

Salem Man Killed South of Stockton

San Francisco—Gentry O. Elgenson, 35, Salem, Ore., was killed early Sunday when his pickup truck over turned on French Camp road, four miles south of Stockton. A companion was seriously injured.

School News

St. Mary's School

Students who were official delegates of St. Mary's to various activities will inform the student body of their experiences in an all-school assembly Oct. 9.

Reporting on Boys' State will be Tom Tomjack and Vere Randolph. Both boys secured county offices, and Vere was elected treasurer of Beaver State. Anne Haviland will relate her experiences at Girls' State.

Sodality sent Tom Hersant, Tony Marshall, Kathy and Gerry Elbert, Dolores Cooper, Dorothy Rausch, and Mary Pat Naumes to San Francisco to the Summer School of Catholic Action. They will share their inspiration trying to help the other clubs and organizations to attain higher standards.

John Snider, who represented St. Mary's at the Student Council Workshop in Eugene, will suggest ways of improving interschool and public relations.

Members of St. Mary's High school voted for minor class officers last week. Class presidents were elected in the spring so that Student Council could be fully organized at the beginning of the new year.

Sophomores chose Susan Reavis, president; Doug Snider, vice president; Virginia Rausch, secretary; and Jean Boat, treasurer. President Anne Manno, Vice President Dave Rouhier, Secretary Mary Pat Naumes, and Treasurer Fred Lucas. The B division selected President Friedrich Burich, Vice President Florian Shasky, Secretary Anne Bennett, and Treasurer Mike Lewis.

Seniors are led by Tom Tomjack, president; Vice President Ron Daley; Secretary Kathy Elbert, and Treasurer Don Davy.

The two freshmen groups will delay the election of officers for some weeks yet.

Club membership has become established and officers have been chosen for the year. Sodality has Tom Hersant for prefect, aided by Dolores Cooper, vice prefect; and secretary - treasurer, Geraldine Elbert.

Athletes are headed by President Roger Hout, Vice President Al Yates, Secretary-Treasurer Florian Shasky, and Chaplain Tom Tomjack. Pep club elected Ann Darland president, Anne Bennett, vice president, and Patty Calhoun, secretary-treasurer.

Heading the Durocher Chapter of National Honor Society is Tom Depner. He is supported by Vice President Florian Shasky and Secretary-Treasurer Dorothy Rausch.

Sophomore class President Susan Reavis has announced plans for the annual freshman welcoming party and dance to be presented in the gym Oct. 9 at 2 p.m.

The event will include a number of group stunts and skits presented by the freshmen for the entertainment of the entire student body. Master of ceremonies, Doug Snider, will introduce the Frosh and direct events.

Arrangements have been made for a sock-hop following the other entertainment. Refreshments will be served.

Mass of the Holy Ghost was offered Friday, Oct. 2, by the Very Reverend Carl Mai and the student body to ask God's blessing to help both teachers and students throughout the year.

The Marian Choir led the students in the singing of the Mass.

Ten Lancettes presented a skit at the Friday afternoon Pep Rally in which they presented the growth of cheerleading through the years.

Dressed in the style of former decades, Ann Darland, Patty Calhoun, Carol Valentine, and Andrea Lewendowski attempted to recreate the days of long ago. Today's modes were shown by Mary Jo Batzer, Anne Haviland, Lynne Parsons, Dolores Cooper, and Daryl Zappel.

A penalty - singing the School Song before the student body - was inflicted on those not wearing the traditional blue and white.

After Coach McKibbin introduced the team, Father Ilg encouraged attendance at the home game Saturday night.

Virginia had 2,817 irrigated acres in 1949 and by 1954 these projects had increased to 21,805 acres.
