It'll matter little how Grants Pass high football fortunes have ebbed before it meets the Medford Black Tornado here on Nov. 6. There's good indication that the Cave-men of the Climate city still will be high in morale and ready for their battle in the rear capital. Take it from a Medford man who was within hearing distance of GP players last Friday night. While about the business of whipping Klamath Falls, the Cave-men still had their minds on the Tornado. Members of the GP forward wall were overheard to express their desire and eagerness to meet the Medford line.

In the contest concluding the regular season for both schools, Grants Pass will aim for its first win over Medford since 1953 and the Tornado will seek to blot the memory of ties (20 to 20 in 1957 and 9 to 0 last year) which have made the teams co-champions in the Southern Oregon conference chases.

John James, Bert Lindemann, Reggie Brees, Pat McLoughlin, Warren Parke and Bill Hobbs figure in the line-up adjustments contemplated by Fred Spiegelberg, Medford high grid boss, as the result of the knee injury to Dennis Jensen. Co-teams offensive tackle and defensive end.

Spiegelberg said yesterday that John James may move to the Go team tackle berth with Bert Lindemann filling the Shock team tackle position. Brees may take over the defensive end job with Pat McLoughlin and Warren Parke and probably Bill Hobbs dividing duties at the middle guard vacated by Brees.

Jensen may be out of action a couple of weeks, Spiegelberg has said.

Best in Three Years
St. Mary's high's performance Friday night in a 7 to 0 football loss to Yreka, Calif., was the best by the Crusaders in the three years under his coaching helm, mentor Bill McKibbin remarked yesterday. He pointed particularly to the defensive play of his Medford parochial school team. On offense, the Crusaders saw five good scoring bids miss. Fullback and tackle Terry Cooper suffered torn ankle ligaments in the game. Seriousness of the injury so far as it will affect Cooper's playing was not known yesterday. Cooper is the punter and placekicker for SM. Jim Calhoun can handle those chores.

Poll Participant
Coach Tom Van Ethen, whose Eagle Point high footballers were state semi-finalists in 1958 and are strong contenders in A-2 circles again this year, is the southern Oregon mentor balloting this season in the Oregon Journal's high school grid rating poll.

Eagle at Oregon
One of Van Ethen's proteges, Bill Turner, has enrolled at University of Oregon where he has basketball and track aims. It has been reported here that basketball is to be his main concentration at the Webfoot school, Turner was a football player, also, at Eagle Point.

Morale Booster
Grants Pass high stopped

Klamath Falls on the Cave-men 20, five, 11, six and 26-yard lines last Friday before getting its own offense in gear and trouncing the Pelicans 31 to 0 in Southern Oregon conference grid action.

Writer Bill Palmroth, in the Grants Pass Courier, mentioned the snapping of a KF victory string, the damage to the Pel's bid for District 6 honors and the formidable start by the Cave-men in league play. He continued:

But more important, the upset decision was a terrific morale booster for the Blue and White clad Cave Grid-ders, giving them the big lift they needed. It also may serve to discourage a few boycotting townspeople from writing the Mel Ingram aggregation off as hopeless losers in games to follow.

Simply Rogue
Some people are trying to be a bit complicated. We've heard several references of late to the Little Rogue Valley league in mention of the southern division of District A-2 in football. It's been officially and simply the Rogue league and still is so far as we know.

Hoop Clinic Soon
It's time to think of basketball already, especially if you are a referee or want to be one. An Oregon School Activities association basketball clinic will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 21, at Medford Senior High school. Time will be 7:30 p.m. The clinic will be conducted by Edward J. Ryan, assistant secretary-treasurer of the CSAA. Rules will be interpreted and examinations for certification will be available.

Coaches' Association Announces Film Of 1959 All-America Football Team

Chicago—UPI—The American Football Coaches association announced today that it will produce a half hour film, adaptable for television, of its 1959 All-America football team.

Selection of the team will be supervised by an 11-man board of the coaches association. The board will weigh recommendations of the other coaches and scouts and movies in action, plus campus and practice field sequences, with leading coaches among those doing the commentary.

The film will be available to sponsoring groups for previewing on the day the team is announced. The film also will be adapted for television, with United Press International distributing agent.

Butts said the film had been sold to sponsors in 70 cities thus far. The sponsors plan to show the film at civic and other group meetings. Among the sponsors thus far, Butts listed 11 savings and loan associations, 10 dairies and five banks.

Butts said the coaches association "welcomed the opportunity of working once again with General Mills and United Press International." The coaches selected their team for General Mills in 1957 after Colliers' magazine, for which the team formerly had been chosen, discontinued publication. The JPI distributed the selection of the team.

Butts said the personnel of the 11-man board which will select the team will be announced shortly through UPI. He added that arrangements have been made to have the players selected for the team appear on the Ed Sullivan CBS television program on Sunday, Nov. 29.

Aside from the frequent appearances of Army and Navy in the top 10 group, this was the best showing by Eastern teams in several seasons. Syracuse was in the No. 8 spot and Penn State 10th.

Texas moved up one notch to third place in this week's ratings by the 35-man UPI board of Coaches. Following the Longhorns in order came Georgia Tech, Purdue, Southern California, Mississippi, Syracuse, Iowa and Penn State.

The top 10 group thus included three teams each from the Big Ten and Southeastern Conferences, two from the East, and one each from the Southwest and Pacific Coast.

Auburn headed this week's second 10 group, followed by Air Force Academy and Clemson. Arkansas and Notre Dame were tied for 14th place, Tennessee was 16th; Washington and Oklahoma tied for 17th; and Southern Methodist and Florida tied for 19th. Wisconsin, Pittsburgh and Oregon also received votes this week.
