Black Tornado Continues Top Choice of Coaches

Portland –(UPI)– The raging Black Tornado of Medford continued in first place today in this week's Oregon Journal coaches poll of state A-1 prep football powers.

Medford again took seven of eight votes for first place, a total of 79 points. Jefferson remained in second place and Pendleton claimed 62 points and moved into third.

In the A-2 poll, Vale remained in the No. 1 spot with 77 points and Willamina took a firmer hold on second place.

School records in brackets and point totals:

A-1

1. Medford (4-0) 79
2. Jefferson (4-0) 73
3. Pendlton (4-0) 62
4. Marshfield (3-1) 57

Odd-Ball Offenses Set Unusual Grid Problems

San Francisco–(UPI)–The little matter of odd-ball offenses is sending defensive-minded coaches out of their minds this year on the intercollegiat gridirons.

"I don't know what I'm going to do against Washington Saturday," Cactus Jack Curtice, Stanford coach, said today. "I've had my top scout, Dutch Fehring, following them and he tells me that so far they have used 14 different varieties of offenses."

Variety In Attack

But the Huskies aren't the only club with the multiple offense.

"We have been using between six and seven types of offenses," says coach Len Casanova of Oregon.

They all must be good because the Webfoots are unbeaten this year with victories over Stanford, Utah and Washington State.

But hear the sad story of Joe Verducci, San Francisco State coach with a 3-0 record this year.

"Occidental shows a spread of 15 yards on each side of the center. On the right are four linemen; on the left two linemen—the guards being more than 30 yards apart.

"Then it shows two backs behind the four linemen; and two more backs behind the other two linemen on the left side.

"On top of that, nine yards back of the center, is another back.

"The way I figure this all out is that Occidental has been playing 12 men all year—but the opposition is so confused with players spread all over the field that no one has noticed it yet."

It used to be the single wing and-or the T-formation. But now you can take your choice: single wing, double-wing, multiple wing, T-formation, Split-T, spread formation, etc.

As a matter of fact, it has got to the place where a coach can't even have good nightmares any more. He's too confused to dream.

Efficiency of Grid Officials Noted by Coach

By PAUL DIETZEL
Head Coach
Louisiana State University
(Written for UPI)

Baton Rogue, La. – (UPI) – Kill the umpire!

How many times have we heard that cry?

Saturday afternoon in Shreveport that feeling entered my thinking late in our game against Baylor.

We had just accomplished a rather spectacular play good for a touchdown, only to notice back up the field that an official had dropped a red flag. Inasmuch as the official was from the Southwest conference, of which Baylor is a member, some real skullduggery had apparently just been accomplished.

The play was a fine screen pass to our right halfback Johnny Robinson, who behind a fine wave of blockers had traveled down to the 15-yard line and then lateralled to our right table, Bo Strange, who raced into the end zone for a score.

The natural reaction was that the officials were trying to "hold down the score" and the partisan crowd reacted with a chorus of "boos". But after carefully scrutinizing our game movies, we found that that official was right.

Actually, we examined the pictures on each penalty and we had lots of them, and found that for some unknown reason, we deserved every one of them. Frankly, we have been able to prove by our movies that we earn nearly every penalty we receive.

After having the opportunity to meet and become acquainted with many officials throughout our section of the country, it has been a real pleasure to see how really efficient our officials are.

Against New Franchise

Washington – (UPI) – Chief Justice Earl Warren has been asked to block any immediate plans to move the Washington Senators' baseball franchise away from the nation's capital.

H. Gabriel Murphy, who owns more than one-third of the stock in the club, filed a petition which, if granted by Warren, would tie up club President Calvin Griffith in any effort to move the ball club to another city – possibly Minneapolis.

Warren, a baseball fan himself, was asked by Murphy Monday to issue a temporary restraining order that would bar Griffith from initiating any franchise change.

Aragon Scores Split Decision

Santa Monica, Calif. – (UPI) – Golden Boy Art Aragon, 151, Los Angeles, scored a split decision over Peter Schmidt, 147, Jersey City, N.J. Monday night in a 10-round main event bout at Santa Monica Civic Auditorium.

Ringsiders agreed that Schmidt was not connecting often although he looked busy during the fight.

Referee Tommy Hart called it 98-93 for Aragon; Judge Jimmy Wilson had it 98-94 for Aragon, but Judge Frank Holborow scored in 97-96 for Schmidt.

The Golden Boy relied mostly on his left hand and swung free and easy against the windmilling Schmidt, the Romanian welterweight champion.

INJURY SIDELINES SACHS

Princeton, N. J.–(UPI)–Danny Sachs, Princeton's backfield ace who injured his left shoulder last Saturday against Columbia, definitely will be missing from his familiar tailback slot Saturday when the Tigers meet Penn State.

Stanford, Calif. – (UPI) – The Stanford Indians schedule a heavy workout on defense today.

Strontium Removal From Milk Planned

Washington – (UPI) – Government scientists announced plans today to develop methods of using in dairy plants a newly discovered process for removing deadly radioactive strontium-90 from milk.

Agriculture Department spokesmen emphasized that the levels of radioactive fallout from past atomis tests "do not justify action to decontaminate milk supplies."

But, officials said, the new research project would provide "practical answers to problems that might arise" if nuclear fallout increased in the future.

Auto Accidents Reported to Police

Two automobile accidents were reported to state police Monday afternoon and evening.

At 4:45 p.m. two vehicles collided on Highway 99 four miles south of Medford. According to police an automobile, operated by Daisy Victoria Miller, 82, of route 1, box 294, Talent, was traveling south when it turned into the northbound lane apparently intending to head north. Her vehicle struck one operated by Don Dick Hickey, 33, of 791 Cherry st.

Police informed Daisy Miller that a complaint would be signed against her for failing to drive on the right side of the highway.

Later Monday a vehicle driven by Ervin Henry Wellarding, 49, of 1404 East Main st. struck a steer on Highway 99 north of Gold Hill. The animal, owned by George McCullom, Old Stage rd., was badly injured, police said, and had to be shot.

Dodgers Nab Go Motto From Sox

Los Angeles – (UPI) – "One to go, go, go" was the twist the Los Angeles Dodgers gave to the White Sox motto, "go, go, go," after taking a 3-1 lead in the World Series Monday.

The Dodgers version of "go, go, go" was chalked on a blackboard in the team's dressing room and drew smiles from the players as they trooped wearily to the showers.

Needing but one game to win the 1959 world championship, the Dodgers were still not boisterous.

Gil Hodges, the hero of the game with his solo eighth inning homer that put the Dodgers out in front, 5-4, took a joshing from his teammates because his mouth was smeared with lipstick.

"That lipstick is my wife's," he explained sheepishly.

Roger Craig Downcast

Another center of attraction was 24-year-old Larry Sherry, who got credit for his first World Series pitching victory by hurling two scoreless innings in relief of Dodger starter Roger Craig.

Craig was downcast in the dressing room. You might think he had lost the ball game because of the home run ball he pitched to White Sox catcher Sherm Lollar in the seventh with two men on.

"I tried to throw him a slider low and outside," said the lanky pitcher sadly, "but I'm afraid it got over the plate more than I wanted."

Manager Walter Alston who would make no predictions about the length of the series but said he hoped the Dodgers did not have to use their plane transportation to Chicago, said, "I probably went one man too far with Craig. I went out and asked him if he was tired, he said 'no' so I let him pitch to Lollar."

In the White Sox dressing room, Lollar said the home run ball broke inside to him.

"There was nothing cheap about that one," he said, "even though it went over the left field screen. I would have been a homer at Comiskey Park in Chicago. I'd say our trouble is that we're not running like we did during regular season. These Dodgers are the best running club we've met aside from the Yankees."

Manager Al Lopez would not concede defeat despite the third loss to the Dodgers.

"We still have a helluva chance," he said. "We haven't done it the easy way all year and we might as well figure we won't have it easy the rest of the way."

SKI GROUP FORMED

Walla Walla, Wash. – Machinery was set in motion here recently for operations by the region's newest skiing organization, the Pacific Northwestern Ski Instructors association. Members of the board of directors met to elect an executive committee and formulate plans for the approaching 1959-60 ski season. Named to head the organization and its various divisions was Joe Harlacher, Seattle, chairman.

Gil Hodges Gives Views Of World Series Victory

EDITORS NOTE: Gil Hodges put the Dodgers up three games to one over the White Sox Monday when his eighth inning homer led them to a 5-4 victory. He tells his impressions in the following dispatch.

By GIL HODGES
As Told To The UPI

Los Angeles–This game of baseball has me buffaloed.

Remember the 1952 World Series against the Yankees? I couldn't buy a hit in 21 trips.

Now it's seven years later and I already have five hits. How are you going to figure it? It sure beats me.

Funny thing, when Gerry Staley was in the National league, I never had too much luck against him. He had good stuff then and I think he has even more now.

That was a real good pitch he threw me in the eighth inning. It was a sinker away from the plate and generally those kind are tough to pull.

But the moment I hit it I knew it was gone. That ball made a mighty nice sight sailing into the seats.

Waved to Wife

Maybe you may have noticed that I waved to my wife, Joan, as I trotted around the bases. That's a habit I got into while the club still played in Brooklyn.

Then, after the game was over, she came down the runway and kissed me as I was going to the clubhouse. She also said something to me but in all that noise and excitement I couldn't hear exactly what it was.

I'd have to say things look pretty good for our nine now, but none of us is getting too cocky.

We all remember what happened between the Yankees and Brav s i last year's Series. Milwaukee jumped to a three-game to one lead but the Yankees wound up as world champs.

We don't want that happening to us.

I don't think it will.

Favorite Role Given To Stitch

New York – (UPI) – Welterweight contender Rudell Stitch is a slight favorite at 6-5 to beat Ralph Dupas at Louisville, Ky., Wednesday night, in a TV 10-rounder that apparently tops this week's boxing schedule.

Friday night's TV-radio bout at Philadelphia brings together light heavyweight contender Von Clay and substitute Kid Sixto Rodriguez at Philadelphia. Clay is favored at 3-1.

Stitch Favored

In Wednesday's fight, Stitch of Louisville is favored over Dupas of New Orleans because of his combined boxing-punching ability. However, Dupas is rated at No. 3 by Ring Magazine, well above Stitch, at No. 8. Their bout will be televised nationally by ABC.

For Friday's 10-rounder at Philadelphia, Rodriguez of Mountain View, Calif., was substituted on Saturday for Jesse Bowdry of St. Louis, who withdrew because of a virus ailment. Rodriguez lost but one of his 28 bouts and had one draw. He is unranked. Clay is rated sixth.

Their bout will be televised and broadcast nationally by ABC.

This week's boxing schedule includes:

Tuesday—Sacramento, Calif., Joey Lopes vs. Hilario Morales; Stockton, Calif., Fernando Sota vs. Benny Casing; Dallas, Tex., Don Fleeman vs. Buddy Turman; Miami Beach, Fla., Randy Sandy vs. Jimmy Meecham; Erie, Pa., Jim Pettaway vs. Ray Powell.
Wednesday—Louisville, Ky., Rudell Stitch vs. Ralph Dupas (TV).
Thursday—Los Angeles, Kid Irapuato vs. Pilon Cervantes.
Friday—Philadelphia, Von Clay vs. Kid Sixto Rodriguez (TV); Havana, Chico Morales vs. Douglas Villant.
Saturday—Los Angeles, Reybon Stubbs vs. Pat Lowry.

ARMY'S ANDERSON OK

West Point, N.Y.—(UPI)—All American halfback Bob Anderson of Army may be able to play football again in a couple of weeks.

When the fleet back injured his knee during last Saturday's game against Illinois, it was feared he would be out for the rest of the season. However, a closer examination Monday revealed he had not injured the knee as badly as it had been first announced.

INDIANS RELEASE TWO

Cleveland–(UPI)–Granny Hamner and Elmo Valo, a pair of veterans acquired by the Cleveland Indians to help in their abortive drive for the American league pennant, have been given their unconditional releases.

PISTONS DROP TWO

Detroit –(UPI)– Rookie guards Lowery Stephen of Austin College, Tex., and Jack Quiggle of Michigan State were released by the Detroit Pistons of the National Basketball association Monday, leaving the club with 12 players, one over the Oct. 18 season-opening limit.

Medford, Crater Friday Opponents

Medford, Crater and Grants Pass High schools contend in their first Southern Oregon conference football games of 1959 this Friday night.

Crater will oppose Medford in the seventh annual encounter between the two schools at the Medford stadium. Klamath Falls will vie at Grants Pass.

Ashland, other member of the Class A-1 circuit, will be "at home" to A-2 Phoenix.

Only one previous Southern Oregon loop (District 6) conflict has been played. It saw Klamath lick Ashland 19 to 6. Ashland nosed out Crater 7 to 0 last Friday in a game which did not count.

Two Friday scraps are billed in the A-2 Rogue league with Glendale vying at Eagle Point and Henley meeting Illinois Valley at Cave Junction.

SM To Yreka

In District 5B Malin will play at Talent on Friday. Other week end gamcs within the circuit are Merrill at Bonanza and Sacred Heart versus Chiloquin.

St. Mary's, B loop leader, goes to Yreka, Calif., on Friday.

Three ninth grade games on the week end will match teams of Southern Oregon conference cities. South Grants Pass opposes Crater at Central Point Friday and Ashland plays at North Grants Pass. Hedrick of Medford meets Klamath Falls at KF on Saturday.

Among eighth graders McLoughlin clashes at Central Point on Thursday evening and Hedrick journeys to South Grants Pass on Friday afternoon.

Medford's seventh grade intramural football slate begins on Friday afternoon. McLoughlin Whites play at Hedrick Reds and Hedrick Blues at McLoughlin Blacks.
