Black Tornado Encounters South Salem Friday Night

A school at which the production of frontrunner football teams has been the rule, rather than the exception, will provide the opposition for Medford high this Friday when the Black Tornado takes on the South Salem Saxons at 8 p.m. at the Medford stadium.

The Saxons, after slipping to a tie for third in 1958, are favored to regain the District 8 A-1 championship this fall. Last year's finish was the lowest for South Salem since the school opened in 1954. In fact, it's won or shared the title in every other year. In 1954 the Saxons shared the state diadem with Marshfield. They were runners-up in 1957 to Jefferson.

of the Saxons fairly good size. Listed weights show it lighter than Medford's but there's been considerable speculation in the Black Tornado camp that the actual weights are heavier than the program figures.

Possible offensive starters in the line are Don Waller and Covert, ends; Scott Nelson and Bennett, tackles; Rick Nelson and Ron Case, guards; and Gary Walls, center.

Gustafson's Saxon offense has been the T with unbalanced line to the left. He uses the single wing on occasion, but Bigham says not so far this year.

Look For Third Win
South Salem is looking for its third victory in four games while the Black Tornado will be out to make it four straight. The Saxons have defeated North Salem 32 to 20 and Albany 19 to 6 and lost to Milwaukie 13 to 18. Medford victories have been over Beaverton 33 to 0, Marshfield 39 to 21 and Orland, Calif., 51 to 13.

Of the Albany game last week end, Gustafson said he felt that Saxon downfield blocking was as good as it's ever been. He credited the line as a unit with blocking well to open the holes.

Coach Fred Spiegelberg's Black Tornado continued its tuning for the Saxons yesterday with about 45 minutes of scrimmages aimed at bolstering its defense. Offense was run in another 45 minutes of dummy scrimmage and there was tackling and punt return drill.

End Lowell Dean and tackle Lynn Knight were back with the squad yesterday. Dean had missed Tuesday's workout because of a cold and Knight was absent because of a hip ailment. However, Spiegelberg reported troubles to the depth at the right half slot. Mike Hood was healthy but Len Griggs was hobbled by a sore shoulder and Jim Barry by sore feet. Looking good last night at the position was Jim Schmidt, a junior. And, Spiegelberg said that Mike McCullough knows the position.

Shaw Bolsters
The mentor said that the defensive line has been bolstered by turnout of Chuck Shaw, 195-pounder. He joined the squad at the start of school, has come along and earned his right to play and may see service this Friday. He's a junior up from the jags.

Spiegelberg said that he still planned to rely on his two platoon offensive arrangements but with Dan Sieg likely at fullback no matter whether the Go team or the Shock team takes the field first.

On the Shocks are Bob Quinney and Booth Deakins, ends; Lynn Knight and John

A good number of reserved seats are still available for the Medford-South Salem high football game here Friday night, Lester Harris, Medford principal, reported. Some of these are choice seats, he indicated.

Speed has been a trademark of coach Lee Gustafson's South Salem crews. It's the same in 1959. Fullback Ron Harp and halfbacks Kim Clark, Ken Sawyer and Don Royce are real speedsters. Harp is state 100-yard sprint titlist and has done the century in :09.8.

Line Standouts

Tackle Woody Bennett and ends John King and Darrel Covert are listed as line standouts by Joe Bigham, sports writer for the Salem Capital Journal. Bigham calls the line

Talent Has First Home Grid Game

Talent High school, fresh from its 14 to 12 win over Chiloquin, the first win recorded by a Bulldog football team in two years, has spent the past week in preparation for its initial home game this Friday night. It plays Bonanza at 8 p.m.

Main stress this week has been on defense for the Bulldog footballers. There has been concentrated work on stopping both running and passing attacks, in hopes that they will be able to halt the thrusts of the Antlers. There also has been some work on smoothing out the wrinkles in Talent's own offense.

Listed by Coach Don Moore as starting players on offense were, John Kerns, center; Doyle Leek and Jerry Moore, guards; Morris Sterrett and Ernest Casland, tackles; and Tom Burnett and Bob Dickinson, ends.

St. Mary's Plays
Backfield consists of Don Skundrick and Bob Jacobs, halfbacks; Mike Jacobs, fullback, and Ed Seaver, quarterback.

There will be two changes on the defensive team with Fred Tycksen going in at a linebacker and Albert Back playing an end position. Larry Bradford, a regular starting tackle, won't be able to play this week end.

St. Mary's, the only other class B school in Jackson county that is playing football in the 5B district, will vie at home Saturday night. The Crusaders will entertain Chiloquin at the Medford High school stadium.

Ashland Entertains Crater High Crew

Ashland — Ashland high's Grizzlies face the Crater high football team here Friday night intent on making up for the 40 to 13 shellacking suffered at the hands of the Comets last fall.

It will be a non-league game. Basic fundamentals of blocking and tackling have had emphasis in workouts this week, Grizzly coach Warren Corey reported. The Ashlanders had shortcomings in the two departments against Klamath Falls last week end. Setting up a defense to meet Crater's diversified T attack has been another objective.

Two injuries were suffered by the Grizzlies in Monday practice. Quarterback Harley Dickerson, who was ticketed as a starter this week, turned his knee and right half Bob Boris turned an ankle. End Vern Speira has been ill.

SOC Red Raiders Travel To Linfield for Tussle

Ashland—Southern Oregon college ventures to McMinnville this week end to tangle with Linfield college in effort to stem a two game losing streak and bring back some notice to the Oregon Collegiate conference.

Since the season opened only Oregon Tech has won a game for the OCC. Eastern Oregon, Portland State, Oregon College of Education, and Red Raiders of SOC each have lost two games.

Linfield has been cutting through the OCC like a thrashing machine. The Wildcats have blasted OCE 52-6 and Portland's Vikings 34-0.

Looking at the 34 points scored against the Raiders, they will be nearly 30 point underdogs to the powerful Northwest conference foe.

Herman Quits At Milwaukee

Milwaukee (UPI)—The Milwaukee Braves, dethroned as National League champions by the Los Angeles Dodgers, began their retrenchment campaign Wednesday, announcing the resignation of one coach and unconditional release of another.

Coach Billy Herman, a member of the Braves' staff for two years and a star second baseman of the '30s and early '40s, quit to join his former teammate, manager Bill Jurgens of the Boston Red Sox. The two formed an outstanding second base combination with the Chicago Cubs.
