

Lodge Plans For Annual Masquerade

Gold Hill - Amethyst Rebekah lodge completed plans for the annual teachers' masquerade party, honoring all teachers of both Gold Hill schools and Crater High school, at a meeting held Wednesday evening in the Odd Fellows hall.

The event is sponsored by nine civic groups, and will be held Thursday, October 29, at 7:30 p.m. in the IOOF hall.

All adults of the community are invited to attend the affair, even though they are not a member of one of the sponsoring groups. All women attending, except the teachers, are to take a pie.

Mrs. Daniel Stewart, vice-grand of Amethyst Rebekah lodge has been named general chairman for the party. She said each organization will provide one skit, stunt, or game for the entertainment. Teachers will be asked to present something for the program.

Best Costumes

Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes.

Other sponsoring groups are the Odd Fellows lodge, Past Noble Grands club, Amethyst Rebekah Friendship club, Gold Hill Grange, Gold Hill Parent-Teacher association, Gold Hill Health unit, Gold Hill Garden club, and the Gold Hill Lion club.

Mrs. Stewart presided at the business session Wednesday in the absence of the noble grand, Mrs. Jerry Herrington.

Mrs. Edith Thompson and Mrs. Hannah Routh were in charge of serving refreshments during the social hour.

The next meeting of the lodge will be held Wednesday, October 21 at 8 p.m.

Blue Star Mothers To Meet Thursday

Blue Star Mothers will meet at 10 a.m. Thursday, October 15, at the home of Mrs. Fred Middlebush, 1098 Hillton road. Those attending will work on afghans for residents of the Camp White domiciliary.

A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon and a short business meeting will be held with Mrs. Mary Note, president, in charge.

John Hobart Wentworth didn't have a word to say, political or otherwise, when introduced to U. S. Senator and Mrs. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota at a breakfast in Medford Thursday morning but it is plain to be seen that he met with the visitor's approval. The senator and his wife have a daughter and three sons and are known as a devoted family. John, the small son of Tribune Reporter and Mrs. Eric Wentworth, was brought to the breakfast because his parents couldn't find a baby sitter at such an early hour. Since the conversation ran to such comments as "isn't he a darling baby?" no statement as to political affiliations were made.

65th Wedding Anniversary Observed by Couple Today

Cave Junction-Friends and relatives will call on Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wilber from 10:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. today during an open house to celebrate the couple's 65th wedding anniversary.

Pioneers of the Illinois valley, they established a home on the West Side road on the west fork of Illinois river in 1925 and have lived in that vicinity ever since. They now make their home near their daughter, Mrs. Earl Boyd.

Mrs. Wilber's interesting "bottle house" and her collection of buttons are well known in the area, and persons from many states and several foreign countries have visited the Wilber home to view the collections.

Those arriving from out of town to assist include their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Wilber, Yamhill; a daughter, Mrs. H. W. Vollmer, Glendale, Calif.; a granddaughter, Mrs. E. J. Berthaud, Santa Rosa, Calif.; and a niece, Mrs. Merle Barrows, Cloverdale, Calif.

Mr. Wilber recently observed his 90th birthday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wilber are in good health and are looking forward to visiting with friends during today's open house, friends report.

A hanging vine can be grown from a sweet potato by planting it in a hanging basket or pot of sand, then watering occasionally. The leaves, dark green, will resemble ivy.

Daughter Arrives For Visit Here

Visiting at the home of her parents in Medford is Mrs. Donn G. Forbes, the former Carol Wickstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin F. Wickstrom, 2216 Dellwood avenue.

Mr. Forbes, who is in the sales department of International Paper company, was recently transferred from the Longview, Wash., office to Kansas City, Mo.

The Forbes, with their infant son, Mark, arrived in the valley two weeks ago. Mr. Forbes continued on to Kansas City October 7 to locate a home for the family prior to the arrival of Mrs. Forbes and the baby in about two weeks.

Medford Photographer's Work Chosen for Exhibit

A photograph made by Dwayne Smith, Medford, has been selected by the United States Information agency for exhibit overseas.

Chosen for the exhibit, which will circulate for two or three years throughout foreign capitals, is a picture of Sir Toby, Maria and Sir Andrew from Twelfth Night which appeared on the front cover of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival association's program booklet this summer.

Players who appear in the photograph are Theodore Marcuse as Sir Toby, Auril M. D. Smith as Maria, and Richard D. Risso as Sir Andrew.

Mr. Smith's photograph was selected from an exhibit at the Los Angeles County fair, Pomona, Calif. The traveling exhibit by the Information agency is part of a program of explaining to foreign peoples the high standards which the American people have achieved in the areas of culture, science, education and industry. Exhibits depicting these achievements, it was explained, are considered to be one of the best methods of at-

The Twelfth Night photograph by Mr. Smith of Classic studio is the second Festival cover picture to receive recognition. The previous season's cover photograph of "Shylock" portrayed by Angus L. Bowmer in The Merchant of Venice received a merit award at the annual Professional Photographers of America convention in August.

Meeting Held by Past Noble Grands

Gold Hill - Mrs. Melford Hood was hostess for the last meeting of the Past Noble Grand's club of Amethyst Rebekah lodge at her home on Fourth avenue. Mrs. Albert Gascon, president of the group, conducted the business session.

Several of the members received gifts from their Amethyst secret friends at the meeting.

Mrs. Daniel Stewart will be hostess for the next meeting of the group at her home on Fifth avenue, Thursday, October 22, at 8 p.m.
