests were Mrs. W. K. Sult, Medford, grand guide; L. R. Manning, Medford, vice associate grand guardian; Andrew Stevens, Ashland, a past associate grand guardian; Mrs. C. D. Elhart, Medford; Miss Sandra Sanner, Shady Cove, grand bethel page, and several bethel queens, princesses and guardians.

Mrs. Paul Selby announced the annual candy sale to begin in October.

Mrs. Rogers was assisted by Mr. Stevens during the inspection, and the grand guardian presented Queen Barbara Gordon a myrtlewood pin. An addendum was given in Mrs. Rogers honor, and she was presented a money tree.

The next meeting October 13 will be conducted by the Junior Bethel. A potluck supper for members and their families will precede the meeting.

Parents Attend Capping Service

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Garrett, route 3, box 54, are to be in Portland today for the capping exercises of student nurses at St. Vincent's hospital.

The Garretts' daughter, Jacqueline, a student at the University of Portland college of nursing, is among those who will receive caps at the 2 o'clock exercises.

Mrs. James LeRoy Irwin, the former Doloris Brown of Butte Falls, wore a dress which was first worn by her grandmother in 1903, at her recent wedding in Butte Falls Community Bible church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Brown, Butte Falls, and Mr. Irwin is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Irwin, also Butte Falls. The bride's dress was designed with high neck and a large ruffle accented the yoke and long full sleeves. She carried a white Bible with an arrangement of carnations encircling a pink rose. The couple are making their home in Butte Falls following a wedding trip to the coast.

Duplicate Players Here For Annual Tournament

Duplicate bridge players from throughout Oregon and northern California are in Medford this week end for the annual pairs tournament of Medford Duplicate Bridge club.

The first session was held Saturday evening with the second session to begin at 1 o'clock this afternoon at the Girls Community club.

Players are from Roseburg, Lakeview, Klamath Falls, Bend, Eugene, Grants Pass, Portland as well as the northern California points. At least 25 tables were expected to play. Al Gilhouse and Mrs. Patsy Gilhouse were champions last year.

During the regular play Tuesday at the club 13 tables participated. Mrs. Robert Elliott and Mrs. Ben Todd were first in the north-south position with 174½ points. Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Boyd were top scorers in the east-west position with 189 points.

Other high scores in the north-south position were received by Mrs. Richard Milstone and Mrs. Alto Pruitt, second, 173½; Mrs. George Rode and Mrs. Gilhouse, third, 167; and Robert Dickey and Leland Clark, fourth.

In the east-west position other high scores went to Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Ricker, second, 183½; Miss Isobel Stuart and Gen. J. P. Vachon, third, 179; and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smoot and Mrs. T. R. Eslinger and Paul McDuffee, tied for fourth with 161 points.

Workshop Slated By Presbyterians

Phoenix - Members of the Women's association of Phoenix First Presbyterian church met Thursday night to plan for a workshop October 7 when the church will be host to the Southwest Oregon Presbyterian.

Mrs. Enid Caster is chairman of the luncheon for that day and anyone wishing to assist is asked to contact her. The association members also discussed the December bazaar and voted to cooperate with the Community Center at the coming fall festival.

Mrs. Gertrude Watkins and Mrs. Floyd Jarman were hostesses.

Families Visit Nordwick Home

Recent valley visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Young and sons, Eric and Bradley, of Roseburg. They visited in the home of the Harry Nordwicks, 919 Reddy avenue.

Also visiting in the area were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heald and son, Robert, and Mrs. Roy Miller, Oakland, Calif. The two women visited their brothers, Harry, Roy and Lloyd Nordwick, all of Medford, this week.

Women to Hold Social Evening

Adkins-Hukill Ceremony First Read by New Pastor

Jacksonville - The first wedding ever performed by the Rev. King K. Jones Jr. was that of Miss Sylvia Ellina Hukill and Norman Wesley Adkins, which took place Saturday, September 5, in the First Presbyterian church of Jacksonville.

Bells of the historic old church were tolled by the bride's brother, Phillip Hukill, to herald the 7:30 o'clock ceremony. The event was the only wedding which has been held in the church this year.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hukill, route 4, box 383, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adkins, route 1, box 330, Lake Creek.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the church. The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a white lace dress of sheath design with an elbow-length veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Frank McKean, Medford, was maid of honor and wore a light blue sheath dress with white accessories and white carnations.

Fletcher Baker, Medford, was best man and Richard Adkins, Medford, brother of the bridegroom, and Arlen Hukill, Portland, brother of the bride, served as ushers.

Miss Marjorie Edens played the piano.

Flower girls were Donna and Connie Hukill, Medford, nieces of the bride.

At the reception which followed Mrs. Clyde Stewart cut the cake; Miss Elena Robinson served punch; and Mrs. Glenn Riggs assisted. Miss Linda Hardy took care of the guest book.

One hundred guests were present.

The bride attended schools in Griffin Creek and Jacksonville and the bridegroom attended schools in Griffin Creek and Eagle Point. They are making their home at 600 Benson street following their return from a wedding trip to southern California and Nevada.

The bride wore a mint green suit for traveling.

Founders Day To Be Observed

Medford Townsend club will celebrate Founders Day at a meeting Wednesday, September 30, at the Carpenters hall, 123½ West Main street.

The event will commemorate the 26th anniversary of the date when the movement was organized. Included on the program will be a "grab box." The entire program will be devoted to music and entertainment. Club members are reminded to invite guests.

At the meeting last week Mrs. Amelia Miller, Pearl Austin, David Wilson and E. K. Hewitt were honored with a birthday cake.

After the business meeting a letter and poem were read by the club chairman Leon Rusho from Frank K. Haskell, Salem.

SUNSHINE GIRLS OBLIGATE MEMBER

Miss Nancy Kadin and Miss Lanae Bostwick served refreshments at the September 24 meeting of Pythian Sunshine Girls. Miss Eileen Elzea, who was "obligated" at the meeting, will be initiated at a coming meeting.

The Rev. King K. Jones Jr., officiated for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Ellina Hukill and Norman Wesley Adkins, this being the first marriage ceremony the new minister had ever performed. He has been pastor of the church for about a year, but no one in his congregation had been married in the church, the historic First Presbyterian church of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wesley Adkins are shown coming down the steep steps of the First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, after their wedding September 5. The building was constructed in 1881 and is still in use by the congregation. The bride is the former Sylvia Ellina Hukill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hukill, Route 4, Jacksonville, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adkins, Route 1, Lake Creek.

Visitor Arrives For Anniversary

Mrs. George Van Fleet, Austin, Tex., arrived early last week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Brandon, 211 North Ivy street, who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary September 24. Mrs. Van Fleet also is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. A. Tingle, 848 West 14th street.

Eagle Point HEC Announces Meeting

Eagle Point - The Home Economic club of Eagle Point Grange will meet at the home of Mrs. Tom Vestal, Butte Falls highway, Eagle Point, Wednesday, September 30, for a 1 p.m. luncheon.

Last meeting of the club was at the home of Mrs. Lester Wertz, of Climax. Mrs. C. C. Hoover acted as chairman in the absence of Mrs. J. D. Brown. Roll call was answered by giving suggestions for bazaars.

Members were reminded to have their sewing, baking, and canning articles for the next Grange meeting. A letter was read from Mrs. Adams' sister, Miss Dorothy Jacobson, who is now on the island of Taiwan.
