

Lopez, Alston Top Managers By Baseball Writers' Group

New York—(UPI)—Al Lopez and Walt Alston, who led the Chicago White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers to surprising pennant victories and then battled it out in baseball's first "Jet World Series" were named the major league's top managers today by United Press International.

Lopez, 51-year-old native of Tampa, Fla., was the choice of 22 of the 24 writers who comprised the American League committee while Alston, 47-year-old native of Barrow, Ohio, was picked by 16 of the 24 writers on the board.

Joe Gordon, who led the Cleveland Indians to a second place finish, received the other two votes in the American league. Bill Rigney, whose San Francisco Giants folded in the final week of the cam-campaign after apparently having the pennant "locked up," was second in the NL voting with six votes. Fred Haney of the Milwaukee Braves and Danny Murtagh of the Pittsburgh Pirates received one each.

First in 40 Years

Lopez, who never had finished lower than second in 12 years of managing major and minor league teams, was honored for steering the White Sox to their first pennant in 40 years.

Alston, who also led the Dodgers to their only world championship in Brooklyn, started this year definitely on the spot because of the sorry seventh-place finish of 1958. Few experts gave the Dodgers a tumble in spring training and they were written off a half dozen times during the season as the Giants and Braves appeared to be making a two-team battle for the flag.

But the Dodgers roared from behind in the final week to tie the Braves for the flag and create the third post-season playoff in NL history. They went on to upset the Braves in two straight games and then upset the White Sox, favored at 11 to 10, in the six-game World Series.

Cage Fete Set Dec. 26

New York—(UPI)—This year's Holiday Basketball Festival at Madison Square Garden will open on Dec. 26 with afternoon and evening doubleheaders.

The Eastern College Athletic Conference announced Monday that St. Joseph's of Philadelphia will meet Manhattan and Iowa will play defending champion St. John's University in an afternoon twinbill on Dec. 26, while York University and Cincinnati will face St. Bonaventure in the evening program on the same day.

These results will divide the field into winners' sections. Eliminations will continue on Dec. 28 and the final will be played on Dec. 30.

Iowa, St. John's, Dartmouth and NYU are in the upper bracket while Manhattan, St. Joseph's, Cincinnati and St. Bonaventure are in the lower bracket.

Cincinnati and Iowa are the guest teams this year while all the others belong to the ECAC.

Boxing Principals May Lose Licenses; Ex-Manager Banned

New York—(UPI)—The New York State Athletic Commission today sought revocation of the licenses of the principals in the promotion of the June 26 Johanson-Patterson fight, and banned one of their associates.

It directed counsel James P. Fuscassi to bring charges against Rosensohn Enterprises Inc., the promoting organization, and also against Bill Rosensohn, former president

Bill Stead Winner of Reno Race

Reno, Nev.—(UPI)—Bill Stead, a daredevil with a brain, was under suspicion today by his fellow hydroplane drivers for a bit of trickery that won the Reno regatta.

Stead piloted the Maverick to victory on the calm Lake Pyramid Sunday after he tricked four of the seven boats in the 10,000 Mapes Cup race into making false starts.

"I admit I tricked em," said Stead. "I pretended to make a fast start before the starting gun then slacked off. They all thought they were outgunning me. That's why they crossed the starters line ahead of the gun."

Two Drivers Are Cited in Ashland

Ashland—Two drivers were cited by city police here Monday night following accidents.

Elmer Wesley Blunck, 32, of 511 East Hersey st., Ashland was cited for failure to yield the right of way after his car and a Jeep operated by Billy Bingham Ashley, 28, of 854 A st., Ashland, collided on Siskiyou blvd. at Mountain ave., police reported.

Police said Blunck's car pulled out from Mountain ave. as Ashley's vehicle was eastbound on Siskiyou, and Blunck's vehicle hit Ashley's and overturned it. Ashley complained of a twisted left knee, according to the report.

MIXED NEWS—The World champion Dodgers received some good and bad news Monday. Walt Alston (top photo) was named the National league manager of the year.

Medford JV's Triumphant Over Crater JV's, 25-7

After a slow first half, which saw them trailing the Crater Junior Varsity, the Medford Junior Varsity tallied 25 points in the second half to down the Comet jvs 25-7, on the Medford Stadium football field last night.

There was no scoring in the first quarter, fumbles and pass interceptions stopped either team from making a sustained drive. The first serious thrust began in the first quarter but sloner Ford Frick slapped a $300 fine on coach Charley Dressen (bottom photo) for his sixth game dispute with umpires Frank Dascoli and Ed Hurley. # Word Due On Fight Promotion

New York—(UPI)—The New York State Athletic Commission hands down its "opinion" today on the strange activities that surrounded the Johanson-Patterson fight promotion, June 26.

This opinion or decision will be based upon testimony given at intermittent commission hearings between Sept. 14 and Sept. 29.

At one of the hearings was any doubt cast upon the honesty of the fight in which Sweden's Ingemar Johansson won the world heavyweight title from Floyd Patterson on a third-round knockout.

Word Due On Fight Promotion

Most of the testimony concerned: (1) Alleged underworld financial backing for Vincent J. Vellella, new president of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., the promoting organization, and (2) Alleged monopolistic activities of Cus d'Amato, Patterson's manager.

Admits Help

Bill Rosensohn, former president of the promoting organization, admitted on the stand that he had received financial help from mobster Tony Salerno, and he accused Vellella of "fronting" for Salerno.

Word Due On Fight Promotion

The licenses of Rosensohn and the promoting corporation were suspended in September. D'Amato's managerial license also was suspended. And Vellella's application for a promoters' license was denied.

The question today was whether the commission would immediately ban permanently the three men and the organization from boxing activity in the state or merely bring charges to be answered at later hearings.

Swan Island Drydock Expansion Scheduled

Portland—(UPI)—A 24,000-ton capacity drydock to supplement present facilities at Swan Island will be undertaken by the Port of Portland. The new drydock is expected to cost $7,300,000.

The Port Commission Monday authorized $1,500,000 in general bonds for the project. This is in addition to $2 million issued previously for start of construction.

Dressen Fined $300

New York—(UPI)—Coach Charley Dressen of the Los Angeles Dodgers was fined $300 Monday by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick for his dispute in the sixth game of the World Series with Umpires Frank Dascoli and Ed Hurley.

Frick fined Dressen $200 for "use of profane language and threatening gestures," he added a $100 fine charging Dressen with "showboating and delaying the game."

Dressen Fined $300

During the sixth and deciding game of the series, Dressen began "riding" Plate Umpire Dascoli, a National league leaguer. He later shifted his remarks to Hurley, an American league umpire who was working at first base.

Hurley ejected Dressen from the game in the fifth inning.

Sebring, Fla.—(UPI)—Stirling Moss of England, one of the world's top racing car drivers, says he plans to test a "revolutionary new car" when he comes here for the first Grand Prix of the United States, Dec. 12.

Moss, who will be seeking the world's driving championship in the Sebring Race, will test drive the new Formula-1 car now being built in England on the twisting Sebring course. In the race itself, however, he will drive the same Cooper-Climax in which he won the last two Grand Prix races in Europe.
