Speed Saxon Forte Scout Data Shows

"Speed is their main forte. They go like the wind."

That's a report from the scouting information on the South Salem high football team. The Saxons meet the Medford high Black Tornado at the Medford stadium this Friday in a conflict of rated teams. Medford is first and tied for first in rating polls for Oregon preps. South Salem is ranked fifth and seventh.

Top speed boy in the Salem backfield is Ron Harp, 175-pound fullback and Oregon Class 4-1 champion in the 100-yard dash.

The Saxons, under the helm of coach Lee Gustafson, reportedly use the wing T with unbalanced line to the left with lots of flankers. "They are just about as big as we are," Tornado mentor Fred Spiegelberg commented.

Dean, Knight Miss

The Tornado squad this week has been bothered by a few colds and bruises Spiegelberg said this morning. All-state end Lowell Dean missed drill yesterday because of a cold. Tackle Lynn Knight, thec lub's punter is troubled by a hip hurt last winter in a toboggan accident and did not work out yesterday.

Quarterback Dick Ragsdale and halfback Mike Hood worked on punting and were doing "pretty good," the coach stated.

The Black Tornado went through some group work Tuesday with the linemen drilling on blocking and backs on pass defense. Drill on defense against Salem offense was begun. Medford's squad then held an offensive dummy scrimmage and followed this with a full pass scrimmage.

BEARS SHAKEN

Bowden Wyatt Coach of Week

Knoxville, Tenn. –(UPI)– You can have the razzle-dazzle – he'll take the simple things, like blocking and tackling and a rock-ribbed defense.

Sticking strictly to these sound tactics and giving the opponent every opportunity to make a costly mistake, he sent his team out to break the nation's longest winning streak last Saturday. His men did it with a 3-0 triumph over Auburn on Cotton Letner's 20-yard field goal in the second period – Auburn's first loss in 25 games.

He's Bowden Wyatt of Tennessee, honored today by United Press international as college football's "coach of the week" for the victory of his Vols over favored Auburn.

Auburn went into this game at Knoxville as a one-touchdown choice. But Tennessee went in burning for revenge, for last year the Volunteers failed even to make a first down as they were humiliated by Auburn in a nationally-televised game. And the Vols had Wyatt's solid tactics to bank on.

Cougars Worry Ducks' Mentor

Eugene, Ore.–(UPI) – Oregon coach Len Casanova said two Washington State players especially worried him as the Ducks drilled for their forthcoming Rose Bowl crucial against Washington State.

Casanova said versatile halfback Keith Lincoln and pass-catcher de luxe Gail Cogdill were the heart of the Cougar attack.

Casanova planned to drill his charges on defense for the second straight day today.

16 Amateurs Qualify For Centennial Golf

Deane Lambert, Medford, qualified for the Centennial Open golf tourney at Portland with a 77 card yesterday. Dr. Robert Buck, Medford, shot an 80 and failed to qualify. Cutoff point was a 78.

Portland–(UPI) – The nation's top golfers found the Portland Golf club course to their liking Tuesday as several of them cracked par over the 6,504-yard layout, scene of the first major national tourney here since 1955.

The $20,000 Centennial Open gets under way Thursday and runs through Sunday with 18 holes of medal play each day. A $3,000 pro-amateur event highlighted today's activities.

Bob Duden, the Northwest Open champion, showed his fellow professionals how it was done in a practice round with a five-under-par 67. Joining him in this score was Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., the 1951 national amateur champion.

Rudolph Gets 68

Mason Rudolph, winner of last week's Golden Gate Open in San Francisco, shot a 68 as did Don Whitt of Borrego Springs, Calif.; Dick Stranahan of Alameda, Calif., and Hillman Robbins, .1957 amatuer king from Memphis, Tenn.

Sixteen of 36 amateurs who played in a qualifying round Tuesday made the tournament. Leading the way was Jake Werschkul of Seattle with a 70.

Barry MacKay, Krishnan Win

Berkeley, Calif. –(UPI)– India's Ramanathan Krishnan and U. S. Davis Cup star Barry Mackay both posted easy victories Tuesday in the first round of the 70th Annual Pacific Coast Tennis championships.

Krishnan, top-seeded foreign player, breezed by Berkeley's Bill Freistad, 6-1, 6-2, while Mackay, seeded first, overpowered San Mateo's Norm Brooks, 6-2, 6-4.

Another Indian, Premjit Lall, went three sets before downing Charles Hickox, of Berkeley, 4-6, 6-2, 6-3.

In other men's singles matches, Sargio Iachhini of Italy defeated Steve Chandler, of Berkeley, 7-5, 6-2; Tom Brown, of San Francisco, defeated Ken Lang, of Richmond, 6-0, 6-2; Jack Douglas, of Santa Monica, rallied to stop Carl Noble, of Danville, Ill., 4-6, 6-0, 6-1; and Bill Quillian, of Seattle, defeated Don Jacobs, of Berkeley, 6-0, 6-2.

POWELL NAMED

Portland–(UPI) – A panel of sportswriters and sportscasters Tuesday named Dave Powell, Oregon fullback, as the "Oregon College Football Player of the Week." Powell scored three touchdowns in Oregon's 21-6 win over Utah. Howard Hogan, Oregon State tackle, was second. Honorable mention went to Bob Peterson, Oregon center; Tommy Lee, Willamette quarterback, and Jim Stinette, OSC fullback.

STICKS TO PREDICTION

Redwood City – (UPI)–Coach Red Hickey of the San Francisco Forty Niners today stuck by his prediction that the Forty Niners would upset the Rams when the two teams clash Sunday. In the teams' last three meetings, the Rams have scored 135 points to the Forty Niners 24, but Hickey vowed that "there's a spirit that's been catching on around here, and I expect it to hit a peak Sunday."

INDIANS SIGN PAPER

Cleveland –(UPI)– The Cleveland Indians have signed a working agreement with the Toronto Maple Leafs of the International league. Toronto replaces the Pacific Coast league's San Diego Padres, who announced last week they did not wish to renew their working agreement with Cleveland.

Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

Los Angeles–(UPI) – Fraley's follies and the week end football "winners"—along with a few rambling observations on the National League pennant scramble.

Game of the Week

Northwestern over Iowa–This is looking for the upset, what with Iowa rated a two-point favorite, but Dick Thornton and the Wildcats showed a devasting attack in walloping Oklahoma–despite that food poison excuse–and this could be the team of the year.

The East

Pitt over UCLA–It's easy to understand why there was a National League pennant playoff.

Princeton over Columbia–Neither the Braves nor Dodgers looked as if they wanted to win.

Dartmouth over Penn–The blue-plate special.

Also: Syracuse over Maryland, Yale over Brown, Penn State over Colgate, Holy Cross over Villanova, Cornell over Lehigh, Harvard over Bucknell.

The Midwest

Army over Illinois–Joe DiMaggio would have hit 100 homers in the Coliseum.

Michigan State over Michigan–The left field fence is a horror.

Indiana over Minnesota–It's a very easy nine iron shot.

Also: Purdue over Notre Dame, Missouri over Iowa State, Kentucky over Detroit, Wisconsin over Marquette, Baldwin Wallace over Toledo.

The West

Ohio State over USC–The Dodgers went into the second playoff game as if they had it won.

Nebraska over Oregon State. The Braves were a grim-faced lot.

Oregon over Washington State–They looked like a husband who had just put the best dishes in the clothes washer by mistake.

Also: Washington over Utah, Wyoming over Utah State, Idaho over Arizona, Brigham Young over Montana and Colorado State over Denver.

The South

LSU over Baylor–The World Series attendance record for one game is Cleveland's 86,288 in 1948.

Duke over Rice–Los Angeles had 93,103 for Campanella night.

Miami over Flordia State–They'd have trouble beating that even in the World Series.

Also Clemson over Georgia Tech, Tennessee over Mississippi State, Georgia over South Carolina, Auburn over Hardin-Simmons, West Virginia over George Washington.

The Southwest

Texas over California–Win, lose and no draw, the ball players are glad it's almost over.

TCU over Arkansas–The losers are sorry for the team that has to expend all that energy in the series.

SMU over Navy–As the man said, it's only money.

Also: Air Force over Trinity, Oklahoma over Colorado, Texas Tech over Tulsa, Texas Western over New Mexico, Arizona State over Montana State.

The average six-year-old in the U. S. has at least one decaycd, missing or filled permanent tooth and the average 14-year-old has at least 10.

HONOR FOR MacARTHUR

New Brunswick, N.J.–(UPI)– General of the Army Douglas MacArthur today was named to receive the gold medal award of the National Football foundation and Hall of Fame for his contributions to the sport. Chester J. Laroche, president of the foundation, said MacArthur will receive the award during the group's dinner in New York, Dec. 1.

STEELERS TRADE GLICK

Pittsburgh –(UPI)– The Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League traded defensive halfback Gary Glick to the Washington Redskins Tuesday for a future draft choice and picked up halfback Jack Call, a free agent who previously played with the Baltimore Colts.

Marijuana for Boy Brings Man's Arrest

Van Nuys, Calif. –(UPI)– Robert E. McDowell, 24, was ordered held for trial Tuesday on charges of giving a nine-year-old boy a marijuana cigarette as the boy was watering a lawn.

McDowell, a painter, was arrested a week ago after the boy, Robert F. Pierson, told his parents that McDowell stopped his car and gave him the cigarette.

WILLIE GETS FIVE

New York – (UPI) – Jockey Willie Shoemaker had five winners at Aqueduct Tuesday. Shoemaker's victories came aboard Francis S. $4.60, Hasty Shopper, $8.50, Promised Land $7.00, Prince Lewker $5.40 in the feature and Sid Old Boy $9.30.
