

Thomas Gail and Bride Make Home In Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Andrew Gail, whose wedding took place last month in Eugene, are making their home in Portland. The bride is the former Juanita Emma Niemi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Niemi, Eugene, and the bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Budd Gail, 416 South Groveland avenue, this city.

The bridegroom is a medical student at the University of Oregon School of Medicine, and Mrs. Gail is attending the University of Oregon School of Nursing.

Their marriage ceremony took place September 6 in Condon chapel, First Congregational church, Eugene, with the Rev. Wesley Goodson Nicholson, officiating. The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a gown of white lace and net with long sleeves inset with lace and full skirt ending in a chapel-length train. She wore a long veil and her wedding bouquet was of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Drew Long, Portland, was the bride's honor attendant. She wore a ballerina-length gown of white faille with brown and green floral print designed with an over-skirt of matching tulle. Her fluted veil was of tulle and she carried a cascade of chrysanthemums.

Miss Claudia Simmons, bridesmaid, wore a gown to match Mrs. Long's. Miss Milla Ann Niemi, junior bridesmaid for her sister, was dressed in a frock of white pleated nylon with tulle veil in floral print.

Joel Niemi, brother of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Craig Phillips, Medford, was best man for the bridegroom and Dewey Gail, brother of the bridegroom, Robert Campbell, Salem, Arthur Lewis and Edwin Everts, both Portland, were ushers.

Mrs. Robert Brakell played the wedding music and Romeo Arnes was soloist.

The reception which followed was in the Wheeler room of the church. Mrs. Robert Freerksen and Mrs. Robert Street cut the wedding cake; Miss Grace Robertson and Mrs. Lydia Ramsey, San Diego, aunt of the bride, poured.

Assisting were Mrs. Clifford Allen, Miss Irene Street and Miss Mary Ellen Juif. Mrs. Thornton Gale, aunt of the bride, took charge of gifts and Miss Alexa Hibbard, Medford, the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a suit of pastel checked wool and white accessories. Attending the wedding from Medford were the bridegroom's parents; his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Geritsen and their children, Larry and Sally, and Mrs. Stanley E. Phillips and son, Scott.

Among other guests coming from a distance were the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Norman Gail, Miss Grace Gail and Donald Gail, Gold Hill, another aunt, Mrs. Robert Gail and daughter, Candice, Rogue River; the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Lawrence Pennington, formerly of Medford and now of Redding, Calif., a great-uncle, Merle Pennington, Portland; Mrs. Robert Campbell, Salem, and Mrs. Willetta Niemi, San Francisco.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Willamette university, where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi, and his bride took her pre-nursing studies at the University of Oregon.

Home Rites Wed Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rominger are making their home at 375 South Central avenue, following their wedding October 3 at the home of the bride's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boling, 359 North Eighth street, Central Point. The bride is the former Mrs. Bessie Williams of Central Point.

The Rev. Bruce Weber of Central Point First Presbyterian church officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 24 members of the couple's immediate families. Fall flowers decorated the home for the 7:30 o'clock evening rites.

The bride wore a beige suit with fur trim and pink accessories.

Mrs. Earl Boling attended her mother. She wore a beige knit suit with brown accessories.

Mr. Boling served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. John Higginbotham, granddaughter-in-law of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake she had baked.

Attending the wedding and reception were all six children of the bride including Kenneth Williams, Pico, Calif., and Mrs. Floyd Lefter, Alhambra, Calif. One great granddaughter of the bride also attended.

The bride is a saleslady at F. W. Woolworth here. Mr. Rominger is with the SOS Packing company.

Paynes Return

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Payne, Coker Butte road, recently returned from a two weeks trip into Canada.

The couple drove north visiting The Dalles and Grand Coulee dams prior to arriving at Lake Louise, Banff and Glacier National parks. One of the highlights of the trip was a 200-mile drive through the Big Bend country from Golden, British Columbia, to Revelstoke, by the way of Boat Encampment.

The Paynes traveled to Vancouver via Kamloops, and the Frazier river highway. From Vancouver they took the ferry to Victoria and prior to re-entering the United States stopped at several islands in Juan de Fuca Straits.

They also visited the Olympic National forest, hiking through the rainforests, prior to returning to the valley down the Oregon coasts.

Reinking-Jones Ceremony Held in Episcopal Church

A wedding of interest to valley residents was held September 13 at Trinity Episcopal church, Bend, when Miss Judith Carolyn Jones became the bride of William Edward Reinking, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reinking, Jacksonville. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Oliver R. Jones, Odin Falls ranch, Redmond.

The Rev. Albert Lucas officiated at the double ring ceremony. Dallas Quick played the organ wedding music and accompanied James Farmer Jr., soloist. White flowers and lighted candles decorated the church for the rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white tissue taffeta floor length gown fashioned with bustle back. It was appliqued with Alencon lace and had sequin and pearl embroidery on the bodice. Her veil of illusion was held by a wreath of flowers and seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Margo Oliver, Menlo Park, was maid of honor for her cousin. Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Thomas, Miss Sallie Nielsen, both Bend, Miss Barbara Moore, Miss Alice Stewart, both Portland, and Miss Kay Smith, Salem. They wore frocks of white taffeta fashioned with bell skirts and carried white chrysanthemums and red carnations.

Michael Lusk, Chico, Calif., served as best man for his cousin. Seating the guests were Gary Heinke, Portland; Gary Brown, Albany; Jerry Gatlin, formerly of Medford and now of Lebanon; all Phi Delta Theta fraternity brothers of the bridegroom, Darrell Ross, Medford, and Donald Wendt, Jacksonville.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Jones wore a frock of two shades of blue satin damask with matching accessories and white orchid corsage. Mrs. Reinking chose a beige lace dress with brown accessories and brown orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert L. Cutter, Bend. Mrs. Jack Halbrook and Mrs. Robert Thomas cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Sandra Taylor and Miss Sue Thatcher poured the coffee and Miss Janet Chandler presided at the punch bowl. Miss Francis Pipes was in charge of the guest book and Sally Hussy and Ann Narver passed the package of rice.

Mr. Jones proposed a toast to the newlywed couple, the same as had been given for
