

Judge McCulloch Funeral Will Be Held Saturday

Portland—UPI—Funeral services will be Saturday at 10 a.m. here for retired U. S. District Judge Claude McCulloch, 71, who died in a Portland hospital Wednesday.

He retired as chief Oregon federal judge last Jan. 1 because of ill health and was succeeded by John F. Kilkenney, Pendleton.

Born in California
Judge McCulloch was born in Red Bluff, Calif., and attended schools here, Chicago University and Stanford. He was admitted to the Oregon bar in 1909 and practiced law in Baker from 1909 to 1915, where he married Erma Clifford in 1912.

Elected to the state Legislature at the age of 23, he went into law partnership with retired Gov. Oswald West. McCulloch rose to be state Democratic chairman in 1936 after he had moved to Klamath Falls.

Named By Roosevelt
President Roosevelt the next year named him to the federal bench. The jurist's father was the late Judge C. H. McCulloch of Baker county.

In a joint statement, U. S. Oregon District Judges Gus J. Solomon, William G. East and Kilkenney said Judge McCulloch "was studious and scholarly, and was widely known as an outstanding jurist. We are saddened by the death of our colleague and friend..."

Survivors, besides the widow, include a brother, Frank C. McCulloch, Portland.

Extradition of Suspect Planned

Long Beach, Calif. —UPI— Kenneth Schilling, 29-year-old Olympia, Wash., pipefitter, refused Wednesday to waive extradition to return to Washington and face rape-murder charges in the death of a nine-year-old Centralia girl.

Police detectives said they talked Wednesday to Centralia sheriff's officers and asked that extradition proceedings be instituted against Schilling immediately.

Schilling is held as a fugitive from Washington in connection with the rape-slaying of Sherry Edgell. Her body was found Friday near an airport in the vicinity of her home. The Lewis county sheriff's office issued an all-points bulletin for Schilling.

Schilling was arrested Tuesday night in a bar and offered no resistance.

Police here said they knew nothing of the crime and had asked Lewis county deputies to send detectives to southern California to carry out the investigation here. They said they did not know what Lewis county officers would do.

Officers said Schilling told them he came here on Sept. 27 and sold his car for $100 while staying with a friend.

Peterson Urged To Oppose Porter

Salem —UPI— State Republican Chairman Peter Gunnar said Wednesday that Ervin L. Peterson, assistant secretary of agriculture, is being urged to run for Congress against Democratic Rep. Charles O. Porter.

Peterson, a former dairyman from Coos county, was Oregon agriculture director before his federal appointment. He now is in charge of national forests.

Gunnar said he had heard a number of workers in the fourth district were thinking of drafting Peterson as a Republican congressional candidate.

Peterson is 30 years old.

Benton Elevator Strands Riders

Corvallis —UPI— The ups and downs of the Benton county court are normal today — after the court was left up in the air with an elevator it had purchased for the courthouse.

Half an hour after the court officially accepted the elevator for the 71-year-old building, the lift quit working. County Judge Emile Larkin and Commissioners Walter Schmidt and Melvin Hawkins, joy-riding in it at the time, were stuck near the third floor until an employee of the elevator company worked the cab to the main floor where the doors opened to free free them.
