

Three Top Teams Victorious As Few Grid Upsets Occur

By JOE SARGIS
Salted Press International

Northwestern, Texas and Georgia Tech, three schools expected to give Louisiana State its toughest tussle for national honors, got by important tests on Saturday's college football program, marred this week by only a handful of upsets.

Northwestern outlasted a stubborn Minnesota defense for a 6-0 victory, Texas clawed to a 19-12 decision over rebounding Oklahoma in the 54th game of their long series, and Georgia Tech squeaked past Tennessee, 14-7, in a renewal of their colorful rivalry.

The Wildcats, now 2-0, are ranked second; the Longhorns and Yellow Jackets, each 4-0, are ranked fourth and fifth, respectively, by the United Press International board of coaches.

Other contenders in the top 10 also fared well. Eighth-ranked Purdue ripped Wisconsin, its chief rival outside of Northwestern for Big Ten honors, 21-0, and 10th-ranked Iowa routed Michigan State, 37-8. Wisconsin was ranked between Purdue and Iowa. Third-ranked Southern California was idle while top-ranked and defending national champion L.S.U., met Miami (Fla.) in a night game and seventh-ranked Mississippi played Vanderbilt, also at night.

Set Biggest Reversals
Penn State, Cornell, Pennsylvania and Illinois provided the day's biggest form reversals. The Nittany Lions, ranked 12th, upset highly regarded Army, 17-11; Cornell tripped Harvard, 20-16; Pennsylvania, long the east's doormat, picked on Princeton 18-0 for its third straight after four frustrating seasons, and Illinois proved last Saturday's victory over Army was no fluke by dumping Ohio State, a 4½ point favorite, 9-0, in a bruising Big Ten skirmish.

Bob Eickhoff, a 157-pound soph quarterback, came off the bench in the final period to direct Northwestern on a 86-yard march that produced the only touchdown in its victory over Minnesota. The Gophers worked the ball down to the Wildcat 18 in the final minute of play but the drive ended when Mark Johnson intercepted a wayward pass.

Rene Ramirez, Jim Saxton and Mike Cotton were the heroes in Texas' second straight victory over Oklahoma. Last year the Longhorns whipped the Sooners, 15-14, for the first time since 1951. Oklahoma scored both of its touchdowns in the first period, but fell behind to stay in the second when Texas scored twice and converted once.

Fred Braselton's passing and Taz Anderson's running basted Georgia Tech to its victory over Tennessee. Anderson scored on a 10-yard pass from Braselton for the first Tech score and plunged one yard for the second after Tennessee had tied it on a four-yard Gene Etter to Marvin Phillips pass.

Subdues Wisconsin
Purdue, looking for its first trip to the Rose Bowl, had little trouble subduing Wisconsin, which made it easy for the Boilermakers by fumbling five times. Purdue defenders recovered four of them and intercepted three passes in the rain-swept game at Lafayette, Ind. Bernie Allen passed twice to Len Jardine and once to Joe Kulbacki for Purdue's scores.

Iowa, packed by quarterback Olen Treadway and fleet halfback Bob Jeter, had too many guns for Michigan State, scoring in every period but the third.

Richie Lucas, a tireless do-it-yourself quarterback, set up all of Penn State's scoring, plunging over twice and maneuvering the Nittany Lions into position for a field goal by Sam Stellatella. A field goal by Tom Blanda and a 12-yard pass by Joe Caldwell accounted for Army's scoring.

Cornell's upset was produced on a 76-yard desperation, run-pass play by quarterback Marcy Tino and fullback Phil Taylor in the final minute of play; third-string halfback Pete Shantz scored two second period TD's to lead Pennsylvania to its win over Princeton, and soph Mel Meyers, who led the Illini to its

GP Eleven Thumps KF In SO Tilt

Grants Pass - Grants Pass high, battered in three previous encounters this fall, came into its own here Friday night and thumped Klamath Falls 31 to 0 in a Southern Oregon conference game.

All the scoring was in the second half. Klamath Union had been an at least slim favorite in the game.

The Cavemen hit pay territory three times in the third quarter and twice in the fourth.

Roger Hoatson ran 10 yards up the middle for the first marker. Harvey Graham touchdown on one and 16-yard runs. Oscar Neely toured end for three yards and a goal and Larry Janssen scored on a 13-yard pass play with Rex Benner throwing. Steve Bennett kicked one extra point.

Grants Pass had 249 yards from scrimmage and Klamath 139. The Cavemen collected 13 first downs and KF eight.

Mich. Nips Beavers 18-7

Ann Arbor, Mich. - (UPI) - University of Michigan football team poked over two touchdowns in the final period Saturday in an 18-7 victory here over Oregon State college.

The Wolverines kicked a field goal in the first quarter. In the third OSC's Beavers went in front 7-3.

Michigan dominated the scrimmage play with 252 yards on the ground and 22 first downs. It held the Beavers to 68 net yards rushing. OSC, which had nine first downs led 34 to 80 in passing yardage. But the Wolverines had eight completions on 16 passes while the Beavers connected on seven of 20.

upset over Army last week, and John Counts combined on a 73-yard TD pass to sink Ohio State.

Yreka Wins; St. Mary's Impressive in Scuffle

Although early awe proved costly, the Crusaders of St. Mary's high of Medford could hold their heads high after an impressive football performance Friday night on California soil.

The Miners of Yreka touchdown on a 70-yard march in the first quarter to tip the Crusaders 7 to 0.

First awed by the size of the Yreka, St. Mary's players soon found that they could handle their bigger foes and came back to dominate the game. Coach Tom Rice of the California club said that coach Bill McKibbin's Medfordites ran his Yreka completely off their feet. He declared that the hard tackling and blocking of the Crusaders was exceptional.

Pass Dropped
Two passes of Bob Evans, which would have gone for SM touchdowns, slipped from the hands of ends Roger Hout and Ron Daley. A fumble on another seeming touchdown drive cost St. Mary's loss of the ball.

St. Mary's outgained the Miners 195 yards to 98. Yreka made no yards from passing while the Crusaders got 46 and the California gang was held to minus yardage in the second half. The Crusaders had nine to eight edge in first downs.

McKibbin had high praise for the St. Mary's defensive team.

Dan Behnke went the last three yards for the Yreka TD. He passed to Dennis McCarthy for the extra point.
